

Add: Markus, Viktor, Mallorie, and Ameile Weszterberg to Heimar, Elisia, Fredrick, Treven, Elise, Solar, Solar's son, etc. to Vandinium

Hawkwick

Magnus II Ulfbert von Keldaar, High King of Hawkwick, Lord of Altberg and Harbinger of Eldengarde

Status: Alive and Well, managing the Vandinium Resistance with Fredrick

Known Relationships: Married to Mallorie Albrecht, Friendship with Fredrick of Vandinium

Known Relatives: Twin brother to Ava IV Ulfbert

- Personality:

Magnus wasn't particularly sheltered as a child, but he has serious trouble when it comes to political situations, particularly with regards to his inability to properly utilize formal language or put on a convincing facade for those he negotiates with. He is a very empathetic person, but his empathy is relatively easy to lose, especially if one of his loved ones is threatened. While not overprotective of his wife or sister, he is extremely concerned with their well-being and at times paranoid of his own.

Age: 23

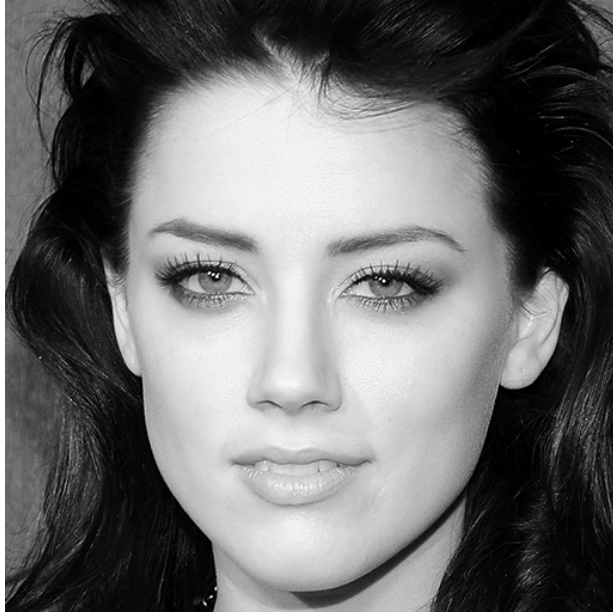

Current political stance: very Pro-Kingdom, Pro-Vandinium, reluctantly Pro-Artstotszka, Anti-AU

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

As an exiled ruler and victim of a botched assassination, Magnus despises the AU's leadership, specifically Markus I Albrecht, who he has grown to dislike, despite marrying his wife, Mallorie Albrecht. Magnus believes Fredrick is crucial to the possibility of a peaceful Nevthronia, despite not being particularly fond of the, in his opinion, ineffective policies that arise from Vandiniumite tradition.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

As victims of the same botched assassination, Magnus is fond of Samuel and Isabella of Artstotszka, but is weary of the Artstotszkan Empress's prior treatment of Vandinium and her current opinion on the Altics, believing, at least on a personal level, that it may be a bad sign for future governments of Hawkwick or of Heimar. He continues to hold out hope that Artstotszka could be a very powerful future ally. He believes Wahland could, if they wanted to, be included in a monarchical commonwealth with his future Hawkwick, but he considered their current government to be a tad too jingoistic.

Ava IV Ulfbert von Stein, Empress of Vandinium and Holder of the Torch

Status: Alive and Well, mildly depressed, managing the Vandinium Resistance with Fredrick

Known Relationships: Married to Fredrick of Vandinium

Known Relatives: Twin Sister to Magnus II Ulfbert, Mother to Valeria von Stein

Age: 23

- Personality:

Ava has a greater command of the political forces than Magnus, being capable of negotiating even one-sidedly beneficial deals for her government. She uses formality selectively, and to great effect. Her facade however, is easily broken by stressful situations. The war has left her mildly depressed, especially the attempt on her life, which has led to her being more overprotective of the Heir to Vandinium and her daughter, Valeria von Stein.

Current Political stance: very Pro-Vandinium, Pro-Kingdom, Pro-Artstotszka, Anti-AU

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

Ava supports installing her brother as High King of Hawkwick, and, as Empress of Vandinium, supports the idea of a Nevthronian League, something that her brother isn't particularly fond of. She supports Fredrick's rule of enlightened despotism as well as his controversial reforms in Vandinium. She hates the current AU, but secretly feels sorry for Markus I Albrecht, knowing his motivation and his past after meeting him in 2015.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

Ava is skeptical of the Artstotszkans politically but personally likes their diplomats. Like her brother, she has taken a liking to the visiting Artstotszkans. Ava doesn't care much for Wahland, and does not care about including it in the potential Northern Alliance, instead believing they are too imperialistic.

