

John10v10/MeggyDeluxeMaker: A legend turned AI Degenerate turned Internet Psycho

Disclaimer, as there has been statements from John himself saying I am obsessed with him. While I have been heavily involved with the early stages of this drama before I've made this, I have no true bias against him, trauma perhaps, but I don't want people thinking I'm heavily focused on him. However he has done many things as shown below that does show a bit of spite towards me and other people involved. I also want to be clear that John's face has been posted quite a bit, while I do agree that these could potentially be revealing personal information. I do want to make it clear that the images in question were posted by him on public sites, particularly Steam and YouTube. I will reiterate in a later section.

Now I'm not one to talk about drama, in fact I'm the last one to do so. But as of like early 2024, John10v10, best known for the Human Meggy Deluxe model, which has been used in official SMG4 media, has been going on a downward spiral. To a point where he himself has been harassing people, including doxxing myself personally. This is all the things you need to know about John10v10/MeggyDeluxeMaker. This is a reupload from the Steam version due to it being taken down. So I'm posting it here for safe keeping.

First off, a quick statement using the thing that John uses a lot is focusing on drama targeted at you an obsession

AI Mode All Short videos Videos Forums Images Shopping More ▾

✦ AI Overview

Yes, focusing excessively on drama targeted at you can be considered an obsession. An obsession with drama can manifest in various ways, including dwelling on the negative or exhilarating aspects of situations, seeking attention, and feeling overwhelmed or victimized according to Workit Health and CNBC.

The Callout Videos by RicoGamerBoi

During the start of the whole drama, RicoGamerBoi, a known artist in the SMG4 community (for better or worse), has been very vocal about John using a heavy amount of AI. This section goes over his version of the events, I have also made a few appearances since I myself have been very vocal as well.

I will say this, due to recent developments happening. I suggest not going out of your way to harass John. My intentions are to speak out and comment on his bullshit. So do not harass him.

▶ The Callout of John10v10/MrTrueCringe/MeggyDeluxeMaker

▶ Update Video: John10v10/MrTrueCringe/MeggyDeluxeMaker Situation

This video has only 1.5K views as of the time of writing this, meaning that it ultimately wasn't a huge success. But I do argue it was a great way of going over all of his atrocities. After a few more incidents on YouTube and

DeviantART, his accounts were terminated by John, Rico also documented the events in question

