

I'm going to be explaining how to pick crystals from crystal shops near me. As in physically, using all of your senses and also how to choose a crystal, when you're shopping online, this was a requested post and I'm so excited to talk about this with you guys. because I believe it's pretty important to follow these methods when trying to find the right crystal for yourself.

A Couple Methods

I'm going to be talking about a couple methods you can try when picking a crystal from a crystal store near me. the difference between knowing what you want before going to the crystal shop versus having no idea, what you want, how to pick a crystal online, and if you're still having trouble finding a crystal. I have a hack that really works, that I'm going to share with you but what's most important, here is really letting this process come naturally. you don't want to feel rushed and it's all about connecting with your intuition and being open.

Let's say you just got the idea in your head that you want to buy stones from crystal shops near me, maybe it's your first time going crystal shopping, or you have crystal shopped in the past, but you just feel like you haven't really found the right stone for you. yet it's really crucial to let your intuition guide you throughout this whole process, and you really want to notice how you feel while you're crystal shopping.

I think that's really key in the whole process, but I will say that there are no rules. so depending on what you're looking for, I'm going to go through a few scenarios on how to pick a crystal.

Step One

The first scenario, let's say this is your first time ever going crystal shopping. so fun, so when you enter the crystal shop, you might feel a bit overwhelmed, because there's so much to see, and what I like to do, when I go to a new store is I'll start at a corner, and I'll just slowly make my way down the aisles. so that I can look at every single crystal. because I'm crazy and I want to see them all.

Step Two

As you start going down the aisles and looking at the displays, you might notice that there are these little info cards that say the crystal or stone's name and a little bit of a description of what it does. these are super helpful and awesome because you can kind of figure out what the crystal does right away. you can either look at these cards first or the crystal first, whichever feels more natural, again, there are no rules, let's say something catches your eye, let's say that you don't look at the card, you just look at the crystal first, and you're really captivated by the crystal, you're going to want to take a really close look at it, this is a really good first indicator that a crystal's energy is coming through to you because you are visually attracted to it. so this is great, you feel this attraction to this crystal.

Step There

The next thing you're going to want to do is you're going to want to pick it up and get a better look at it. put it really close to you, really examine it, and look inside the crystal, if you have natural light around you, that's great or if you just have a light fixture that you can shine the crystal or stone into you want to, just see what this crystal is are there any rainbows, are there any phantoms, is there anything like flashes in there, like you want to really explore this crystal and see if there's anything else. that's more unique, that draws you in. so we got a really good look at the crystal.

Step Four

The next method you're going to do is hold that crystal in your hands, and you're kind of just going to sense how you feel while you're holding it. it's kind of like we switch off from this visual aspect to this sensational aspect. so you might think all right, how does this crystal feel is, it small in my hand, is it big, is it rough, does it fit in my hand.

Conclusion

So perfectly like it was made just for me. do you feel good while you're holding the crystal? Is there a slight temperature change while you're holding it? do you sense any vibration in your hand? these are all things you sense through energy and you may be feeling these? because you are open to receiving the crystal's energy. So here are some tips for you to pick stones from crystal shops near me.