Jorik Narheim von Korin, Supreme Commander of the Royal Altic Armed Force

Status: Alive and Well, managing Vandinium and the Japao Situation

Known Relationships: 'Friends' with Markus I Albrecht and Amelie Weszterberg

Known Relatives: Twin Brother to Jarik Narheim

Age: 40

- Personality:

Cold, calculating, logical, and more than likely a high-functioning sociopath, Narheim selectively cares for things, choosing not to give a damn about the majority of people. Due to this reason, he has not married, although he would consider the option for political gain. Above all else, he desires to stay alive, although the prospect of power is slowly becoming more inviting to him, especially as his brother drains his resources. Also more of a narcissist than his brother, although he hides it better.

Current Political stance: very Pro-AU, Anti-Vandinium, Neutral to Artstotskza

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

As one of the creators of the AU, Narheim staunchly believes his Union is one of the only forces in the north that are capable of containing the Vandiniumites, who he considers dangerous after witnessing several Blackwatch Invasions. While he hopes the Union will survive, he is also ready to cut all ties and escape to his yacht if needed. He considers Magnus and Fredrick to both be serious threats to the Union and wants them dead above all, perhaps besides Hellhorn, who he holds a much more personal grudge against.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

Narheim does not care much for Artstotszka, considering them ‘un-invadable’ due to their cultural homologousness and huge population. Instead, he hopes to forcibly sever any potential ties between Artstotszka and Vandinium before they are created. He hopes to see the AU befriend Wahland in order to exploit their fuel resources and Navy.

Hinrich Reinhart, DRAGON Attache and Former Prime Minister of Hawkwick

Status: Alive, Alcoholic, Anger Issues, Mid-Life Crisis, hunting Hellhorn above the RAV
Revenant

Known Relationships: Despises Jory Hellhorn, Admiral Harrison Karivik and a lot, lot more

Known Relatives: Technically the Adoptive Father of Evelyn Jensen

Age: 57

- Personality: A man trying to simultaneously escape and relive his glory days, Reinhart is most notably remembered for being the benevolent First Prime Minister of the Free Republic, helping to pull Hawkwick back up after it was destroyed, along with his family, in the First Blackwatch War. String after string of loss has left him a bitter man and an alcoholic, although he has been on the mend since the end of the civil war. He hopes the apprehension of Hellhorn will be his last action before he retires. He looked after Evelyn Jensen in Hans Jensen's absence, and considers her his adoptive daughter, although knows he does not want to rub off some of his more unfavorable traits on her. For this reason, he may appear distant.

Current Political stance: Pro-Kingdom, indifferent otherwise

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

Reinhart is not particularly fond of the AU nor their invasion of Vandinium, but has detached himself too much from world politics to take a more active stance on the issue. While he believes in a free Vandinium and a reinstated High Kingdom of Hawkwick, he does not think Magnus or Fredrick are up to the job themselves.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

Hinrich believes Artstotszka can be a powerful force for good, but thinks that their rulers are too inconsistent for anything worthwhile to come out of the nation. He is very critical of the, in his opinion, half-measures and indecisiveness demonstrated by Artstotszka recently, especially with regards to interventionism in the Civil War. Reinhart thinks Wahland is an ideal place to live, and resided there 2015-2017, and sees a younger, better Hawkwick in it. He plans to retire there.

Evelyn Jensen, Former DRAGON Operative

Status: Alive, Depressed, Suffering from PTSD and Anxiety

Known Relationships: Acquainted with Viktor Albrecht and Isabella Volkunov. Dislikes, but does not hate, Jory Hellhorn, Markus Albrecht, and Jorik Narheim. Awkward around Emperor Fredrick, as they were briefly romantically involved in their early teens.

Known Relatives: Adopted Daughter of Hinrich Reinhart, Daughter of Hans Jensen

Age: 22

- Personality: The daughter of the Father of Hawkwick could barely be considered related to him. Her upbringing by Hinrich Reinhart has left given her a sharp wit and an inclination towards Politics, but despite this, she partially wants to escape and live a normal life, having been robbed of one all her life. Her service with HARM in her mid-teens at the dawn of the Civil War have left her with PTSD and anxiety, as well as a moderately large facial scar. The death of her boyfriend Gerald Schultz early in the war has left her extremely skeptical of any further relationship, friendship or otherwise, for the fear of loss.

Current Political stance: Pro-Kingdom, Pro-Vandinium, indifferent otherwise

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

Her views on the Altic Union that replaced her father's government are extremely negative, leading her to support Magnus as one of the only remaining viable candidates for leader of Hawkwick. Despite not particularly liking Vandinium, blaming their poor leaders for the death of her father as well as the current state of the north as a whole, she is hopeful that her former friend Fredrick can pull it all together, especially with Magnus' support.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

Evelyn has little to no opinion of Wahland, although she admires their spy network and the scenery of the nation. She has, however, taking a liking to Artstotszka, especially after living alongside Isabella at Hlymrek Castle, and as a loner herself, considers Artstotszka's successful isolationism to be a sign of a good leader, leading to her respecting Annalise as well, and sharing in her general dislike of Vandinium.