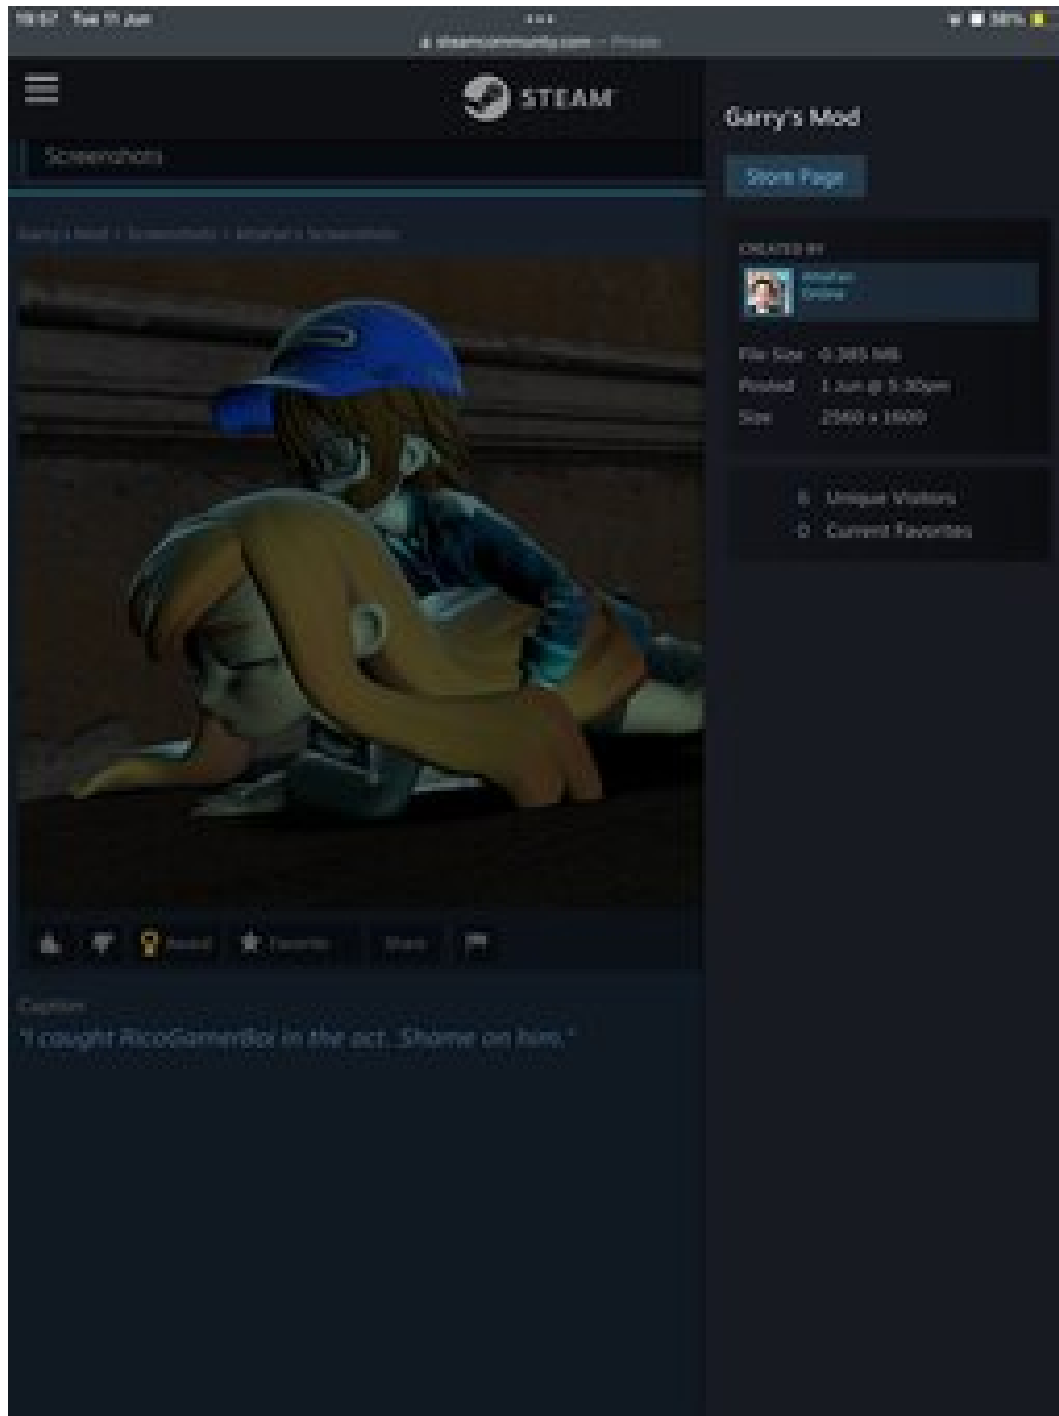

However as you can see, this ISN'T the last time we would see John10v10

John's Life Support (It's Steam)

As most of John's social media has been taken down, he only has Steam to count on, so in order to save face, he has changed his name to MeggyDeluxeMaker, but for the sake of simplicity I will continue to refer to him as John.

He DID upload an NSFW picture of Rico doing... stuff to Meggy which I will upload here

