

Demo v0.1 Hints (Spoiler Free!)

To survive, Alexis needs either brains or brawns!

You can't always survive alone! So don't slap all of the princes in their faces!

Regarding their types, Serin prefers the soothing kind, Nazir gets along well with those who know to have fun, and Aurelius likes people who can put up a fight if needed!

The Princes are able to learn their affinied magics faster than any other kinds!

The mini missions also raise the princes' affections.

….Also, save often xD