Jory Hellhorn, Leader of the 'True NFA'.

Status: Alive and Well, suffering from delusions of grandeur, currently Governor of Tanoa

Known Relationships: Acquainted with Viktor Albrecht and Isabella Volkunov. Dislikes all monarchs of any sort. Hates Evelyn Jensen, but ironically likes Hinrich Reinhart, despite rocky relations.

Known Relatives: N/A

Age: 41

- Personality: Loud and Opinionated, Jory Hellhorn's strongly democratic socialist political views can't be traced to any particular origin, despite the fact that he lost his wife in the First Blackwatch War. Known for angry outbursts and a total dismissal of formality in all situations, regardless of context, he considers himself to be the smartest person in any room he enters, something which is only reinforced by the plethora of yes-men that surround him.

Current Political stance: Anti-Kingdom, Anti-Vandinium, Anti-AU, Anti-Artstotszka, mildly Pro-Wahland.

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

There is probably no person alive that despises both the AU and Vandinium as much as Jory Hellhorn does. He believes the AU is a perversion of Hawkwick, one that robbed him of the possibility of a socialist Hawkwick. He believes, rightfully, that Markus' mind is clouded by PTSD, and, due to being labeled as a terrorist by the AU, intends to prove them right. He thinks Fredrick and Magnus are both worthless excuses for human beings, holding Fredrick in particular accountable for the second rise of Blackwatch and the failure of Hawkwick's government.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

Jory is not fond of Artstotszka either, believing their isolationist attitude and general hostility towards the outside world to be detrimental towards the development of a United World. He agrees with them on Vandinium, but since their alliance with the AU, he has gradually shifted his view to be anti-everything. He believes Wahland to be a corporate hellhole with no right to any of the resources they own, but respects the stability the nation offers.

Janus Wulfar, Circle Member and Royalist General

Status: Alive and Well, PTSD

Known Relationships: Acquainted with Viktor Albrecht and Isabella Volukunov. Harbors secret dislike of the Narheims and the Albrechts

Known Relatives: N/A

Age: 65

- Personality: Janus Wulfar is more of a pawn than a man, serving as the face of Hlymrek as a propaganda tool within the Union; he blames himself for the disastrous surrender of the NFA in the Civil War, a surrender which he ordered while being held up at gunpoint. He holds no significant opinion of Hellhorn anymore, believing him to be a coward for running from his responsibilities in the infant NFA. His experience as a HARM general fighting against Blackwatch has given him extreme PTSD, which he takes great effort to hide from the public eye. In a way, he is the man keeping the radical Hawkwickans in line for the Union. Hellhorn considers him a traitor.

Current Political stance: secretly Pro-Kingdom, Pro-Artstotszka, Pro-Vandinium

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

As a pawn of the AU, Wulfar has learned to tolerate his overlords or risk his death, although he secretly hopes for a High Kingdom, as many former supporters do. He is not fond of Fredrick personally at all, but believes that the remainder of the Vandinium government is acceptable.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

He holds no strong opinion of either of these nations, mainly due to his geographic isolation from their issues.

Harrison Karivik, Fleet Admiral, Lord of Luftberg, and CO of the RAV Tyrant, RAV Revenant and RAN Second Fleet

Status: Alive and Well, Commanding the RAV Revenant near Japao

Known Relationships: Extreme dislike of Reinhart and Jensen. Superficially Pro-Vandinium, but not pro-Fredrick.

Known Relatives: N/A

Age: 39

- Personality: A war veteran who is one of the sole reasons that the First Blackwatch War was a Hawkwickan Victory, he has supported the status quo for all of his life, believing them to be the safest option, both for Hawkwick and for himself. He would serve anyone, but would prefer the AU stay in power, for simplicity's sake. He has taken a dislike to all NFA members, current or former, simply due to his personal dislike of Hinrich Reinhart.

Current Political stance: Pro-AU (and all that comes with it)

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

Favoring the status-quo, he considers the current Vandinium government to be ineffectual, preferring an AU occupation to the strong possibility of Blackwatch or other radicals invading Hawkwick again.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

He does not separate his military opinions of these two nations from his political opinions, and as such, he is a strong proponent of an expanded Altic Navy, simply so that it can serve as a counter to the expanding threat of instability from both of these nations

Artstotszka

Annalise Volukunov, Eighteenth of Her Name, Empress of Artstotszka, Ruler of the Kitari and the Exiles, Chieftess of The Fourteen Tribes, Queen of Aurora and Guardian of the Component States.