CONTENT WARNING: SEXUAL CONTENT-

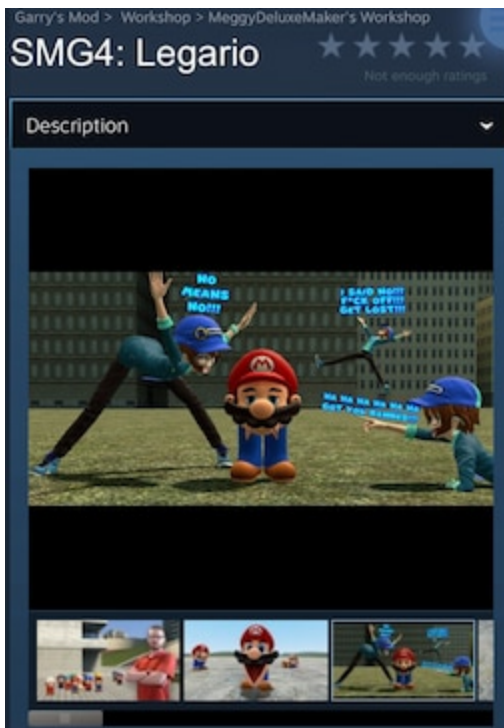

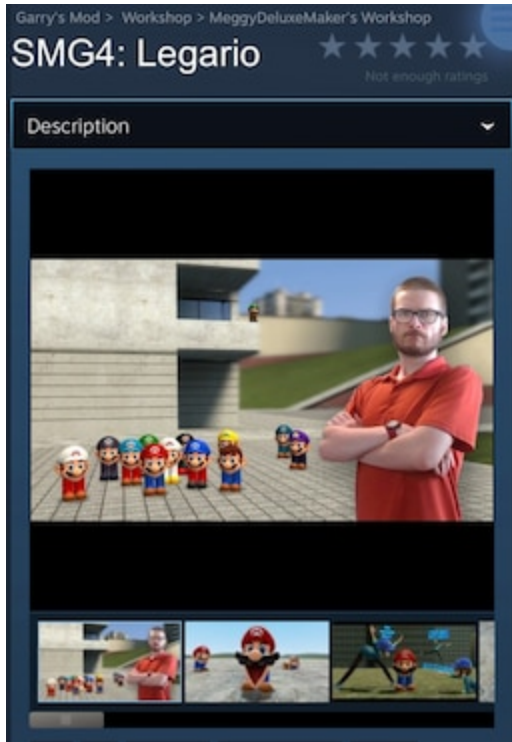

He used an Alias here but this is 100% John's, I can assure you.

One of his first models after returning was an idea provided by a child that goes by GMG4, I won't be going into my situation with HIM, mainly because he doesn't like being called out and I've moved past him, mainly because he's a fucking child.

Basically he has been harassing Rico for rejecting his idea for a Mario Leggy model, which was rejected according to him because of the Nintendo DMCA's and him not wanting to take that chance, which I will respect for obvious reasons (my PFP is an Inkling, which is a Nintendo character, you can connect the dots from there). John, seeing this little argument, decided to make his own Mario Leggy whom he calls "Legario" out of spite of Rico's decision. While most of the images have been removed I managed to archive for your viewing pleasure.

First off I will post the preview images, which were taken down because people called him out for this and he wants to save face. You can tell there's going to be a theme of him taking unpleasant things down to prevent Steam from warning him. Which he has done to me so that's it.

As you can tell it was clear that he did this to spite Rico, but it gets worse.

DESCRIPTION

Created a special 'Leggy' version of Mario for GMG4 because that jackass Rico was too busy drooling over women's feet to get anything done. It's a stripped-down Mario model with just his head and legs. I proudly call him Legario!

Rage warning:

So GMG4 originally requested Rico to make a 'Leggy' version of Mario... Instead of just saying no and ignoring GMG4, Rico decided to scream hatefully at him to shut him down. And we all know how well that works (spoiler: it doesn't; it just adds fuel to the fire). So naturally, GMG4 gets worse, spamming Rico non-stop.

But what really sets me off is that Rico plays the only victim, reporting GMG4 for "bullying/harassment" and actually getting him banned. Then Rico has the audacity to gloat about it afterward. vvvvvvv hell! Talk about "bullying/harassment." You're only seeing one side of the damn story! They were both going at each other. Neither one was the victim here!

So yeah... no. After all that nonsense, I decided to handle GMG4's request myself. And let me tell you... it was EFFORTLESS!

GMG4, I highly recommend you save this addon permanently to your PC ASAP, just in case it gets taken down.

And Rico, if you're seeing this, vvvv you! You keep screaming at me to get off the internet, yet you break down over the weakest trolls. Who the hell are you to tell me to touch grass? If you can't even handle the smallest

And Rico, if you're seeing this, * you!
You keep screaming at me to get off the internet, yet you break down over the weakest trolls. Who the hell are you to tell me to touch grass?! If you can't even handle the smallest trolls, then YOU are the one who needs to get off the internet!

Seriously, complaining about every tiny jab isn't healthy. For your own sake, you'd be better off stepping away. And knowing you, you wouldn't survive a fraction of what I've gone through since last December. Keep this up, and you WILL end up just like me!

Debunking all of Johns Arguements as...

The description clearly proves that this was done to spite Rico. I know for a fact that he was only using GMG4 to get back at Rico. If he is reading this, John's probably doesn't even care about you. Now I won't get too much involved, but I should say Rico "screaming hatefully at him" was again, just telling him that he isn't able to upload it because of the DMCA's and the kid got angry at him because children nowadays don't seem to take no for an answer for some reason.

