

GROUP 3

Collaborative short stories

Topic: Solidarity

Subtopic: Help in need

Title: Love in Neverland

Once upon a time in Neverland people learnt how to be solidary persons and they changed the world. This is a story on how the young generation changed the world for better. It all started at school...

The world was a bad and dark place until Uruš came. Uruš didn't like how were people treated each other. Like always there were differences between people, but the most between the poor ones and rich ones. In Uruš's school, Njgoš and Muhmet were disturbed by Nikoš and other rich kids. One day at the lunch break Njgoš and Muhmet, as usual, didn't have anything to eat. Nikoš and his group of friends decided to make fun of them and throw food on them. When Uruš saw the situation he decided to help Njgoš and Muhmet. He stopped the bullies and he gave the money to the poor kids. Next day Nikoš forgot his lunch and Muhmet wanted to be a better person so he offered him his part of the sandwich. Nikoš was surprised and his mind changed.

Everyone saw his good gesture and every day love was sharing more and more in Neverland.

Authors:

Ivana Brajnović CROATIA

Mia Gjurinovac CROATIA

Marko Dumančić CROATIA

Ursula Cirfera ITALY

Georgi Radev BULGARIA