Status: Alive, currently ruling her empire

Known Relationships: Samuel Vlastimil (husband), Viktor Albrecht (Brother in law), Extremely distrustful of Frederick.

Known Relatives: Has 3 children, Serina, Alexander, and Cynthia, and is a member of the Volukunov Family.

Age: 25

- Personality: Charismatic and Prideful, Annalise is a far different ruler than her soft-spoken predecessor. Due to her upbringing by the late Viktor Volukunov, Annalise is well-versed in military and administration. Despite her cold and wrathful appearance, she tends to unmask her true personality to her family, whom she depends on for comfort and advice; Annalise's family tends to serve as a sensitive point, and she will not tolerate insults or threats directed towards her siblings, her husband, or her children. Recently, due to Samuel's extended absence and Viktor Volukunov's death, Annalise has started to act increasingly irrational and aggressive, causing concern amongst her family.
- Current political stance: Anti-Vandinium, Pro-Artstotszka (clearly), Very Anti-AU

- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium

Annalise sees the Vandinities has “The old enemy”, and has always been willing to fight them if need be; Her strike on the Capital of Vandinium or Frederick’s Refuge Fleet show how far she is willing to go to defeat what she perceives as a threat. Her opinion of the Altics, though, has managed to be even worse. While she was willing to let the Altic’s Invasion fleet for Vandinium sail through Artstotszka’s canals, the botched attempts on Isabella and Samuel’s lives has left her filled with nothing but hate for the AU. The AU’s threat to her Empire, as well as their attacks on family members, has led Annalise to even agree to assist the Vandiniumites, however little that help may be.

- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland

Annalise believes in maintaining Artstotszka’s dominace over the far north, and she sees it as her personal duty to guide and unite the Kitari race. This has led to conflict with Wahland over New Takorra, which was annexed by her orders. She sees the nation of Wahland to be a corporate den of corruption, and believes them to be akin to a child playing with explosives; unaware of the danger they face.

Eliza Volukunov, former heir to the throne.

Status: Dead (Died of blood loss after childbirth)

Known Relationships: Several close friends, but no romantic entanglements.

Known Relatives: Member of the Volukunov dynasty

Age: 29

- Personality: Cautious and empathetic, she was raised as the favorite child of Annalise the Seventeenth, to the point of neglecting her other children, a fact that still causes tension amongst the siblings. Despite this, Eliza never truly wanted to be the heir to the throne. She underwent a major crisis when she was found to be “infertile” (While she could reproduce, there was a good chance she’d die during labor), a secret she kept until her mother abdicated the throne in favor of her. Seeing a chance to live a semi-normal life, Eliza would shock the nation when she turned down the throne in favor of her younger sister, Annalise The Eighteenth

- Current political stance: While she tried to avoid politics, Eliza occasionally sat in on war meetings to give support to Vandinium.
 - Opinion on The AU and Vandinium: She held no strong opinions for either side, however Eliza saw the Altic Union as an unjust aggressor in their war against Vandinium.
 - Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland: While she obviously loved her own country, Eliza did not hate Wahland, but rather saw them as a nation which has lost itself and fallen on hard times.

James Volukunov

He's a sarcastic carefree smartass whose character description will be finished later.

Isabella IV Albrecht, Queen of Vipura

Status: Alive, Has a wicked scar now

Known Relationships: Married to Viktor Albrecht, acquainted with Evelyn Jensen, Janus Wulfar, and Jory Hellhorn.

Known Relatives: Member of the Volukunov dynasty (Albrecht through Marriage), Has a daughter with Viktor named Karoline

Age: 22

- Personality: Sociable and Friendly, Isabella excels at Socializing and Diplomacy, though she is not well versed in military matters. Her Vipuran upbringing gave her an extreme Alticphile hobby, a major factor in being appointed Queen by The Empress. Married to Viktor Albrecht, Isabella has feared AU retaliation more and more in the months since she was almost killed by an assassin in Frederick's palace in Vandinium.

- Current political stance: An outspoken supporter of Vandinium during the beginning of the AU invasion, Isabella's near death led to an increase in sympathy for the Vandiniumites among the Council of Five.
- Opinion on The AU and Vandinium: While Isabella loves Altic culture, she is horrified by the AU's warmongering and threats. Despite her close relationship with her sister, Annalise, Isabella has consistently supported helping Vandinium fight off the AU.
- Opinion of Artstotszka and Wahland: While she is a major supporter of her sister's rule, Isabella wishes to reduce Artstotszka's xenophobia and build stronger ties with its neighbors. While she has an interest in Wahland due to its history, Vipura has little involvement in the Wahland war.