Also, it's funny that he brings up the whole "acting like he's the victim" when John is guilty of that himself. I'm not saying that Rico hasn't done anything similar but still, hypocrisy much?

Damn, he is REALLY out to get me!

Check out this new short (truly can't respond any L15% pathetic than this)

Rico bullies me.

I don't like being bullied. :{

boo hee

waa waa

I'm gonna retaliate again because it's funny and just ignoring Rico is as lame as it is smart! :D

I know you're reading this description, Rico.

The fact that I've been the only person you're calling out on your YT channel, and now this time calling me out over a fucking name change and tying it to the drama, now I know for sure that you're out to get me. Say whatever shit you want. I can't stop you. I just know you're now doing whatever you can to destroy me.

I don't blame you. I know you hate Ai and I'm using it to turn you and your friends into soulless chicks, I made your OC rape Meggy, and I did a ton of nasty shit along the processes...

oh wait a minute..., that's right! You think anything I say is a lie! :D

"oh wow, John responded again with more lies and shit!"

Does that mean what I said about not blaming you is a lie now? 🤔

Haha, you're a genius, Rico... oh wait... is that a lie?

I'm just an idiot who refuses to listen to reason... oh wait... is that a lie?

You're one of the most well praised people in the community... or that's a lie?

It's really good you're here to protect the community... oh wait, another lie? :)

Congratulations, Rico! You got expunged from your mother's vaginal! :D

If only that was a lie. So sad! :{

Disabling comments again because I'm a proud "coward!" 🤔 Just keep whining on Discord and YouTube. Can't stop you there.

At that point I myself had decided to make my OWN version of the Legario model, one that is accurate to the SMG4 channel and was, while out of spite for obvious reasons, was really made to divert attention away from him. I personally called him Goombario (no not the Paper Mario character) Fun Fact: This god damn thing actually was made canon in a recent SMG4 episode (notice the shoes).

I'm not gonna lie, this was pretty cool, at least until one of the most recent episodes they use a custom Goomba Mario. I don't think this is John's and is probably made in house but who's to say.

This is not gonna be a “Wow I got noticed by SMG4” As I said, John has done a sort of upgrade of my own model, which I do admit I was gonna give him a well played... however he basically updated the model to showcase this, one that is basically a threat to me specifically.

Goombario v2 - SMG4

DESCRIPTION

This addon is directly inspired by 215Phoenix's dupe, w
you can check out here:

And, despite his real motives, Phoenix was right —
Goombario IS more show-accurate, without those awkw stalky legs from my previous addon (Legario). And I hor really like this design. It's SO CUTE!

So I decided to make an actual ragdoll based on his dup
This is version 2, now with major fixes, and overall potentially making it easier to work with.

Absolutely no AI was involved in making this addon

Yes, he doxxed me. Now I should mention that it IS nothing more than a geographical map location of West Florida, he still somehow figured out I lived there myself. He has also taken this down because I called him out on this. But how did he even find out about this you may ask? Well I have a theory.

The Discord Spy

Now I should've mentioned something regarding the PFP stealing in Rico's video and you may be asking "how did he get them?" Now I refuse to reveal the censored person as they are a close friend of mine. But think about that, they have never INTERACTED with John at all! So how did he get that, well I propose a theory (which is a shared theory) that he infiltrated one of the Discord servers either I'm in or Rico's in, IDK. I won't mention which server it is, as I don't want randoms to go out and harass the people in there, especially those who are my friends. But I myself do remember saying on that server I live in Florida, so it's entirely possible that John must've incorporated that slight doxx (even if it IS mostly theoretical like I didn't say WHERE I live in Florida). Add that with John stealing PFP's of people who crossed him, plus that old description in the Leggario model and there is no doubt in my mind that John infiltrated one of the servers I'm in, either this one and/or the actual SMG4 server I have no idea.

This is stalking, and is illegal in most of the States. We have allegedly banned him off that server but for all I know he could have more burner accounts on there that we aren't sure about. And that led that server to a bit of uncertainty, as who knows what this guy is really capable of if he actually knew my address. He could commit murder for all I know. This guy needs to be sent to PRISON.

The Problem Persists

Now John10v10 is well known to be an AI degenerate but knowing what he has been capable of, who knows what he may end up doing. I mean if this gets more public he's probably gonna have a mental breakdown and possibly kill anyone who ever questions him. And at that point, I literally had no choice. I had to act, publicly, which is why I made the original Steam Guide. However he has gone radio silent for months, most likely after the page was uploaded. However he does have a few moves to provide still.

