

HISTORY OF THE COUNCIL OF SIX

by Roger Kerr

This story was originally written in June of 1999, but a lot of information has come through since then that has added a lot more clarity to this story. Also, some of the original information that I had written turned out to be not entirely accurate. So I have done some editing to make the necessary corrections, and to bring it up to date as of February 2001. Also, I recently published a message called "Truth About Orion 'Lizards'" that contains a lot of the same information, but is much more detailed and more accurate. That message is also presented on this web site, and also at <http://danwinter.com/orionlizards> , so I have edited out the redundant parts from this message, and will instead make references to that more recent message. So on to the History of the Council of Six:

This story is about a group of Souls who began an adventure into the Universe of Duality a long, long time ago, in a distant Galaxy, far, far away. No, this is not 'Star Wars', although that might not be such a bad comparison. It is the story of Remembering the distant past, of Remembering the Beginning of a journey that would ultimately affect countless billions of other Souls. It is a story of six Souls who formed a 'Council of Six' to fulfill a Mission that was formulated at the Highest Realms of Creation. It is also a story of how two of those Souls, began to open their awareness and reach back into the depths of their Consciousness to discover their Beginnings. It began taking shape in August of 1997, when I first came into email contact with a lady who happened to be an incarnation one of those six Souls . She had already gotten some information on this Council of Six in some earlier past life regression sessions. Bits and pieces of information have been coming into our awareness little by little over the many months since that time. This information was obtained from connecting with our Higher Selves and our Spirit Guides, who helped us connect to many of our past/alternate Selves. Many lifetimes have come into our awareness, but this story is about the most pivotal life of our long journey. It obviously contains many gaps, and in some portions, educated guesses. So what follows is the best compilation of information as of February 2001. Is this story of our journey true? Well, it is our truth, and we invite you to come along and judge for yourself, to see if our story may mirror your own truths, or at least help you to find your own deeper truths.

We live in a Universe of Duality, particularly here in the 3rd dimension. Our whole world is based on duality: Light/Dark, Love/Fear, Good/Evil, Male/Female, Higher Consciousness and Lower Ego Consciousness. But probably the most important aspect of this Duality is the existence of the Humanoid and Reptilian races of Beings. It is this aspect of the Duality that is the focus of the story of the Council of Six. There are many races of Reptilian Beings in this Universe, whom many people would consider as being 'Dark'. Because we have been immersed in this Duality so long we have lost the distinction between Energy and Consciousness. In my way of thinking there are only three things that exist in this Universe: Light energy, Dark energy and Pure Consciousness. Many people think that the Ascension process is about becoming or returning to Beings of Light, but we were never truly 'Light' in the first place. We must come to the awareness, and truly REMEMBER that we are neither Light nor Dark, but Beings of Pure Spirit and Consciousness who inhabit bodies composed of both Light and Dark Energies. There is a huge distinction here. Of course Beings that exist in the higher dimensions have bodies that contain more Light energy than those such as ourselves in the lower dimensions. As our Spirits Descended into the lower dimensions and denser realms of the Universe, our Spiritual or Etheric bodies had to take on more and more Dark energy in order to lower our vibration rate so that we could incarnate into these physical bodies. The lower the dimension we descended to, the more Dark energy we had to take on. How did we take on that Dark energy? Through our emotions of fear, hate, anger, grief, guilt, etc. So as we took on more and more Dark energy, we began to identify ourselves with the different levels of Light and Dark energies. We forgot that we were the Beings of Consciousness who merely embodied those different levels of Light and Dark energies. It would appear that those Dark energies we took on through our emotions merely clouded, or veiled our Conscious awareness of who we truly were. So while it is true that in order to Ascend back to the higher dimensions we have to release these 'Dark' emotions and allow more Light energy into our Beings, we must not confuse Light with Consciousness.

In this respect, since the Reptilians exist in a higher dimension than we do, they would not be as 'Dark' as we are. The Reptilians just have a different way of being, a different state of Consciousness than we have. But Consciousness is neither 'Light' nor 'Dark', there are just different levels of awareness, some higher than others. The Ego Consciousness or Intellect tends to block the Higher Consciousness from coming through, and as a result causes us to hold on to more of the 'Dark' emotional energies. So in this sense, the Ego blocks the flow of the 'Light' Energies in our bodies. The Ego Consciousness may affect energy but it is not energy, so it is not 'Dark'. It is merely a lower level of Consciousness. The Reptilians seem to be completely immersed in their Ego Consciousness, the Intellect. But does that make them 'Dark' or 'Evil'? Who are we to judge them? There are just as many Humanoids who are totally immersed in their Egos, and they can be just as 'Dark' and 'Evil' as the Reptilians. So being 'Dark' or 'Evil' has little to do with whether you are Reptilian or Humanoid. But the Reptilians are masters at survival, and they are some of the oldest races in this Universe. They are very aggressive, fierce and determined warriors, and can be very intimidating to say the least, of that you can be sure.

I began having psychic contacts with members of the race known as Draconians in late March of 1997. Over the next few years, I would eventually have contact with many different races, including several other Reptilian races, some Aryan Humanoid races, and also with a race that I have come to call the "Changelings". My sense about them is that they were like the Changelings or "Founders" in the TV show "Star Trek, Deep Space Nine". They can shape-shift into any form that they choose, which is why I call them Changelings. For more information on how all that happened and who these Changelings really are, see my message "Truth About Orion Lizards", also on this web site. But the story of the Council of Six mostly revolved around the conflict between the Changelings and the Reptilians. Of course, the various Humanoid races and many others would also get caught up in this Universal drama.

I have had several different meditation experiences over the last few years that all seemed to fit together, and were important parts of the story of the Council of Six. In of January 1997, I met my Twin Flame Soul Mate through email. The Love and energy rushes I felt when we first connected was unlike anything I had ever felt before. Shortly after we connected I was taken on an Astral journey back to the Andromeda Galaxy, to what I began to call the 'Home World'. I saw the two of us in a wedding ceremony where we each pledged our eternal Love to one another. We were presented with a small Blue Crystal and we anchored the Love that we had for each other into that crystal. Next I saw the two of us in what I would call a briefing meeting. The person leading the meeting asked for volunteers for a very dangerous mission. Many people raised their arms, as did my "Twin Soul" and myself. We looked at each other and gave each other that look that said "we can do this". Slowly everyone else in the room put their arms down, except for the two of us. We were then taken into a private room where we were told what we would have to do. I was not given all the details in the meditation, but I knew that my part of the mission was to go down into the very depths of the 'Dark' World, the World of the Reptilian Beings. I would be like an Eagle, I would have the ability to dive down into the depths of Darkness, in order to do what was necessary to fulfill my role in this Mission. But I would also be able to come back out and be able to soar to Spiritual heights to connect to the Higher Beings who would Guide me through this long and difficult journey. My Twin Soul would always be there for me to give me the Love and support I would need, and to help pull me out of the Darkness.

After receiving our instructions for this Mission, we went inside of a huge pyramid and were led to a chamber where there was a gigantic Blue Crystal. This Blue Crystal was the power source for a huge interdimensional portal or energy vortex on the Andromedan Home World. We took our personal crystal and again pledged our Love to each other into it, and then I placed it in a small receptacle in the huge Blue Crystal. The sense I had was that this crystal contained the programming for every life that we would experience. In each life, one of us would be given a crystal that would contain the program for what needed to be done in that particular life. After doing that, I saw myself incarnating into a physical body on a different planet in a different Galaxy.

