What is the best way to maximize effectiveness?

Listen before you go to bed, at least once a day for 3 weeks. Most people say results happen within the first week.

What is the expected outcome?

1. Unreal "androboost effects" which include an increase in testosterone.
2. A boost in very strong masculine energy and perception. This means you will be in alignment with the capable, strong part of yourself.
3. An Unreal boost in Pheromones, this means women will find you naturally very attractive.
4. A "synergistic effect" of experiencing the world as grounded, powerful, unapologetic man.
5. A subconscious and biological resistance to synthetic estrogens (bpa's) put in food and plastics that are designed to feminize and weaken men.
6. A subconscious resistance to media propaganda designed to weaken your masculine frame
