| Root Problem Discovered                                                | Teachers have a lack of training, experience, and knowledge about how to teach about the LGBTQ community which makes it hard to teach about the LGBTQ community. The principal and the Office of Teaching and Learning need to make a change to the curriculum. |