In August of 1997, the lady that I had connected with told me that she had become aware of a life a long time ago, in which she was a member of a Council of Six, and the events and ensuing Karma that she took on from that life had been paramount to her whole existence. In reading her story about that life, I became aware of one of my own past lives that I had been unaware of. I was a female by the name of Shandrasi, and I too was a member of the same Council of Six. When I tuned into this life, I realized that it occurred on a planet in another neighboring Galaxy, probably over three hundred million years ago in Earth's time frame. My sense is that this was one of the Local Cluster of Galaxies, but it was a different Galaxy than either Andromeda or the Milky Way. I recently was taken on a journey to that Galaxy, which confirmed this. It seemed as if this was one of my first 'physical' incarnations, although I later realized that it was not really physical as we know it because it was in the 5th Dimension.

Then in November of 1998 I had a meditation where I was shown another life I had that occurred in the Andromeda Galaxy, on the Home World. I was female, and I was one of a group of Beings that have become known as the Golden Ones. I had been one of the portal 'operators' of the Blue Crystal Portal. Again, this would have been probably hundreds of millions of years ago in Earth's time frame. The sense I had was that this life was just prior to Shandrasi's life and the Council of Six, and seemed like a slightly higher dimensional level than the Council World. Life in this Universe of Duality was already well under way, and I have gotten the information that many of the different races were living in different Galaxies of the Local Cluster. Everything seemed to be still pretty much in Balance, and I had the impression that this was before all the conflict between the Reptilian and Humanoid and other races began.

In late 1997, my friend had a meditation where she saw the two of us as these huge Beings. She said that things seemed pretty stagnated, not much spiritual growth or excitement. She and I had been part of a group of Beings that also included Lucifer. He had left us and had Descended into a lower dimension to experience life in a different world on a different planet. He had planned to incarnate as one of the Reptilian Beings and then return. But when he didn't come back as planned, the rest of us became pretty concerned. Then some events took place involving another race of Beings that I have come to call the Changelings, that I had mentioned earlier. Apparently, we started looking at possible future timelines and saw some rather disturbing developments. The Changelings began completely dominating all other races, and the Balance and Order of life as it was originally intended was being seriously compromised. I explain all this in a lot more detail in Part 3 of my message "Truth About Orion Lizards", so I will not go into all of that here. But the bottom line was that we knew that something had to be done to bring things back into Balance. A master plan was drawn up to accomplish that. So it would seem that this was the purpose of the Mission Briefing I had been shown earlier, and this was what my Twin Soul and I had volunteered for. This other lady was also to play a key role in the plan.

I now know that this was the same life that I had been shown a year later, as the Golden Ones. Later I got the message that this "Briefing Meeting" had occurred on a Soul level after that life as the Golden Ones. Our "Descent" into the Council World marked the beginning of our long journey into the world of duality, and into the 'Darkness' of Forgetfulness and Separation that would produce major conflicts between Changelings, Humanoids and Reptilian Beings. It was as a result of what happened in that life of the original Council of Six that we began to forget who we truly were, and began believing that we were all separate Beings, and that we were separate from God/Goddess and Great Spirit. We fell into judgement of other races of Beings and of each other, believing that one was "Good" and one was "Evil". But yet it would all lead to a higher purpose, to bring us back in resonance with the overall Divine Plan. So after placing the programming for my part of the Mission into my personal Crystal and then into the Central Blue Crystal, I too descended down into that lower dimension and incarnated as a humanoid female. I sense that we were not human as we know it today, but similar. This was in a different Galaxy from either the Andromeda Galaxy or our Milky Way Galaxy and I have come to call it the "Council Galaxy". So thus begins the story of my life as Shandrasi and the Council of Six.

When I, as Shandrasi, was six years old I was playing with one of my sisters and my boy friend, who it so happens had been my mate in the previous Golden Life. In fact I had just met this person, again through email, only a couple weeks before I had the meditation about the Golden Ones. This was not my "Twin" as she had chosen to remain at the higher dimensional level as an Observer and a Guide to me. Anyway, I had fallen out of a tree and was knocked unconscious and remained in a comatose state for 3 days. During this time I was shown a vision of how life in this Universe of Duality would unfold. So I was shown or re-minded in a 'physical' Conscious sense of all the future probabilities that we, as the Golden Ones, had foreseen. It turns out that the age of 6 would be critical times for me in many of my subsequent lives. I had been shown different aspects of the 'Descension' Plan, and the roles that the members of the Council of Six were to play in it, including what we would have to do to end the Descension process and begin our Ascension. I do not know all the details of what Shandrasi was shown in that vision, but the essence of it was that there was going to be a time in the very distant future, on a planet in another Galaxy that would prove to be a critical turning point, a point of 'No Return', for all Beings who chose to experience this particular timeline. To make a very long story short, that time is NOW, in the Milky Way Galaxy, right here on Earth.

Part of what Shandrasi had seen in her vision was a scenario of wars and destruction involving the Reptilian races, the Changeling Beings and the Aryan Humanoids. The infamous Orion Wars was only one example of this long history of battling for ultimate control. In the fall of 1997, it occurred to me that Shandrasi also saw the Earth being destroyed somehow, and that it involved the Reptilians. Somehow a rift or Black Hole would be opened between this Universe and a Parallel Anti-Matter Universe and the Earth would be totally annihilated when it encountered her Anti-Matter counterpart. This enormous explosion would rip through the space-time fabric ultimately consuming the entire solar system and surrounding star systems in a gigantic series of explosions of matter and anti-matter, annihilating everything in its path. Eventually the entire Galaxy would be destroyed. Apparently she was also shown the cause of this rift being opened in the first place, and it had to do with all the wars and use of nuclear weapons, and the higher dimensional wars being waged by many other ET races who were fighting for control of the Earth.

In January of 1999, it was brought to my attention that the Illuminati and Changelings had opened a connection to the Antimatter Universe at a major Stargate Portal at Mt. Kenya in Africa. They were bringing antimatter energies through in order to use them to gain complete control over the Earth. But this portal was about to burst wide open and it was possible that the Earth could have merged with her Antimatter counterpart and both would have been destroyed in a huge matter-antimatter explosion. Eventually this entire Galaxy and Universe could have been ultimately destroyed as this "matter" Universe and the Antimatter Universe would have slowly merged together, completely annihilating each other. So I and a very psychic young lady, whom I had met over the internet a couple months earlier, did a meditation where we connected to the Blue Crystal Portal in Andromeda and were Guided to do some things that placed a protective seal around that portal to prevent any further merging of the Antimatter Energies. But then in July of 1999 I sensed that barrier breaking down again, and had to do some more work on it. Since that time I have had to do some similar work on some other smaller Earth portals that they had opened and similar Antimatter Universe energies were coming through. So what Shandrasekhar had seen in her vision was very close to becoming a reality, and it could still happen if the Illuminati and Changelings don't stop what they are doing with that. So this is indeed a critical time.

So when I/Shandrasekhar regained consciousness I shared my vision with the local shaman or holy man. The result of that was that I swore an oath of some kind to take a course of action that would lead me on a journey to begin the fulfillment of my part of the Master Plan that the Golden Ones had designed. It would ultimately put all of us who took part in this Mission in a position, with all the knowledge and wisdom that would be needed, to help prevent that future possibility of annihilation from happening. Part of that plan was the formation of the Council of Six. My Twin Soul was not actually part of the Council and did not incarnate with us in that life. She would act as a Spirit Guide for me, to help me through the rough times that would lie ahead. She would also have an important role to play in subsequent lives, in the fulfillment of this Mission. Of the actual Council members, I have met 3 of them in person. Of course, one of them was the lady who first told me about the Council of Six in the first place. Her Twin Soul was also one of the other members. She had met him quite a while ago, but I have never had the pleasure of meeting him. I have only connected with him on the higher planes. Also, another close friend of hers turned out to be one of the Council members, and I met him when I visited her in October of 1997. Two months before I became aware of the Council, I met a man by the name of John Armitage. I had taken him and two other friends to the Anasazi cliff dwellings at Mesa Verde in southwest Colorado. It was a most magical experience for all of us, but for John and myself in particular. We would each discover our own Anasazi connections on that trip. Then just before we returned home, I had taken them to another important portal site, and he performed an important healing on me in which his Anasazi Self, who was a Medicine Man, came through him to perform the healing ceremony. John has a write-up of that trip on his web site: <http://www.MAHATMA.co.uk/> Later, when I found out about the Council I got the message that he was one of the Council members, and then our experience at Mesa Verde took on a whole new meaning for me. I have not actually met the 6th member, but I have gotten the information from my Guides, that she is a good friend of John's.

