

Privacy Policy

I collect emails via my website, new client forms, and in person. You will be subscribed to my email newsletter and directly mailed by me and Square Services by providing your email.

It will also be used to confirm your salon appointments.

My email list will NEVER be shared or sold to an individual or company for any reason. If your email should be removed from my list at any time.

However, In doing so, you will no longer receive appointment confirmations, and you must abide by my punctuality and cancellation policy.