I am an American actress, located in the Los Angeles area.

I have French and English ancestry.

I am passionate about animation and video game voice over!

I also enjoy educational and motivational content.

My vocal range is diverse, from giggling baby, to coldhearted beauty.

I specialize in child voices, from baby to teen.

I am always excited to play characters with a supportive and optimistic temperament, but I also excel at delivering shy, cute, or eccentric reads.