Of course it is not coincidence that all of us would incarnate here on Earth at this critical time and be drawn together in the way that we were. We had an important mission to complete. I do not mean to imply that our group was any more significant or important than anyone else, as there were many, many Beings who also came into this physical Universe on similar missions to help restore the Balance and to bring people's awareness back to Love and Divine Consciousness. I only know that we were chosen for a very important mission, and this is a small but significant part of our story. Of course, you also have to realize that the Council of Six originated in the 5th Dimension, which means that our "Higher Selves" in that life would have also been at a higher level of Soul Consciousness than what we are now. So those higher levels of Soul would have split into several lower "Co-Beings", who would be our "Higher Selves" here in the 3rd Dimension. I explain all this in more detail in Part 3 of the "Truth About Orion Lizards" message. So the bottom line is that there could be several other people who would have Soul connections to the Council of Six. Perhaps the 4 other people who I've met are just more directly connected to it somehow. I don't truly understand all of that. I just know what I sense about people and whether I knew them in my Council life.

The 6 of us incarnated into that Council World as 3 female and 3 male Humanoid Beings. As I said, I was a female by the name of Shandrasi. My lady friend was a male by the name of Deidriel, and we would become mates. Her friend that I met would also be one of the males, as was John Armitage's friend. They were brothers in that Council life. Her Twin Soul was her sister in that life, and John Armitage, who was also female in that life, was one of my sisters. He had come from the DAL Universe, which is parallel Universe to ours. He was a Being much like the Changelings and his role would be to blend in with them to become one of them. Shandrasi actually had a total of 6 sisters. Out of the 7 of us, there were 3 sets of twins. With each pair of twins, one went into the 'Light' and one went into the 'Dark'. Three of us, myself included, would go into the 'Dark', and would have many important high level Reptilian lives. The other three would continue to be predominantly Humanoid. It turns out that my twin who went into the 'Light' was Sananda. One of the twins was Ashtar, and John, who was one of the third set of twins, was Melchizedek. The seventh sister, who was the oldest of all of us, was Athena. So is it possible that we were the original 'Seven Sisters'? Later in that life the six of us also paired up as mates. As I said earlier Deidriel and Shandrasi were mates, and their sisters matched up with the two brothers. Each couple had two children, who would also play important roles in this Mission.

During my work with this lady in mid-September of 1997, we were taken on an Astral journey back to the Council World. We saw ourselves and the other members of the Council sitting around a circle of stones with a fire blazing in the middle. It was night time, and I, as leader of the Council, was leading a ceremony in which we each pledged our allegiance to each other and said some vows dedicating ourselves to this Mission, that we had all agreed to participate in. I thanked and honored each member of the group for taking part in this Mission. Each of us had our own secret covenant with "God/Goddess" that none of the other five knew about. This was necessary because certain actions that had to be taken would impact the others in what would appear to be a negative way. But it was all a necessary part of the plan. Before incarnating into these Council lives, each of us had our entire "program" for our particular roles for each lifetime for the entire Plan placed into a kind of "Soul Capsule". This is what I had done in the ceremony at the Blue Crystal Portal. In fact these Capsules were sealed and stored in a vault inside the Pyramid that contained the Blue Crystal. Each of us was sub-consciously linked to our Soul Capsule, so that we would each know what had to be done, whether it was Consciously or Un-Consciously, to complete our entire Mission. Part of the programming was that this Capsule would be Consciously accessed just before the final stages of the Plan. My friend was Guided to have a shaman retrieve her Capsule in January of '97. Synchronistically, that was about the same time that I really started becoming aware of my own role in this Mission. She was the first of the group to have her Capsule retrieved, and then in September of '97, she helped me retrieve my Capsule. In fact we did this just moments before we were taken on this Astral journey to the Council Fire Ceremony.

One of the things that we had seen in the previous life as the Golden Ones, was how the Changelings and some of the Aryan Humanoids were masters at the Black Shamanic practices and used Black Magic in order to gain control over all the other races. So an important part of our Mission was for some of us to become masters at it as well, in order to counter what they were doing. They were casting spells and placing curses to place 'Veils' on people's psychic awareness, so that they would forget their true origins, and make it much easier to keep them under their control. So as part of our Plan, we would have to do the same to them to even the score and prevent them from completely controlling everything. I have come to realize that I eventually become quite adept at Black Magic and was a master at placing curses. I have also had many curses placed on me throughout my incarnational history. During all the healing work that I and this lady did on each other, we discovered that many of the Council members had placed curses on each other. I suspect that some of that was necessary to bind us to our oaths that we swore to each other to follow this Mission through to its final conclusion, no matter how difficult it became. But curses and implants were used by many Beings as tools to gain power over others, and also for revenge. So it became a vicious circle that resulted in all of us Descending into denser and denser realms. It was part of the original Divine Plan for us to Descend into the lower physical realms, but I am getting the message that this wasn't the way it was intended to happen. But it was necessary for us to fight fire with fire to try and bring things back into Balance, and it did accomplish the same end result. Another important reason we had to learn Black Magic was that in order to neutralize the "spells" of mind control, it certainly helps to know how it was done in the first place. So Deidriel and Shandrasi had to go to two of these Changeling master Black Magicians to learn the trade. But there would be a pretty steep price that we would have to pay as a result of this. I do not know what we bargained away to them in return for their services, but there would definitely be a lot of Karmic "payback" for it, particularly when we began using those powers against them.

The next important step in our Plan was that we had to make contact with a race of Reptilian Beings, that we now know as the Draconians. We knew that the goal of our whole Mission was to break the Changelings' domination and control over all those planets in the Council Galaxy, and also in the Andromeda Galaxy and eventually here in the Milky Way Galaxy. We also knew that the Draconians had the mental, telepathic and technological power necessary to effectively oppose the Changelings. The Draco were the most powerful of all of the Reptilian races. But yet we knew that eventually it would take a combined effort by all of the 6 major Reptilian races to completely overpower the Changelings, and bring their reign to an end. As our Mission continued we would do just that, but we had to take it one step at a time and the first step was to get the Draco involved. So part of our Council's Mission was to bring them to the Changeling Home World.

When Lucifer had left our group of Golden Ones, he had gone into the 'World' of the Reptilians, in a different Galaxy, and had become the Supreme Lord of one of the races that we now know as the Draconians. He had volunteered to play a very critical role in this whole Plan, and he knew the role that the Draco would have to play. Lucifer and I had some very strong Soul connections, and we had agreed at the "Briefing Meeting" to work together to implement this Mission Plan. I had very powerful psychic abilities, so I was able to contact him telepathically to let him know that it was time to put our Plan into action. I was also one of the portal operators on the planet, and also had the ability to open inter-dimensional and inter-Galactic Wormholes. So even though the Draco lived in a different Galaxy at the time, I was able to lead Lucifer and the Draco right to the Changeling Home World.

The Draco had very high levels of technology, which of course would be very attractive to the people of the Council World. So the two brothers of the Council were the leaders of a group who arranged a business deal with the Draco to acquire some of that technology. I am not sure what inducements they offered in exchange for this technology, but most likely the Draco were provided a base on the planet from which they were allowed to freely come and go. Deidriel (the lady I met) had become a high ranking member of the governing agency for the entire planet. So of course, he had to convince the rest of the Changeling government to approve this business deal. But I suspect that I was the only member of the Council who knew what the main purpose for all of this really was. Then I and the other 2 females of the Council had to do some things to stir things up, and to create a conflict that would ultimately result in a major war breaking out between the Draco and the Changeling and Humanoid inhabitants of the Council World. I'm not sure that we knew at the time just what the consequences of that war would be, but I suspect that on a Higher level, we all knew. After all, it was all part of our Plan and it was something that we all knew we had to do. Of course I knew because I had been shown a vision of what was to take place. It would turn out to be a very brutal war and much of the planet was destroyed. About 60 million people died, which was about 60% of the entire population. It is hard to understand how a major war like that could serve the overall Highest Good, but it did. Because we already knew that the alternative would be much, much worse.

All of the Council members and most of our families survived the war, but our lives would be drastically changed. Since Deidriel was one of the leaders of the government, the responsibility for settling a peace treaty fell on him. As part of the settlement, the Draco demanded that they be allowed to take as many prisoners as they chose, or they would destroy the rest of the planet. So given that choice, Deidriel agreed to their terms. They also had demanded that many of the prisoners be female. So his twin sister and myself were among those captives taken to the Draco home world. I believe that we may have sacrificed ourselves in order to save our children and some of the others. I'm not sure how many were taken prisoner, but I suspect it was a fairly large number. Deidriel shouldered all of the blame for us being taken prisoner, when in fact it was not solely his decision, and there was no other acceptable choice. It turns out that because of his overpowering feelings of guilt and remorse for having to sacrifice his sister and his mate, the two people he loved the most, in order to save the rest of the planet, Deidriel took his own life. That guilt has weighed heavy on his Soul ever since. This lady has spent much of her current life releasing this guilt and healing all of the Karma that she took on as a result of what happened in that life.

I suspect that most of the prisoners were used by the Draco as slaves, but the females who were taken captive were used as breeding stock for their genetic experiments. Most of the women, including myself, suffered a lot of sexual abuse and torture. The information that I got was that only the Humanoid women were used for the cross-breeding, not the Changeling women. I am not entirely sure as to the reason for this, unless their genetics were just not compatible. But the message that I got was that the cross-breed offspring from these forced matings between ourselves and the Draco were the ancestors of the Anasazi or Native American race. When I was in Mesa Verde in June of 1997, some of the Anasazi began 'talking' to me, and told me that the Dracos and the Anasazi had common ancestors. They also told me of my own Anasazi connections. I had known that I had connections to the Native Americans, but had not realized that this included the Anasazi. Thus, many of the pieces to this gigantic puzzle began falling into place. So when I became aware of Shandراسi's fate at the hands of the Draco, I began to understand the reasons behind it all. This was all part of the Divine Plan to ultimately bring the Humanoid and Reptiloid Races into Balance and Peace and Harmony with one another. Of course it was also part of the Plan to break the domination that the Changelings would have over the many different races. So creating a race that was part Reptilian and part Humanoid was part of the Plan. It is not coincidence that the Native American people have held that energy of Balance here on the Earth for many thousands of years.

I have the impression that this captivity lasted many years, and during that time I taught the Black Shamanic arts to the other female Council member. I get the message that together we put our skills into practice, to do what needed to be done. Finally, after many years of torture and abuse, one of the brothers of the Council and some of our family members negotiated with the Draco to get them to release the two of us and also many others, including some of the "Anasazi" hybrid offspring. Many of the survivors of the war had already left the Home World and made their way to another Changeling planet in a nearby star system to find safety, and probably to spread the word about what had happened. The 6th member of our Council, my sister whose role was to become one of the Changelings, had gone with them when they evacuated the Home World and moved to the other planet. So she communicated with me telepathically to let me know where they had gone. Then all of us also went on to this second Changeling planet. But all the pain, suffering and abuse did not end there for me. When we arrived on that planet, the 3 of us Council members were arrested by the Changelings and convicted of treason for our actions that started the war. I get that I suffered more torture and sexual abuse at their hands, and I, like Deidriel, finally took my own life. So this very critical life set the stage for all that was to follow in our many incarnations since that time. In our next lives, we had to basically re-enact this same scenario all over again, only this time with a different Reptilian race. This same scenario was repeated two more times, but I will not go into all of that here, as that entire story is presented in the message "Truth About Orion Lizards", which is also on this web site, and at <http://danwinter.com/orionlizards> .

After those first 4 lives with all six of the Council members, the stage was set for the next phase of my Mission. I was to follow Lucifer's Path and go into the world of the Reptilian races to become one of them. Thus began a long string of incarnations as many different Reptilian races. My first Reptilian life was as one of the Anunnaki Reptilians, who currently reside in Tau Cetus for the most part. I would also have many lives as Draco, who currently reside in some of the star systems in the constellation Auriga. I would also have lives as the Ciakar, who are the Reptilians from Rigel in Orion, and also as the Reptilians from Alcyone. I got the message that Lucifer had been my Father in my first Draco life. I have come to realize that I had 144 lifetimes as various races of Reptilians prior to coming into this Galaxy. Although there were many different races of Reptilians, there were six predominant races that seemed to dominate all the others. There are the 4 races that I mentioned above, plus a race that are known as the "Red Dracs" who currently reside in Sirius B. The 6th race is one I have only had limited contacts with and do not know where they currently reside. These 6 races originated in three different Galaxies within the Local Cluster of Galaxies, of which there are at least 28 separate Galaxies. I go into more detail about these different races and how I came into contact with them in my "Truth ..." message. It turns out that I played a role in bringing each of these races into our Milky Way Galaxy, as it was all part of the Divine Plan that the many different Reptilian and Humanoid races of this sector of the Universe be brought together. After all, part of our lesson is to recognize that we are all One Great Big Family.

Each of these Reptilian races had a Supreme Ruler that I have come to call the Six 'Dark Lords'. But perhaps, 'Reptilian Lord' would be a better term, as I have come to realize that there are many so called "Dark" Beings who are NOT Reptilian. I have become very familiar with four of the six. Lucifer, as I mentioned earlier was Lord of the Draco; a Being by the name of Asaru was Lord of the Ciakar; a Being by the name of An was Lord of the Anunnaki Reptilians; and a Being by the name of Damsowzulvitz (Damsow for short) was Lord of the Alcyones. I am not aware of who the other two are. With my many Reptilian lives, I eventually became one of those six Lords, I was An. Actually I was also a much more powerful Reptilian Lord by the name of Belsazar. He had formed an alliance between all 6 Reptilian races and brought them all together to fight against the Changeling and Aryan races. Of course he became the Supreme Ruler or Emperor over all of them and formed a huge inter-galactic empire. Again, I discuss more about him and the role that he played in my "Truth ... " message. These Reptilian Lords were to play an important role in the Descension process. I have come to realize that these Beings knew, or at least I did, that a time would come when we would reach a point of 'No Return', regarding the descension into density. The Descension had to be reversed at that time, or we would continue to Descend into the darkness until we had completely destroyed ourselves, possibly by causing the rift between the matter and anti-matter Universes that Shandrasi had seen in her vision. With all the work that I have done and all the messages that have come through, I know that that "Point of No Return" is NOW. This is the time to turn things around and begin our Ascension process if life in this Universe is to continue on into the distant future as was intended according to the Original Divine Plan.

AN was what was considered to be a "Sun God", meaning that he had the ability and the power to open and close and transit the interdimensional Wormholes and Portals that exist within many Stars or Suns. I also had several lives as a Draco "Sun God", or "Soluruous", which was the Draco name for them. I also played the 'Sun God' role in some of my Ciakar and Alcyone Reptilian lives. Except for An, these "Sun Gods" served directly under one of the other Supreme Lords, as the Commander in Chief of each particular race. Each of them had 12 'Officers' who made up the High Command. So it was those "Sun Gods" who led the various Reptilian races from one star system to the next, and from their original Galaxies to the Council Galaxy, and on to the Andromeda Galaxy, and eventually here to our Milky Way Galaxy. They eventually conquered many, many worlds in several different Galaxies. In January of 1997, I had an Astral journey where I was shown many different worlds that had been conquered by the Reptilians, and the different ways in which they accomplished it. Of course at that time, I hadn't realized that I had been directly involved in many of those conquests. At the end of my journey I asked how many worlds were there that had been taken over by the Reptilians. The answer I got was millions. Then I asked how many worlds were there that were still free from their control, and got hundreds. Later, on another Astral journey I was shown that I was one of the Draco High Command who was involved in the conquest of the Andromedan Home World. They took control of the Blue Crystal Portal and then I led them from Andromeda into this Galaxy. I get that they first came to Lyra through a major portal there. But they did not remain there and the various races spread out to different star systems. I explain a lot of that in much more detail in my "Truth About Orion Lizards" message.

When I first arrived in this Galaxy, I would still continue my role as a "Sun God" for the Draco and also the Anunnaki. But now would come a critical turning point for me. One of my most important Draco "Sun God" or "Soluruuous" Selves was known as Sansiruuous. He could see where all this war and destruction was going to lead, and he began slowly departing from the traditional Draco ways. He was the first to empower the females of his race as Warriors. Sansisruuous would also play a major role in my current life, in helping remove many etheric implants from me and also from my lady friend. He would also help me make some critical connections with some of the Draco High Command. His Capellan female Warriors would also play a critical role in the events that took place in the Fall of 1997, which I will discuss a bit later.

Of course the wars between the Reptilian races and the Changelings and Aryan Humanoid races would continue and eventually spread throughout this entire sector of the Galaxy. It would become known as the Orion Wars, and would involve many other races as well. Again I talk about this in more detail in my other message. But the bottom line was that, contrary to popular belief, the Changelings and Aryans bascially won those wars and gained the upper hand. But that too had to happen, as there were many checks and balances that were necessary to ensure that the Reptilians didn't just take over everything too. That was not the intended outcome. The Great Plan was to ultimately restore the Balance of Power, and bring the Reptilian, Changeling and Humanoid races back together in Peace and Harmony. Of course we haven't reached that point yet, but that was the Mission of our Council of Six. You have to understand that this whole process had been evolving for hundreds of millions of years just to get to the point of the Orion Wars. So it is not surprising that it would take a long time for the process to resolve itself. How long ago were the Orion Wars? I really don't know for sure, but probably several million years ago in Earth's time frame. But what is important to understand is that this process of the races coming back together IS happening.

It was after my life as Sansiruous that I began a series of incarnations in Humanoid form once again. Part of my Mission was that I had to form a 'Bridge' between the Reptilians and the Humanoids, to bring them back together in Peace and Harmony. I had to remind both races of our true origins as ONE FAMILY, ONE BEING. As such I needed to experience both forms of life, and so I began alternating between Reptilian and Humanoid form. But most of my lives after this point were as Humanoids. I had been fully immersed in the Reptilian way of Being, now I had to become Humanoid and to embrace that way of Being as well. But in doing so, I entered a sort of no man's land, as the Humanoid Beings still sensed my Reptilian energies, at least on a sub-conscious level, and they judged me as being 'Dark' and 'Evil'. Starting with Sansiruous's life, the Reptilians began to see me as a threat to them, and they considered me a traitor to their cause. Now when they saw me as Humanoid, I really became a threat to them. So I began to be attacked from both sides. But this was all necessary to attempt to bring things back into Balance and Peace and Harmony. But this would prove to be a most difficult, and nearly impossible task.

My first 'Human' incarnation was in the Lyra Star System on a planet we called MU. This was where the Lemurian and Atlantian civilizations really originated, not here on Earth. Although people who had belonged to each of those civilizations eventually made their way here to Earth. There were two other planets in that star system that were inhabited. The Changelings lived on one of them and when the Reptilians came to Lyra, they settled on the 3rd planet. I had several lives on MU, and at some point another war broke out between the various races. Of course the Atlantians were sided with the Changelings and Aryans, and the Lemurians sided with the Reptilians, because the Lemurians were descendants of the original "Anasazi" race, and other Reptilian-Humanoid Hybrid races. Finally a huge 'comet' or more accurately a brown dwarf, or burnt out 'Dark' Star came into this planetary system. The Changeling Beings were able to use their powers to 'steer' this Dark Star into a collision course with MU. My sense is that they saw that the Reptilians were about to take over MU and they chose to destroy the planet rather than surrender it to the Reptilians.

A few years ago I had several vivid dreams about my last life on MU. I have also had a couple of past life regressions to this same life and learned more about it. I had been a scientist and we knew that this Dark Star was going to collide with our planet. I had lived on the shore of one of the oceans and huge tidal waves came ashore as this Dark Star approached due to its gravitational effects. Since we knew of the impending disaster well ahead of time, a group of explorers were sent into interstellar space to find another planet that we could inhabit. They found a suitable planet in the Orion Star System, and many of us evacuated the planet. However, most people refused to believe that this Dark Star would really destroy the planet. Perhaps they believed that God would not allow it to be destroyed. But the Dark Star did indeed collide with MU and it was destroyed. The planet that the Reptilians had inhabited was not destroyed, but it was thrown into a different orbit and it too had to be evacuated. The Changelings also left for Betelgeuse and Bellatrix in Orion. I get the message that close to two billion people died in that catastrophe. MU was indeed a beautiful planet, a paradise. I suspect that this is where the legend of the 'Garden of Eden' originated, and the belief system set in place that God punished us and threw us out of the Garden of Eden. But once again this was all part of the plan, for the Human and Reptilian races to spread out throughout this sector of our Galaxy, and to force them all to eventually make their way here to Earth. Again I go in to more detail about all of this in my "Truth ... " message.

As I explain in my other long message, I eventually made my way to a planet I call Senayaga in the Sirius B Star System. I would have several lives there, and again another war would break out. I had been a military commander and was involved in this war, but this time I was fighting for the Sirian Humanoids against the Reptilians. But the Changelings and Sirians lost that war, and the "Red Drac" Reptilians would take over Senayaga and Sirius B. So we moved on to a planet in our Solar System that many people know as Maldek or, as I prefer to call it, Malona. I would have several lives on Malona as well, and some of them were as Reptilians again. But my most important life there was as an "Anasazi" male by the name of Gustav. This particular life was a very important life for me, and I have been reminded of it many times through past life regressions and past emotional "memories". I explain all the important details of this life in my other message. But the bottom line was that one more time a major interplanetary war broke out, between the 'Lemurian' descendants from MU who had settled on Malona, and the Atlantian descendants who had settled on Earth. Of course the Changelings, the Aryans and the Reptilians were also involved in this war. The Changelings and also Ashtar and the Sirians had planted crystals all over the planet. Then they fired some kind of particle beam weapon from Earth, and all those crystals focused the energy into the core of the planet, completely blowing the entire planet to pieces. Once again, a Reptilian take-over of the planet appeared imminent, and the Changelings and Aryans decided to destroy the entire planet rather than allow that to happen. Once again a couple billion people died in that explosion. We now see the remnants of Malona or Maldek as the Asteroid Belt.

But before Malona exploded, a group of us had evacuated and came to Earth. This was a very critical point in our whole Mission, so all six of the Council members had been living on Malona. Of course, we all left before the explosion and came here to Earth. According to the information that I have gotten that all happened about 188,500 years ago. I have also come to realize that when we came here to Earth, that we brought the "Anasazi" and many other races with us. We went to many key portal and Stargate locations, dropped off people of the different races, and did some important energy work. Then we did something that might seem totally unbelievable. We traveled backwards in time to a time that was about 389,000 years ago. That created a most interesting "Time Loop", and I and a couple other Council members began a very interesting series of incarnations. I explain all of that in my "Truth About Orion Lizards" message. But all of that was another very important phase of our Council of Six Mission.

We each had many more incarnations here on Earth, but the life on Malona as Gustav was a pivotal one for me. I have often gotten the message that I have now come full circle, as this was the life where I came to Earth to begin the final phase of my Mission. Now we are at that critical time for which we of the Council of Six had prepared for. Everything that had happened was building up for the events that were about to happen in our lives now. Both my friend and I have realized how the many things that have happened to us in our current lives have been leading us down a certain path, and have been slowly preparing us for what was to happen beginning in late September of 1997.

She agreed to take on the Karma of all those people of that original Council World who died in the war with the Draco. As such she would have many difficult and painful lives. She has been compelled to work on herself for her whole life. She has done a great deal of exploration in the psychic and energy healing realms and has developed some pretty strong clairvoyant abilities. This was all necessary to prepare her to carry out the last part of her mission in her work with me. She was faced with many challenges and had some very traumatic and emotional experiences. She has also been dealing with some chronic health problems. By the spring of 1997 she had reached her lowest point and could no longer see a good reason for still being on the planet. But she managed to make it through that somehow. Then after a period of relative inactivity, in late August of 1997 she responded to a message that I had been guided to post to one of the email lists. After that, events began moving with blinding speed, probably because we were behind schedule with what we had to do. Within a few days we began to remember our joint history. Soon we became aware that needed to pool our energies and talents in order to complete this mission together. During the first 6 months after our reunion, we had many profound experiences, also some very painful experiences. But with the assistance of our Guides, we covered an incredible amount of territory in a very short time, and did an incredible amount of healing. We removed lots of curses and the corresponding etheric "devices" we had placed on each other, as part of our Mission and this whole Descension process. Also, with lots of help from our Guides, the Archangels and other Light Beings, some of the Pleiadians, and even Sansiruous, my Draco "Sun God" Self, we removed countless etheric implants that the various ET races had placed in each of us in this and many other lifetimes. I had close to a hundred etheric implants from my various Reptilian lives and from the abductions in this life. All of these energy blockages had to be removed and healed to prepare us for some extremely important work.

Over the last several years I have had lots of chronic low back problems, and I suffered from mercury and aluminum toxicity due to my dental fillings. As a result I have had a lot of holistic healing work done on me, both physical and energetic. With the help of my Spirit Guides, I have done lots of meditative and energetic work on myself, slowly clearing all my Chakras and Auric layers. But I soon discovered that this was a dual edged sword, as I found myself being wide open to other people's energies and to psychic attacks. A psychic I had consulted one time told me that I should stop doing what I was doing because I could not be protected. But this was the Path that my Guides and Higher Self were leading me down, so I continued. Quite a bit later, and after lots of help from several spiritual healers, I finally realized that I do not have a protective layer around my Auric energy field like most people. One lady I consulted called it a "Ring Pass Not". She explained that everyone has one, but at the end of our session, she looked at me and said, "You really don't have one, do you." So my energy field is wide open and there are no boundaries to it. Also, my 10th Chakra is like an interdimensional portal that other Beings and Entities can seemingly access at will. This condition leaves me wide open to psychic attacks from many different Beings, Reptilian, Humanoid, and in particular the Changelings, many of whom are Black Magicians. I have been affected by Dark Entities almost continually for the past 4 years or more.

I have come to realize that I have always been this way in all of my incarnations. It was necessary for me to perform the work that I would have to do in my many lives on this Mission, including this one. This condition gives me the ability and the power to access and do energy work on any portal or energy vortex on the Earth, just by my conscious intent. I have come to realize that this is the same ability my Reptilian "Sun God" Selves had, which is why they came to be known as a "Sun Gods" in the first place. I had used those powers in those lives to help give the Reptilians power over the Changelings, to help break their hold on all the other races. Now I was learning to use those same powers to end all the conflict that I had helped to create, and to work for Peace and help bring things back into Balance. This was my gift from the Creator, from Great Spirit, that has been both a curse and a blessing, truly the Duality in action. The work that this lady and I had been doing was all part of the process of learning to access and develop those powers. Little did we know when we first began what we were being prepared for, and how those powers were to be used.

The first major event occurred in late September of 1997, shortly after the Stargate opening at the Fall Equinox. We had done some important work with a couple of our Past Selves, in particular our Warrior Aspects. One day, I did a meditation where I called in the Female Warrior Aspect of my friend, and one of my own Warrior Selves. I allowed both of their energies to merge with my own. This was symbolic of Balancing the Male and the Female Warrior energies. Then that night as I began drifting off to sleep, I was shown brief scenes from several of my Draco lives. It was like everything was being shown to me in "fast-forward" motion, one after the other, all connected in a string of important events. It basically had to do with me leading the Draco to this Solar System and to the Earth. I was shown some of the destruction that resulted along that Path, including Maldek or Malona. But the message was clear that this had all been part of the Plan, that many different races had to be drawn here to the Earth for a "showdown" of sorts. Of course the intention of that showdown was to be able to restore the Balance between the Changelings, Humanoids and the Reptilians. But at that time, I was not aware of who the Changelings really were, or the role that they had played. Then as all this was being shown to me, I heard a voice say, "Oh my God, Roger." Then the next morning, September 25th, I got the message that the Capellan Draco had finally realized that I was Sansiruous, one of their "Sun Gods", and had finally realized the truth of this whole Plan. So it was they who had been tuned into me the night before during my past life review. Because of what they had seen, they told me that they would be willing to fight for me and our cause.

Then a little later I tapped into a major higher dimensional battle that was taking place between a hostile group of Draco from Auriga and the Taygettan Pleiadians and the Andromedans. I had sensed some ships being blown up and many Beings being killed. When I asked about what was happening, the Andromedans told me that the war with the Draco had begun. I got the message that the Capellan Draco, whose Warriors were mostly female, had decided to join the Pleiadians and the Andromedans in the fight against members of their own race. Later I was told that the Draco had suffered a major defeat, and they had retreated. I got the message that it was the Capellans who had turned the tides in this battle. So the realization by the Capellans the night before that I was Sansiruous had been very important in the outcome of this battle. Another important determining factor in that battle was that the Ciakar from Rigel had decided to stay out of the battle. But I had nothing to do with that.

