

Pete The Cat: Pete at the Beach

Words by James Dean

Illustrated by James Dean

Character	Student playing the character
Narrator 1
Narrator 2
Narrator 3
Pete
Bob
Mom

Narrator 1	It is a hot day! Pete the cat goes to the beach with his mom and his brother, Bob.
Bob	Let's go in the water.
Pete	Maybe Later
Narrator 2	Bob likes to surf. He rides the big waves. It looks like fun.
Pete	I'm hot.
Mom	Go in the water.
Pete	Maybe later.
Narrator 3	Pete makes a sandcastle. His mom helps him dig. Here comes a big wave. And there goes Pete.
Narrator 1	Oh no! Where did his sandcastle go?
Narrator 2	Bob rides a big wave.
Pete	Wow, that looks like fun.
Narrator 3	Pete and his mom take a walk. They find seashells. They see a crab.
Narrator 2	Pete's feet get wet. His feet feel cool. The rest of him is hot.
Narrator 1	It is time for lunch. Pete eats a sandwich.
Narrator 2	He drinks lemonade. The sun is very hot.
Narrator 3	And Pete is very, very hot. Bob is wet and cool
Pete	Let's play ball!
Bob	No thanks, I want to surf.

Narrator 1	Pete throws the ball. His mom catches it.
Mom	Let's get our feet wet.
Pete	Well, okay.
Narrator 2	The water is cool. It feels good. Pete goes in deeper. Bob waves to Pete.
Bob	I want to show you how to surf.
Pete	Let's do it.
Bob	Lie on the board.
Narrator 3	Pete lies on the board.
Bob	Paddle.
Narrator 3	Pete paddles out. He waits for a big wave.
All	A big wave is coming.
Bob	Stand up!
Narrator 1	Pete stands up and then falls down. It was scary but it did not hurt.
Bob	Try again later.
Narrator 2	Pete wants to try again now. Pete Lies down again. He paddles out and waits.
All	Here comes a wave!
Narrator 3	Pete stands up. This time he rides the wave.
Bob	Good job!
Narrator1	Pete wants to surf all day. Bob does, too.
Narrator 2	So, they take turns. Pete and Bob rock and roll with the waves.
Narrator 3	What a great day! It is okay to be afraid. But it is more fun to surf!
All	THE END