

Hi, and thank you for considering joining Tsukuyomi!

Firstly, this is not a FC meant to be super hardcore. We do want to have that for some of our veteran players, but we are not an end game content focus FC. We want to recruit people that we think will enjoy their stay here and help grow our community. We focus on helping new players get into the game, as well as helping people with content overall. We want this to be a fun and safe place for people to relax and take a break from real life tasks.

Please Note - We also want to have people around the ages of 18-26, this is because we want everyone to be more comfortable. You must be 18+ to join this is not negotiable (if you are 17 and turning 18 soon please send Vignette a message). This also doesn't mean if you are turning 27 next week we are going to kick you. 18-26 would be preferred but does not mean anyone older is not allowed, this will be discussed with fellow staff members, as all applications are approved by more than 1 staff member.

Below is a TLDR of the FC rules, below that is a full length list of rules we want to uphold. Any rules listed in RED, means you will be indefinitely banned and removed from the discord and FC. GREEN is stuff we encourage, and ORANGE is stuff we discourage/do not want or agree with.

The Demon Brick overlords wise words.

TLDR - Just be nice to everyone and try your best to talk to everyone and get your name out there! We want everyone to have a good time and not have to feel judged or scared and can just relax and play games with like minded people. No NSFW related stuff in the FC and discord, please go to the orange section to read more. We do not want any hate of any kind here, banter such as "tanks are better than all" is ok but we do not want elitists either. Please read the red section as this is important and not something to glance over. Link to the application is below, some with info on inactivity and officer and co-leader ranks.

Stuff we want to promote, and encourage in the FC and discord

- Please consider helping new members run dungeons, or trials. Of course you do not have to do this. But it would help new players learn new roles, give them someone to hang out with, and possibly make some new friends! We so want to have FC events with running content like FFXIV events, or events planned by the FC itself. Participating is never mandatory but we would love to have as many people as possible join us.
- Please be open to criticism and advice from others. You never have to take advice from others, since everyone has their own way of doing things both in and out of game. But giving advice could help someone learn something they may not have known. If you and another FC member have a disagreement about something please do not let it become a larger problem. Try resolving it through personal messages. Not everyone is trying to be a jerk or out to get you!
- Please try to resolve conflicts and drama independently first. We are all adults here and are trying to enjoy a game. Having an issue with someone and causing drama and bringing it to the FC is unfair to everyone. If you are thinking that I am not able to do this as you are shy, or need some advice please feel free to message the FC leader, and officer or co-leader. Do not send anything in the FC discord, or in FFXIV chat. Please send a DM or a mail in game or even a /tell if someone is online. We want to treat everyone with respect at all levels and want to spread a positive attitude to everyone.
- We do want to keep the FC's reputation in good standing. This is most likely the least of peoples concern, but just don't be rude to new members, or people looking for an FC. We want to encourage new players to join, and even casual and veteran ones as well. Having a bad name attached to our FC would drive those people away so please consider this when interacting with people!

Stuff we do not allow/do not want our FC to be associated with

- NSFW content. You know what this is, anything with gore, intense imagery and grotesk pictures are not allowed in this FC. We do not have a channel for anything NSFW, regarding Hentai, gore, sexual imagery, ect. This has zero place in the FC as we want people to feel comfortable and not have to worry about clicking on a risky image. Good rule of thumb, would you grandma want to see it? We are not judging your taste, thoughts or ideas, we just do not want this in our FC for the protection of everyone.
Having pictures like the one listed below are fine.

- Role playing. We are not a ERP, or RP FC. We don't want that in our FC but if you are affiliated with an ERP or RP community in any way you are free to do so. If someone asks you about it, just ask them to message you privately as some people are not comfortable with this. Again we are not judging your taste, thoughts or ideas, we just do not want this in our FC for the protection of everyone.
- Please avoid developing groups/cliques within the FC. We understand that you may get along with different members better than some, we understand you may even be hostile towards some because of something that had been resolved in the past. But we want to include everyone and never want to discourage anyone from FC related events, and ingame content. Please try to reach out to people you have never played with, you could become best friends!
- Elitist behavior is not allowed here. Talking yourself up and having fun after doing something is fine and great. But do not put other people down for not being good, not having max lvl in every class, not having a minion, or a mount. There is no room for putting people down just because they aren't as good, or dont have something you do. Why not instead help or encourage them to get that minion or mount? The knowledge you have could be valuable to someone just learning a fight. With that being said, please do not act as if you know everything in the game and be open to a discussion and please right not to be harsh on new players. Having to be in the leader role all the time, can be frustrating for new players and veterans as we only get one point of view, as well as dominating the conversation and not letting others speak their mind.

