

General Expectations for Tutors

Afghan Tutoring Project

Background: Some students will not have access to a laptop, may not be able to meet exactly on time or only be able to text via whatsapp some weeks. Some students might have access to zoom and meet consistently at the same time every week.

1. Be aware of very specific and debilitating challenges:
 - a. Connectivity
 - b. Device issues
 - c. Natural disasters
 - d. Political and social instability
2. These challenges can result in:
 - a. Inconsistent meeting times and dates
 - b. Last minute cancellations
 - c. Weeks without communication with your learner
 - d. Potentially emotionally challenging tutoring sessions
3. Be flexible! Make a good faith effort.
 - a. When issues arise:
 - b. First include in the feedback form (initial if in first tutoring session or weekly form)
 - c. If it is an emergency, reach out to the project lead (via whatsapp) we will try to connect with the NGO. Might take a long time.
