

Eliminate your pain and experience life anew

Feel the warmth of soft hands sliding down your body, soothing your pulsating pain and bringing deep relaxation.

Experience inner peace as your muscles gradually loosen.

That is a feeling we promise you will experience.

More on that later.

Your current struggles

Deep down you know that life is too short to endure the feeling of needles stabbing down your spine.

Every day is a struggle to not succumb to the monotonous life plagued by the pain you are in right now.

There is nothing you desire more than a body free of pain and a mind clear as the spring water you saw in your pain-free youth.

Why You Need A Massage

With age, every day is a struggle against physical pain.

Everyday tasks feel harder than before.

Your back pain slowly dictating your life in a negative direction.

But you know how it was in your earlier days, this was not the reality back then.

Reclaiming the ability to eat and clean in your own house without pain isn't as hard as you think.

You need to listen to your body and embrace its cries for help.

There are two ways for you.

Take pills and endure the side effects or look for a massage therapist.

I went to Hanna with some particular problems in my left hip and lower back. Hanna took the time during our first meeting to find out what my issues were. She then started my first message and I can say that it helped right away. I have been going to see Hanna regularly and am now pain-free in my problem areas and she helped some areas that weren't as bad as my left hip and lower back. I am virtually pain-free. I highly recommend Hanna for your massage therapy needs.

Hannah was amazing. She took the time to ask questions and see where the most work was needed. I have been twice and after my next travel contract will be traveling back to see Hannah. If you're looking for that amazing massage, then make an appointment, you can thank me later.

Massage Therapy by Hanna

About Hanna

Hanna Johnson graduated in 2018 from the Arkansas School of Massage in Fort Smith, Arkansas. She then accepted a job in New Braunfels, Texas at a top-rated Massage Therapy company. Hanna decided it was time to launch her own small business in October 2019, where she started Massage Therapy by Hanna in New Braunfels, Texas. Hanna offers a variety of massages targeted toward your own well-being. Since 2019 she has been offering massages that satisfied her clients through the COVID pandemic.

Hanna did an amazing job! I walked in with sciatic nerve pain and so much tension in my shoulders it was painful to exist. Hanna did quite a bit of digging as well as compressions and stretching. I walked out sore but feeling like a new person! If you need a massage I highly recommend coming by, you won't leave disappointed!!

Fantastic experience! Hanna offers a wonderful (and professional!) consultation before the massage to find out your needs and what exactly you are there for. The massage itself was amazing (Swedish) and extremely relaxing, I went first thing in the morning and it improved my entire day! Can't wait to go again!

I highly recommend Hanna. She is very knowledgeable and excellent at her work. She is very prompt, accommodating, and very professional allowing for a therapeutic and comfortable experience. I've referred a friend of mine and my uncle who speaks limited English, and both found relief from pain. We are very grateful to have her help. I know. Anyone who visits her will be pleased and will leave relieved and with guidance on self-care.