FC rules have a zero tolerance policy for.

Any of the rules listed below will be followed with an immediate kick and ban if broken.

- Hate speech of any kind is not tolerated here. This includes racism, transphobic comments, homophobic comments. Discrimination against any type of person or group.
Please look at what is also listed below.
- Hate speech is defined as “abusive or threatening speech or writing that expresses prejudice against a particular group, especially on the basis of race, religion, or sexual orientation.”

- That having been said, this is NOT an overly PC-policed FC! By entering this FC, you agree that there is no hate in your heart for any person for any reason. Therefore, things said within FC or Discord chat should be, by default, taken as a joke and with the benefit of doubt. <<Please refer to the above>>
- Harassment. If an FC member has messaged you to stop talking to them because you are harassing them, please stop. If they message the Leader, an officer, or a co-leader because the harassment has continued and has not stopped. You will be banned and kicked from the FC with no excuse accepted. (THIS MEANS YOU HAVE PROOF SUCH AS SCREEN SHOTS, CHAT LOGS, AND VIDEO)
- Theft of any kind. Any confirmed theft via screenshots or video from any other individual, in or out of the FC, past or present, will result in you being kicked immediately. We have no home for thieves.
- Confirmed RMT dealings. If you have ever purchased Gil using Real Life money, please do us a favor and remove yourself immediately. You are putting everyone in our FC that may trade with you in danger. If you wish to join our FC with another character that has not knowingly traded with an RMT, you may choose to do so.
- Perpetuating drama of any kind in FC chat. We have a ZERO TOLERANCE policy for drama of any kind. If you have an issue with an FC member or have a conversation in FC chat/ discord steering in a direction that can be construed as hostile in any way, it is in YOUR best interest to direct these messages to /tell immediately. You will receive ONE warning from an FC leader or officer, at their discretion, to request to take the conversation to /tell. If this warning is ignored, you will be immediately but temporarily kicked from the FC. We understand that things can get heated, but we will not tolerate conflict within the FC and/or Discord chat. If your name is being slandered publicly and you fan the flames by responding, you will STILL be kicked for responding and followed up with afterwards. An FC officer or leader WILL correct that situation for you if you don't respond to these things, so please be patient and go through the proper steps.

If you are removed from the FC and you feel it was unfair, please submit screenshots about the situation that led to your removal to one of the leaders and they will get back to you at their earliest convenience. Without screenshots, we cannot do anything. Screenshots are not a guarantee you will be added back, but all presented arguments and evidence will be considered fairly.

In activity and growth of the FC

- Prolonged Inactivity will result in dismissal with opportunity to re-apply upon return. After 100 days, we will remove you from the FC with an open invitation to return, please!!!! Come back and reapply when you're back in game! That being said, if you come to one of our leads and explain a longer absence beforehand, we can place you in the protected status. Please communicate if you can! We know life can be crazy at times.
- Officership is based on merit and game knowledge - Currently we are trying to get some officers and co-leaders. You must be in the post game of SHB to apply, we want our officers to have decent game knowledge on the story and content in the game. Time in the FC, socialising with other FC members is also noticed, as well as donations into the FC chest and overall helping the FC. THIS DOES NOT MEAN you can give us 100m Gil and we will promote you, everyone is on an even playing field here. But we can always use help with FC related stuff but keep in mind, this is a game, we don't take anything too seriously and we have no room for ego or any kind of pseudo power hungry nonsense. If you are interested in helping keep FC actions up, tending the garden, helping with fc related crafts/gathering, or hosting fc events, please send a message in discord to one of our three leaders.