Rico's Third Callout

I wanted to include this here, however it actually has more to do with GMG4 specifically. I actually had Rico censor his name though, but unfortunately I did reveal that name here. I don't recommend harassing him though, even IF I wanted him to understand there are consequences to his actions. And it does seem like he is still the spiteful prick he was back in the middle of last year. But just note that since it's a kid, you can probably ignore him and not take him seriously.

 Another Callout of John10v10/MrTrueCringe/MeggyDeluxeMaker & Newcomer Callout

John's "Apology"... and his sock account (DISCLAIMER: DUE TO RECENT EVIDENCE, THERE'S A CHANCE THAT THIS MAY BE FALSIFIED. I WILL HAVE TO EDIT THE TEXT TO REFLECT THAT.)

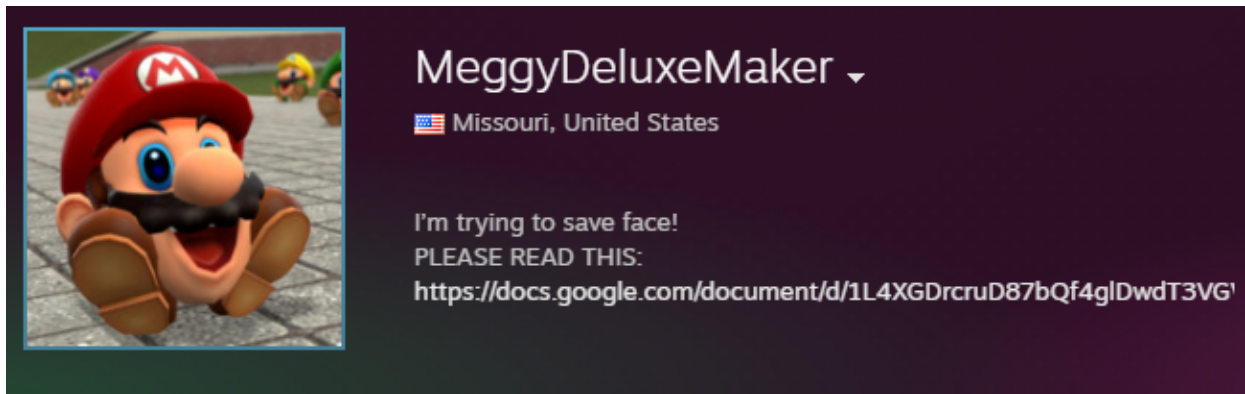

Around 12/18/2024, I updated the post regarding a DM conversation with a so-called friend. He has recently used this account to make an apology on this account specifically. For context if you haven't seen Rico's third video, John had his accounts on DeviantART and YouTube terminated, leaving only Steam left. He used a new account "Peace Advocate" to upload an apology, playing it off as a friend. However, I will include the DMs onto this post. Keep in mind that John had this account on the description of his Steam Account, which I'll pull up here alongside the "apology"

▶ An open letter from John10v10

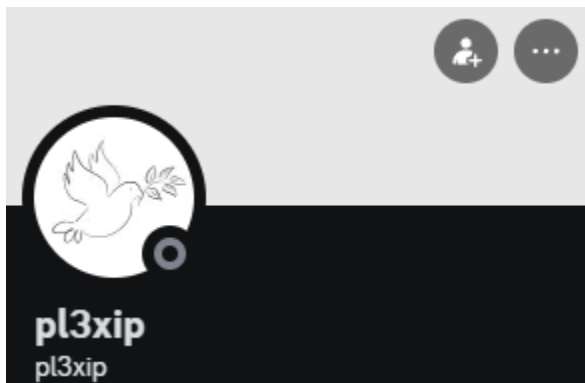

And here is the description, knowing him he'll take it down so I'm glad to have screencapped this.

