Hello, sweet songbird.
Is there something I can help you with?
It almost seems like you're wondering what you're doing here.
Oh, you want to sit on my garden rock?
Very well, then.
But if you're going to be staying awhile... you might as well let me take a look at you.

You've been skittish...
Or perhaps it's only that you enjoy feeling small, as you hide and watch.
Maybe you like skirting danger
I wonder—did you believe I didn't notice you?
You thought you could just shrink yourself down Sink to your knees behind a bush or tree or stone And I wouldn't possibly sense the presence of one who was making themselves small for me?
I could taste you in the air

Your face is so warm, little bird
I wonder how far that warmth spreads throughout your body Can you feel it moving down?
Heat in your neck, your chest, your belly Burning you down
Just like that candle outside my den Melting down your wax Almost as though you're drooling yourself away You're emanating heat, birdie It's filling you up almost unbearably Getting so strong
I bet you're desperate for relief, aren't you?

That's right, nodding yourself down a bit more Keep your eyes on mine You'll love watching them flash and change A wonderful distraction from the heat, to get drawn in so irresistibly to my eyes Are you warm, little bird?
Is it getting uncomfortable?
Poor thing.
Let me wrap my tail around your ankle. It might give you some relief.
Oh... you're nervous?

Well too bad, little bird
You need to cool off And I'm not sure which ankle is feeling the sweet chill of my scales sliding over it now—is it your right, or my right?
But even if it's my left, it is also my right to soothe those flames inside you It's not enough to have that coolness in such a small area, no
I can see that now Perhaps just a bit more will do a loop around both ankles, then

Is that better, my bird?
It's not?
Then my tail will continue to slide around you a bit further.
Maybe another loop or two
I wonder if you're beginning to get a little dizzy Between the heat in your body, and my eyes pulling you in deeper, and my tail slowly spiraling itself around you You're starting to realize it now, aren't you Sweet, silly little bird
My dumb birdie
It's a trap

Are you going to try to flap your wings?
Your little arms, pushing against my solid body, even as you find it easier and easier to keep your gaze locked on my enchanting eyes
You are so weak
And so, so warm
So I'll weave another loop around you And another, and another Feel your skin soften as my scales glide over you Can you even bend your knees anymore?
I know your arms are busy getting weak from trying to fly But maybe one hand might want to reach down and check on the tip of my tail see how far it's gotten up your body Can you find it?
Oh, you did, I feel it—
And now your arm is mine
I've got your wrist, little bird That's one wing lost How are you ever going to fly away now?
When I'm making loops and loops around your thighs and bringing your wrist down Pinning that arm tight to your side I did trick you, didn't I?

But I didn't even need to.
Just like that, your other arm is down And my tail just wraps you up further and further Soaking into your heat Did you think my muscles were just for show?
Of course I could have forced your arms down from the beginning.
But I love your expressions, birdie.
I love the struggle, I love to play I love to watch each thought surface and melt away again into my eyes

And that heat is still building up inside you even more only made comfortable by my sliding, squeezing tail Looping, looping, looping Weaving you into a spiral trap that you want to slide deeper into that's right.
Get cozy

The best part about my tail is how flexible it is Every loop can adhere to your body so snugly Sinking into all the gaps and spaces
It feels so good And my tail is as high as your chest now—almost at your shoulders!
How did it get so far?
How did you get so deep down, little bird?

Shh, you don't need to answer Your energy is better spent on other things Like remembering to relax Like focusing on that buzzing heat in your core Like pushing yourself further and further down for me Very good, it feels very good to relax down deep into the pleasure, my sweet songbird Are you going to make melodies for me?
As you let the pleasure flow through you?

There's a part of your body that's very sensitive And my tail is looping, looping... around your throat...

pressing into those veins just a little isn't that just divine?
That's it, let it all rush to your head All that pleasure coursing through you from your head to your cock/cunt and back again It feels so good to have me wrapped around your throat claiming you my tail holding you tight, just like a collar I wonder if there will even be a bruise

It feels good to be so deliciously trapped
You can barely even wriggle
And doing so only reminds you of how overwhelmingly powerful I am How so much of me is pressed up tight to every inch of you And the colors of my eyes are just flowing endlessly through your body now
As you become so perfectly blank

And it sets each and every sensitive little nerve of yours tingling when I squeeze
constricting your entire body all at once Making you so small and docile and on edge on the edge of that buzzing, tickling pleasure And before you can even process what is happening to you you are cumming
As I squeeze, again cumming, cumming, helpless A vulnerable little bird in the cage of my tail and I
squeeze
and you cum squeeze cum squeeze
cum
So much pleasure

