

Access to Higher Education Diploma
Unit Reference Sheet

Unit Title: Person-Centred Approaches

Unit Code: 0910	Credit value: 9	Level: THREE		Type: Academic subject content
GRADED

Learning Outcomes: At the end of this unit, the learner will know/be able to:	Assessment criteria: The learning outcomes will have been achieved when the learner has:
1. Identify, describe and discuss Person-Centred Approaches	1.1 identified and described Person-Centred Approaches. 1.2 identified the key principles of a person-centred approach 1.3 described how this might differ from previously traditional approaches 1.3 discussed how the identified principles are implemented in practice.
2. Describe and discuss, from a holistic perspective, the effects of alcohol misuse and domestic violence on the individual.	2.1 described, from a holistic perspective, effects of alcohol misuse and domestic violence on the individuals involved in the case study. 2.2 discussed, from a holistic perspective the implications of the effects of alcohol misuse and domestic violence on the individuals involved in the case study.
3. Critically evaluate a person-centred approach	3.1 discussed positive effects of a Person-Centred Approach. 3.3 discussed possible barriers when empowering individuals in relation to cultural attitudes, social and political factors.

Access to Higher Education Diploma
Unit Reference Sheet

	3.3 critically evaluated a Person-Centred Approach using the Case Study provided.
--	---

Assessments:

Essay 3000 words (1.1-1.2 2.1-2.2, 3.1-3.3)

Structure of course: See Rules of Combination

Indicative Learner texts:

Adams.N and Griender.D.M Treatment Planning for Person Centred Care London, Elsevier Academic Press.

Cheminais.R (2009) Effective Multi-Agency Partnerships London, Sage Ltd.

Harne.L and Radford.J (2008) Tackling Domestic Violence. Berkshire Open University Press.

Leathard.A (2005) Interprofessional Collaboration New York, Brunner and Routledge.

Peterson.T and McBride.A (2005) Working with Substance Misusers, London, Routledge

Rogers. C (2008) Person Centred Approach, Herefordshire, PCC Books Ltd

Other resources: