

CSPAN Assignment

For this assignment, you will need to catch up on current events and decide what you think are the most pressing events related to the CSPAN prompt this year.

The project will have several components—everyone will write her/his own warm ups and mini-essay.

The components:

- You will follow the news
- You will research issues that interest you
- You will write a persuasive essay that addresses the CSPAN topic for this year:
- Our class website has a Links Page, which should help us do this.

Once you write your essay, you can decide if you want to do this for your final project.

CSPAN Question:

“What's Your Vision in 2020?”