That poor brain is so blank that you might not even be 100% sure if you did cum
But I can assure you, little bird, that you can just keep cumming your brains out You don't need to be sure that it's happening in order for the body to cum because the body is listening and it loves to cum so obediently

Feels so good to cum without caring about anything Simply drowning in the pleasure as you cum Further and further away, cum Blanker and emptier, cum So soft and malleable and loving every second
Cum
Squirting and pulsing, so messy...
Cum
You are pleasure
You are orgasm
You are mine

But you can go even deeper, deeper, deeper down Yes, little bird Feel the ground on your feet and I'll hold you steady as we twirl you Twirling, twirling, like a little top Twirling and swirling down deep deep deep into pleasure that spirals and slides you along So helpless, so easy to let the pleasure rise through you as you fall into a swirling, twirling, dripping, thing Deeper down
Barely aware as the air kisses your body once more Twirling, whirling, so dizzy, so hazy
So easy, so lazy Content to slide down even further Desiring that spiral needing to follow it down, down down
So deep
So good

You just can't help yourself but I can help you step out of those clothes, that's it Without my scales holding you, it's too warm for clothes and you've gotten them all messy, so they need to come off What's that? You're still too warm?
Oh you poor thing
But I don't want you to get too cold, either So here's what we'll do I'll press my human torso up to yours and wrap us both up together

That way you can have the comfort of my warmth and the bliss of my cool scales all at once

And I'm certain you are going to enjoy every moment It makes me want to drag it out a little so that you can really feel the little flutter in your belly as I begin to move into your space Staring you down
Maybe it was even enough to make your cunt/cock pulse That's right, birdie Maybe some part of you thought it wanted to back away but I know you'll stay right where you are because you need to feel everything as I press into you, now The heat of my skin blooming into you And your nipples can catch on mine carrying another twang of pleasure deep inside And our hips can fit together now
As my arms wrap around you And you, reaching out, exploring unconsciously pulling me even closer pulling yourself deeper within me Deeper into my thrall Deeper into the pleasure and the heat You're burning up
You need my coils, my scales, looping around and around and around so tightly Go ahead and beg, I want to hear how much you need it Such a sweet songbird and alllll mine

So I will wrap you up nice and snug again I want you gazing blankly into my eyes that keep you captivated and controlled Swirling the mind away And your focus can shift even further down as that familiar feeling returns As the tip of my tail begins to coil Sliding against your feet Looping around your ankles and the base of my own tail Lashing you to me with such a firm, erotic pressure And it's so hard not to tease Your expression is so blank like the rest of you

But I feel the warmth emanating from your cheeks, and your throat, and your cunt/cock and layer by layer, I am wrapping you down Deep down into my power Into the pleasure of surrendering to me Because that's what this is Your body is surrendering so deeply So docile, so pliant, holding me so desperately even as I coil further and further Tighter and tighter
As you grind your little hips into me
Such a needy, messy thing Dripping so much pleasure Letting your mind drool out of you Letting any control flow out of you Such a blank and empty little thing
Just a caged bird Begging for more bars and locks to wrap her/him up safe
That's right

And just like that, you're on the edge Mindless, horny, small, empty Searching for a place to searching for something to sink that cunt onto // hump that cock into Buzzing, drooling, dripping, dropping So helpless
And those thick, all consuming, inescapable coils squeeze but its just not enough anymore, you're stuck Stuck on that edge as the pleasure grows even more even past what you thought was possible Because your thoughts are gone now so there's nothing to stop the pleasure from continuing to grow
And it does continue to grow Inching closer and closer Edging yourself deeper Surrendering even further You can't get enough of this feeling, I know I can see now How addicted you are

And my tail is returning to your throat now
It feels so good, feeling that physical claim that I have over you And your body is enveloped in that bliss now as my coils sink into every atom of space Hugging all the curves and dips

Flexing and squeezing you into the right state of being The state where you are mine

And maybe now it will be enough if I kiss you and claim you and squeeze, everywhere at once – enough to cum, every time you feel that pressure – !
(kissing)

There's nothing left of you now
Only submission, and surrender, and pleasure, and orgasm, and need You need more
I know you do, birdie
And you've been so so so good My tail has been squeezing you so well You've been all broken down into an obedient gooey mess and it feels so easy to let me guide you as we adjust, together Your legs wrapping around the base of my tail, at my waist My coils, shifting to hold us close to keep you in this cozy sheath
