NOTE:

Many of the titles above are available through NPH. The following is information from Jeremy Bakken, editor at NPH.

Order your anthems from NPH by following this link <https://online.nph.net/nph/eastchoralfest26>

- All orders for WELS Choral Festival should be placed by July 24th to ensure timeliness in delivery or pickup. NPH will hold all orders until July 24th and then will place one large order on our behalf with the various publishers.
- If you would like to PICKUP your orders from Jeremy to save on shipping, you must place over the phone; pickup is not an online option for shipping.
- The NPH order does not include the pieces by Hamilton, Ames, Chilcott or Spacht: NPH is not a reseller for these publishers
- Note that “Festival Sanctus” has a minimum order quantity of 5 and “What God Ordains” has a minimum order quantity of 10, per the respective publishers.
- I think that covers it. Obviously if someone misses the deadline I won’t turn them down, but everything will work best if all order between now and July 24; they’ll get their music sometime early August. If that’s too late, let me know, and we can set an earlier date for orders to be placed with NPH by directors.
- Ordering titles through NPH helps support the NPH publishing ministry.
- Schools that are local to NPH have the added opportunity to save on shipping as well by phoning in their order and setting it up for pickup rather than shipping.
