

Current state

She is suffering from acne. She doesn't know the real reason why she has it. She gets frustrated every time when she gets a breakout because she is doing all right (dieting, exercise, sleep, water) but still gets breakouts.

Dream State

She would like to have clear, healthy skin without breakouts.

Roadblock

She is using pore-clogging ingredients in her makeup which triggers her acne.

Solution

She needs a list of pore-clogging ingredients to avoid so she can buy makeup and skincare products that won't trigger her acne.

The hidden cause of your breakouts

Most makeup and skincare brands LIE about being acne safe.

There's no doubt about their products being non-comedogenic and oil-free, but there's something under the cover...

Something hidden on the back of the ingredient list they don't talk about.

Specific clog-poring ingredients that are constantly making your skin flare up.

That's why I created a short list to guide you when choosing makeup and skincare products that won't do any harm to your pores.

And I want to give you a FREE copy of this list today so you can take a HUGE first step toward clear acne-free skin.
