

"Speed Demon" Music Video / Short Film

Date assessed by the fact that Michael accepted the "Best International Solo Artist" award "live via satellite" (more likely taped) for The 1988 Brit Awards, which aired on February 8, 1988 (airdate confirmed on the official website); shooting would have completed before his return on tour February 23, 1988.

Speed chase scene on March 4, 1988, confirmed on pg. 312 of François Allard and Richard Lecocq's "Michael Jackson: All the Songs: The Story Behind Every Track" ("We shot the speed demon chase scene two days after Michael appeared on the Grammy Awards...")

"Speed Demon" Music Video / Short Film:

<https://youtu.be/I039y9Faljc> (From the official MJ YouTube channel, standard quality)

[NOTE: 1080p video is available in Moonwalker's HD 2010 remaster; not currently available on YouTube]

Making of Speed Demon (Unknown Channel):

https://youtu.be/Umy_oE8Seus (Original Broadcast)

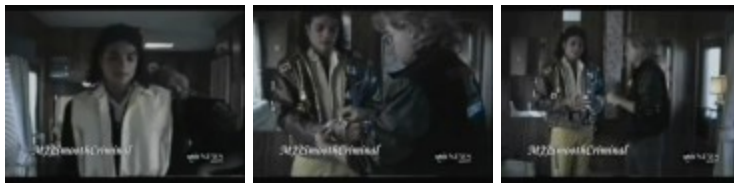

Michael accepting the "Best International Solo Artist" award "live via satellite" on February 8, 1988 for the Brit Awards (more likely taped during break of filming):

<https://youtu.be/fYoFsHG1eew> (HQ clip from the official Brit Awards YouTube channel)

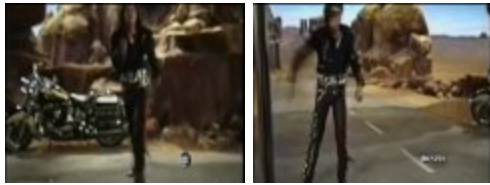

Putting on the Rabbit Costume in Trailer (Taping by Make-up Artist Karen Faye)

https://youtu.be/i1idCoY_vCo (ABC News Broadcast [Best Quality, but fan-watermarked])

Behind the Scenes Footage:

<https://youtu.be/CSrBXwlc0ji> - (Dancing, ABC News Clip)

<https://youtu.be/PPdVmGZkp8> ("Bad 25" Clips)

