Brief Description:
Martin luther was a famous catholic Priest who questioned the pope and all of the catholics on how they were using the donations from the people. In the Renaissance this was a huge sin. In his later years he became a Protestant Priest and married.
Significant:
He was a huge name in the Renaissance because of how he questioned the ope and the catholic church's authority. He questioned them and asked if these donations were really going to help the people in the afterlife or will it just help the church expand.
