I have been an avid listener of the entire SP music catalog since 1994. Smashing Pumpkins has been a massive influence on my sound.

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Paul Bubbo, a guitarist, performer and songwriter, brings a wealth of experience across multiple bands and musical genres. Known for his profound skills in live performance on stage, songwriting, composition, and music production, Paul has worked alongside many talented people including multi-Grammy award-winning Robert Cutarella, Devo, and Annabella Lwin of Bow Wow Wow. His passion for alternative rock, combined with his studio and touring experiences, positions him as a valuable asset to any band.

ARTIST STATEMENT

With over three decades of dedication to music and guitar, my journey through the realms of music has been both diverse and enriching. From the stages of Europe to iconic US venues, I furthered my experience performing live and developing my stage presence.

My pursuit in artistry and creation has enhanced my experience in music performance and songwriting. I take pride in my contributions to a variety of projects, credited with multiple original songs and albums, focussed on the alternative rock genre. This diversity in musical exploration has not only honed my skills but also broadened my creative horizons.

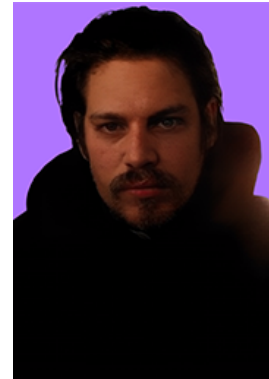

My approach to life and music is one of unwavering focus. A lifestyle free from drugs and alcohol allows me to maintain a laser-sharp concentration on my music, ensuring that every performance, every collaboration, is imbued with the full extent of my passion and energy.

At the core of my musicianship and artistry is an overwhelming zeal for music, a commitment to collaboration, a desire to entertain audiences of all backgrounds and to explore new avenues of sound. Every note I strike is an expression of my undying passion, a tribute to the universal language of music as I continue to create.