The next day, the 26th, my friend and I did some major healing work on me and the issue that came up involved Sansiruous, one of my pivotal Draco "Soluruous" Selves. We released and healed a lot of his hate and anger. Then later that day, I was asked to escort the Spirits of the many Beings who had died in that battle up to the higher Astral realms. I had done a lot of this kind of Spirit "Escort" service most of that year. When I tuned into them, I realized that many of them were the Draco. Then when I finished doing this, Sansiruous just took over me and made contact with the leader of the hostile group of Draco. He knew that they were in a vulnerable state after losing the battle, and he wanted to take advantage of it to get a message through to them. He told their leader to let go of his own rage and anger and to see the truth of the situation, and the need for Peace. The energy that was released from this nearly blew me away, literally. I collapsed on the floor and my Guides had to rush to my aid to clear my energy and bring me out of it. I got the message that I had nearly died as a result of the energy that went through me then, probably because I still had lots of implants in my etheric bodies. Just a short while later, I sensed a lot of excitement from the Andromedans and Pleiadians and kept hearing someone say, "My God, what did you do?" Then the Andromedans told me that this Draco leader had approached them and had offered to negotiate a peace settlement. The previous June I had been given the message that part of my Mission was to get the Draco to come to the Galactic Peace Conference that was going on, and I thought "how in the world am I supposed to do that?" So a major part of my Mission had been completed in a flash, literally, without any prior planning, it just happened.

But the real climax of our work was still to come. In mid November of '97, I was taken on another Astral journey where they showed me how I, as one of the Draco High Command, had been involved in the conquest of the Home World in the Andromeda Galaxy. There was a huge Pyramid on the planet, that contained a huge interstellar and intergalactic portal or Stargate. This was the Blue Crystal Portal that I had been shown earlier. The Draco sent telepathic messages to someone on the planet who was in charge of the operation of the Stargate. They had convinced this person that they were "God" or Angelic Light Beings coming to help the people of the planet. They directed this person to open the Stargate to allow them to come onto the planet. When the Stargate was opened their fleet of ships swarmed through, overpowered the defenses of the planet, and took control. They then used this portal to come here to the Milky Way Galaxy. So again it had all been part of the Plan. But my Guides sent me a strong message that now the same thing was about to happen again here on Earth with the Great Pyramid Stargate at Giza in Egypt. This Stargate was scheduled to be opened by a group under the leadership of Chandara on December 20, and the Draco and the other Reptilian races were preparing themselves for another major assault on the Earth. They were planning to come through the Pyramid Stargate to completely take control of the planet. Of course, what I didn't know at the time was that if that had happened, another major war would have broken out between the Changelings, who were already pretty much in control of the Earth, and the Reptilians. Had that happened there would have been a very high probability that the entire Earth could have been destroyed, and the space-time energy grids of this solar system and the entire Galaxy would have collapsed. That was what Shandrasi had seen in her vision, and I had to prevent that from happening.

So for the next month, my friend and I ended up doing a lot more work with Lucifer and the Draco, and also with the Aryan Sirians, who played a major role in all that was going on at the time. As a result of this work we were able to bring the Sirians and the Draco together to come to their own peace agreement. Also one of the most important things that resulted from all of our work, was that Lucifer finally made his Ascension. I had been invited on an Astral journey to the Draco Home World for a celebration of the new Peace agreement. They were acknowledging and honoring me for the work I had done to make this possible. Lucifer presented me with a special gift, a necklace with several small Blue Crystals and some kind of medalion on it. During her captivity with the Draco, Shandrasi had met Lucifer and had given him the necklace as her promise to him that one day we would meet again. That meeting would signal the completion of his part in this Mission. Now he was returning it to me as that promise had been fulfilled. Then I watched him shed his Dark Reptilian skin and he transformed into a Golden Angelic Being. Archangel Michael joined him and they looked like twins. Then I saw Michael lead him up a Golden beam of Light back to the Higher Realms of Creation.

We were also Guided to do some clearing work on several major Earth Portals, releasing and transforming Dark Entities that were blocking the flow of energy. We also had a couple of meditation sessions where we connected to John Armitage, one of our Council members, as he too was to be involved in this Pyramid Stargate work. All this preparation culminated in our work on the Great Pyramid Stargate Portal a few hours after Chandara opened it. We released many Dark Entities from the Portal and balanced its energies. I had come to realize that I had been a portal operator at the Great Pyramid in a life many thousands of years ago, when it was first built. John had also been a portal operator in that life. These operators would "tune" the frequency of the Portal to match the frequency of the Beings wishing to access it to come through into this world. So we called on those Other Selves and they showed us what to do to "re-tune" the Stargate. We "tuned" the frequency of the Portal to the frequency of Unconditional Love and Pure Divine Consciousness. This would preclude any hostile ET's such as the Reptilians, the Sirians or the Changelings from being able to access the Great Pyramid Stargate, which is the most important of all the Earth's Stargates. Detailed write-ups of all of this work and all of the happenings from the September battle to our final Stargate work are available on the following web site:
<http://home.pix.za/js/js81/Roger.htm>

After the Pyramid Stargate work we turned our attention inward to complete the healing on ourselves. Then in March of 1998, my friend and I did a meditation where we called in all the Council members. I honored each one for their role in this Mission and thanked them and sent them my Love. Then I released them all from any further obligations and oaths that they had taken. I stated that we had completed what we had come here to do and I officially disbanded the Council. So we thought that our Mission was really complete. However some events occurred a bit later as a result of the Machu Picchu Stargate opening at the Spring Equinox that was to change all of that.

There was some unexpected interference from some very "Dark" Beings who came through the Stargate that had just been opened at Machu Picchu. They were a race that I was not familiar with, and I no idea where they came from. We both experienced a pretty horrific psychic attack from these Beings. Our Spirit Guides did not know what was going on, and couldn't tell us where these Beings and this energy was coming from. So once we were able to clear their energies, we did a meditation where we tried to find out for ourselves. We were able to tune into their energy signature and trace it back to its origins. Our journey led us to Alcyone, and then out to the edge of the Galaxy. Then all of a sudden I could sense my Astral body stopping. There was a strange totally Black object, sort of like a cloaked ship. We started getting a nervous feeling and then all of a sudden a very black horrific looking Being appeared to me from inside this ship. It was a Being that looked a lot like the creature in the movie "Alien", and was not like any Being I had never encountered before, at least not in this life. It gave us a pretty good scare, so we high-tailed it out of there. At first I thought they were some kind of Reptilian-like Beings, that were somehow related to the Alcyone Reptilians, because some of them had also showed up about the same time. At the time I had gotten the message that it was some of the higher level Alcyone Reptilians who had brought them through from one of the other Local Galaxies. But I have since gotten the message that these Beings were not really Reptilian, and it wasn't the Alcyone Reptilians that they were connected with. I have now come to realize that the Alcyone Reptilians have been under the control of the Changelings since the time of the Orion Wars. See the "Truth ..." message for more on that. So it wasn't the Alcyone Reptilians who brought here, it was the Changelings who apparently also reside in Alcyone that connected to them and brought them into this Galaxy and then here to Earth. I am still not sure what kind of Beings they were, but they were pretty mean and nasty, that much I know for sure. So that event set the stage for some major interdimensional battles with these Beings, that Jack O'Brien would soon be involved in and has described in some of his messages on his web site: <http://members.yournet.com/jobrien/> .

I had some difficult times the next couple of months and had a lot of psychic attacks from the Alcyone Reptilians, and also from those Beings from that other Galaxy. Then in early May of '98, one of those strange Beings attached itself to me and just sort of took me over, like a possession of sorts. I had called Shakura Rei (<http://www.ascending-star.com>), a spiritual/psychic healer who has done much work with me and has helped me considerably, to have her remove it. She called in Archangel Michael to remove it, but was told that it could not be removed. So I lived with this Entity or Being attached to me for over a week. I tried to work with this Being, trying to educate it about human life. But it was slowly draining my energy and I was beginning to weaken. One day I felt a major attack from these Beings and I just got very angry and decided to blast them with every ounce of energy that I had left. I had blasted a few of these Beings and had followed them back to one of their ships and was going to blast the whole ship. But my Guides told me to take it easy, and to back off, as I was about to get in over my head. Then about an hour later, my friend called to tell me that Carol Hathor, (<http://www.soulwisdom.net>) who also does a lot of spiritual/psychic healing work and Entity removal, had just called her. She said that my Higher Self had come to her asking for her help in removing this Being that was attached to me. So she removed it and I could feel the difference almost immediately.

