

Some extra things to note about her:

Like Sora, she wields the ability to transform when entering different worlds. In her case, some universes have a specific form, like Sonic, Naruto, etc... There are forms to fit the criteria.

Height and weight are 5'4" 145 lbs.

While she does have her own studio apartment in Twilight Town, she does frequent the hidden areas of the Castle That Never Was and Castle Oblivion's lower corridors as places to sleep and get food.

She does collect trinkets from all the different places she's been. It helps if she wishes to visit a certain world or universe. A shuriken from Konoha, a ring from Sonic, an icicle from Frozen, a piece of Vibranium from Wakanda, etc...

There's so much more.

I'll try to add more as things go.
It's been a minute since I've had to think about her.
