

Special Education Scope and Sequence:

The scope and sequence for special education will follow the guidelines set forth by the general education curriculum for each grade level. Please refer to your student's specific grade level curriculum for more details.

Each student in the special education program will have an individualized education plan.