I had been living in North Carolina temporarily, not far from my friend at the time, but had been planning on returning home to Colorado at the end of May. But Shakura had gotten the message from Archangel Michael that I needed to leave right away. Michael had told her that something very important would happen on my way home, that they had a major surprise for these Beings. But I could not be told what would happen or when or where it would occur. I was told to just follow my Guidance and my instincts, to do whatever occurred to me. So I packed up and started my journey home. I was led to several major Earth portals along the way that I cleared of Dark Entities and re-tuned their energies to resonate with Divine Consciousness and Unconditional Love. One of these was a major connecting point or hub for many different Earth portals and ley lines. This site was fairly close to New Madrid, Missouri, the site of the infamous 1812 earthquake. I had planned to stop and visit Jack O'Brien, who lived in northwestern Arkansas, since I had gotten the message that I needed to clear the portal on the mountain where he lived. I had met Jack in the summer of '97 and had corresponded with him quite a bit regarding some of his and my work. It was while I was at Jack's that the "surprise" took place.

I had gotten the message that I needed to clear the portal there on a particular day. It seemed strange that it would be that particular day, as I follow the Mayan calendar and according to it, the following day was a much better day energetically to be doing portal work. Well, that morning I had another attack from these "Dark" Beings from that other Galaxy, as they were trying to prevent me from clearing this portal. I called Shakura to have her clear me and asked her about doing the portal work that day, and she got the message that I should do it the next day. Then later that afternoon a major higher dimensional battle took place in which the Andromedans, the Taygetan Pleiadians, Capellan Draco and a few other races joined forces to turn back an attack by these "Dark" Beings. This battle is described in detail in the message "Roger and Jack's Last Stand" on Jack O'Brien's web site: <http://members.yournet.com/jobrien/>. After the battle was over, Jack and I both got the message that these Beings had been soundly defeated and had retreated.

Several days earlier, six of the Aurigan Draco High Command had paid me a visit. These were the same ones who had been defeated in the battle back in September, and that Sansiruous had contacted then. I had done a lot of work with them over the next 3 months to help them transform themselves. So they came to me to tell me that they would help fight to protect the Earth against these Beings from the other Galaxy. Well, after the big battle, I got the message that the Draco had indeed played a major role in this battle, as they had fought side by side with the Pleiadians, the female Capellans and all the others. In fact that it was mostly due to their help that those Beings were defeated. So I thanked them and honored them for being willing to sacrifice themselves to help the Earth people. They had told me earlier that Earth Humans were not exactly their favorite race, but they knew how important this battle was for the future of the entire Galaxy. So all of my work with them had truly paid off, and I was one step closer to seeing my Mission come to its final completion. Of course, what I didn't know at the time was that it was really the Changelings who were behind that attack in the first place, so it made sense that the Draco would help fight against them.

A few days later, I continued my journey back home to Colorado, and did some more important portal clearing along the way. But there would still be much more work to do, more Reptilian races to deal with, and more battles to be fought with the Changelings and some of their Aryan allies. I would learn about the existence of a Wormhole in the center of the Sun, and would do a lot of energy work related to that. I would also do a lot more portal and Stargate work, all related to bringing about Peace and Harmony and bringing all the energies back into Balance. But probably the most significant work that I did related to a Parallel Antimatter Universe, that I had talked about earlier in this message.

My difficulties with the Changelings would begin to escalate after my work with the antimatter portals in July of 1999. I have come under attack from them many times since then, and it has continued right up to the time of this writing in February of 2001. I discuss a lot of the important aspects of all that in my message "Truth About Orion Lizards", so I will not go into all that here. But the one thing that I have always tried to do with any race that I have ever encountered is to honor them for the role that they played in this whole Descension process, and to find a way to make my Peace with them. So far I have been able to make my Peace with just about every race I have met, except the Changelings. They are by far my biggest challenge, but I have had some limited success even with them. I have come to realize that there are basically 2 separate groups of Changelings, one from Betelgeuse and one from Bellatrix, both in Orion. I had a major breakthrough with the Betelgeuse group in the middle of January of 2001, and they finally accepted my offers of Peace. But the Bellatrix group still seems bent on control, and have continued their attacks on me, in spite of my attempts to try to communicate and work with them. So only time will tell if they too will eventually realize that Peace and Harmony is the only solution to all of our problems.

So the path of our Council of Six has certainly not been an easy one. My lady friend and I started out together, and then we separated. I went deep into the world of the Reptilians, and became one of their Supreme Lords. She went into the world of the Humanoids, and played an important role there as well. In the recesses of her mind she would always remember the horrors of the war with the Draco, the sacrifices she had to make and the Love that she lost as a result. Our paths crossed many times, and with each crossing, on some level we would recognize each other and be reminded of what we had set out to do in that Council life. She always seemed to have Love and Compassion for the Reptilian Being that I was, as she remembered who I really was beneath that Reptilian skin. That helped me remember that I had to make my way out of the Reptilian worlds and return to the world of the Humanoids. Each time we were brought together we would be reminded of our true Mission, which was to bridge the gap between the Reptilians and the Humanoids and also the Changelings, and slowly bring them back together to be able to live in Peace and Harmony. We knew that someday we would be able to finally put it all into perspective. Well that someday is NOW. Our reconnecting triggered these memories and helped us remember what we had set out to do so long ago, to remember our real purpose for being here now.

But to me, one of the most important things that came out of all this was what we learned from all these experiences. The most important thing we learned was what happens when you live totally from the Ego or Shadow side of Consciousness, without connecting at all to the Higher Consciousness, and without expressing any Love or compassion for any other Being, not even yourself. We learned about the effects of standing in judgement of other races, and of living in fear of them and hating them instead of honoring, respecting and Loving them as our brothers and sisters, which they truly are. We learned about sexual abuse and what happens when one sex tries to dominate the other. We learned about the fear that this creates and just how destructive this way of being really is. But the most important thing that I began to realize is that it doesn't have to be that way. There is another way, one of Peace and Harmony, of Love and Joy and Thrival for ALL Beings, not just a few. I believe that our true mission here is to help restore the balance between the Humanoids, the Reptilians and the Changelings, and between the Males and Females of all races, to help everyone step out of Fear and into Love of all Beings. This has certainly been my Mission anyway, and after all the work of the Council of Six members, Jack and many others, we are certainly much closer to that realization than at any other time in our long history.

So it has been a long, difficult and most interesting journey, and we have learned many lessons. It still continues to be difficult for my friend and for myself, as we are both continuing the seemingly never ending process of healing all the wounds and emotional scars from all these experiences. But we have had many wonderful experiences during our work together and we are most grateful for those. Some of our Astral experiences together were truly amazing, and the infinite Love and Divine Energies that we felt were beyond description. We both feel very blessed to have connected with one another and for having had the opportunity to do the work that we have done to assist in the Ascension process of this planet. We have shared our story with you in the hope that it will trigger your own remembrances of the journey that you have taken through this Universe of Duality. We hope that you too will remember your own Mission and purpose for being here at this time. Perhaps you too came here to help restore the Balance, and to help create a world of Peace and Harmony amongst all races, and one of Love and Joy for ALL Beings, to help everyone remember the Divine Beings who we all truly are.

Love and Peace,
Roger
