

Listening 1: All Groups

CLICK HERE to access the audio and complete the chart below.

When did Sally go to Palau and what was the reason for her trip?	• ...
How did she get there and how long was her travel time?	• ...
How does she describe the island, the weather, the vegetation, and people?	• ...
Now look for Google images of the phrase “Palau Islands”. How would you describe what you see? Is it similar to what you imagined from Sally’s description?	• ...
Note: The audio suddenly stops. This is what she wanted to say: “There were people that came from all over the world to dive in the waters.” Vocab: - choir – (n) - /kwai-er/ – a group of people who sing together. -vast – (adj) – large, extensive

Listening 2: My Group

CLICK HERE to listen to your part of the audio and take notes. Be sure to read the vocabulary section and quote at the end. You will have to summarize the important details with your partners in the main room.

-What did the tour guide tell Sally about why the jellyfish lost their ability to sting?	• No need, No predators, Shorter tentacles
-How did Sally feel about the idea of swimming with the jellyfish before she did it?	• She was scary and she felt that it was creepy
-What does Sally say about the walk to Jellyfish lake? What helped her get there? Note: My mom has some difficulties with her balance because of a problem with her ear.	• Slippery hill, rain, Rope to hold on to, friend
CLICK HERE to see a picture of the trail to Jellyfish lake. Can you think of a beautiful place you have visited that has difficult access?	• Rio Celeste • Chirripo
Vocab: - lagoon – (n) - /la-gún/ – a calm, protected part of the sea that is not deep. -sealed off – (phrasal verb) – isolated or separated from something else. -creepy – (adj) – something weird and scary. -bump into – (phrasal verb) – to touch or hit against something. Last thing she said: “If I hadn’t had a friend who was encouraging me and helping me, especially because I have some balance issues, I probably would have given up, and that would have been a shame.”	