

Joji Kumagai is the manager of economic development at the City of Port Moody and is a chartered professional accountant. Previously, he spent almost nine years with the Strathcona BIA as executive director and supported the BIA ecosystem through the BIA Partnership and as vice-president of BIABC. He is the co-vice-chair of the Invest Vancouver Advisory Committee and serves on the board of LocoBC.