

Worksheet 6

1. You are taking part in an interview for a job. Answer the following questions with real details about yourself :

Il: Do you have any work experience?

I: Are you thinking of a career in law? Would you like to become a good lawyer?

I: What is the most important detail of your educational background?

I: Have you had any previous employment, full-time or part-time?

I: Have you ever attended any additional training courses?

I: What can you say about your linguistic ability? What level is your foreign language, according to your own opinion ?

I: Do you know the salary levels for the position you are asking for ?

I: Can you work well under conditions of stress?

I: Are you willing to work overtime?

I: Will you start right away once you are employed ?

2. Britney bought a pair of shoes. The heel of the left shoe is 0.5 cm higher than the heel of the right shoe. She goes back to the store. Formulate her complaint.
Her complaint:

3. Translate into Romanian:

1. "My investment is backed up by two banks."
"What if bank charges go up?" "I'll have to settle up with the bank anyway."

1. "I'm sorry for being late, I was held up by a group of customers."
"Why didn't you phone to call off the meeting?" "I was wondering how long you could hold out without my call."

4. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct form:

- If I (have) _____ extra money, I will go to Hawaii for the holidays.
- Should they have more inquiries, (refer) _____ the people to the manager.
- In case they call before noon, (tell) _____ them to contact me.
- If they had filled in the application form correctly, we (not face) _____ any problem of this kind.
- If I (have) _____ more cash, I would deposit it in my account. I would do real shopping if I (not have to) _____ spend on more serious things, like school fees and taxes.
- If your utility bills weren't so high, you (be able) _____ to pay two installments at once and get rid of this credit.

5. Translate into Romanian:

The graduates of law school usually start their career with getting jobs in their field, or they start preparing for the bar exam right after graduation. Under the influence of others and that of their own objectives, they choose to go to the bar examination, and become anxious right at the start line. They read and re-read the requirements, get all their books ready, order the newest publications from specialized publishing houses, look for the best authors and build a respectable pile of material on their best intentions to invest all their efforts in preparing.