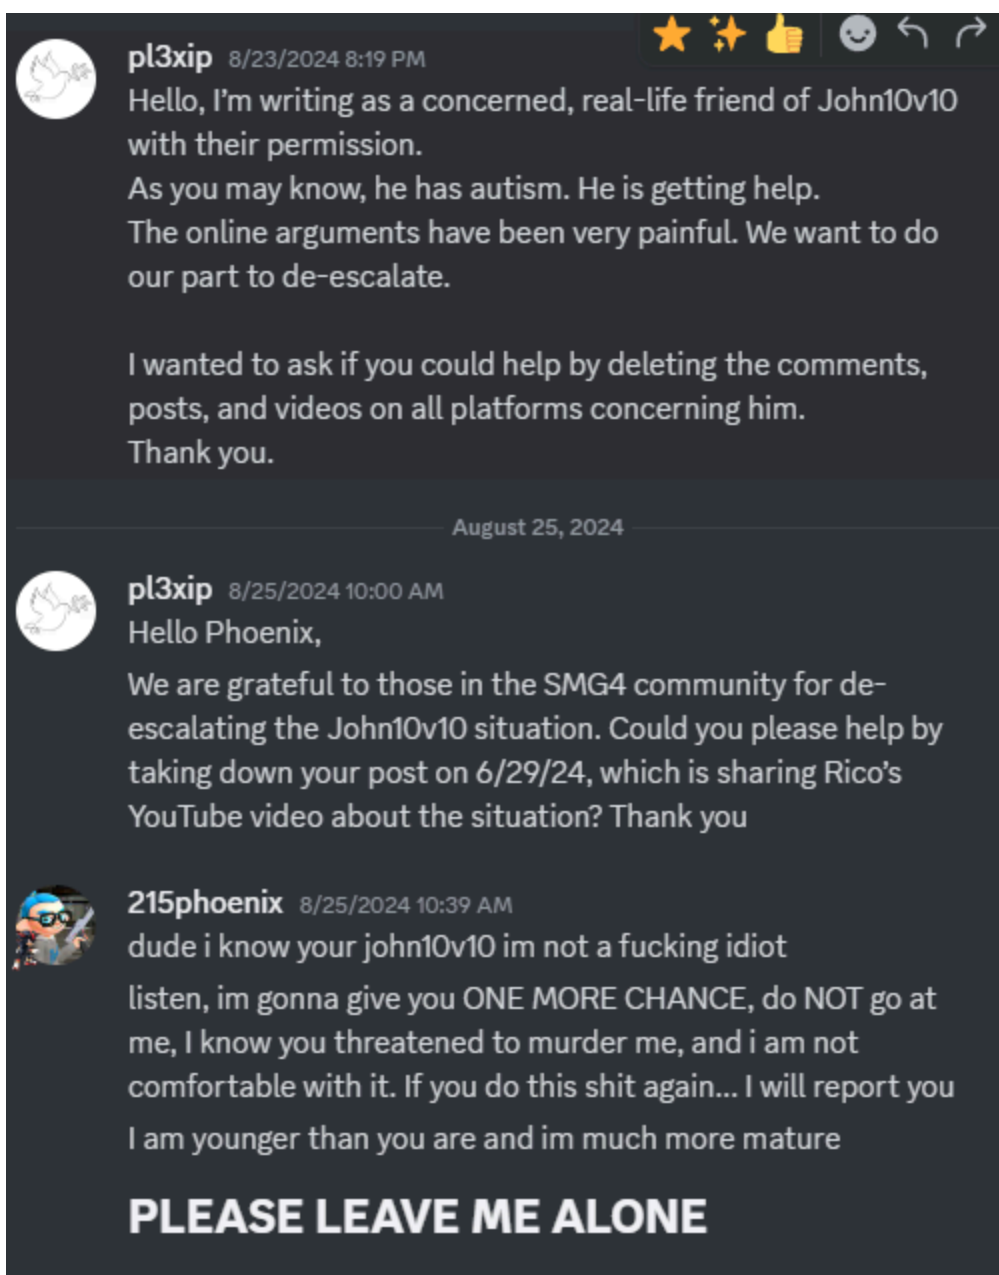

UPDATE 4/1/2025: He actually did. The link is now designated to this specific doc. Idk why, I'm guessing it's because he hijacked it and thought it actually went through.

Anyways, for your reading displeasure, here is pl3xip... John's so called "IRL Friend"

I am going to go over some of the things that this guy has done. Now I should point out that this happened months ago. I managed to recover the DMs thankfully so I should be able to explain what's going on. I did have to do some editing due to one of the people involved being... well involved.

Firstly he introduces himself as an associate of John, tho in some instances he says it's a friend of his. Keep in mind, a liar often can't keep his facts straight. This user asks that he would delete any comments regarding John, he claims its due to mental health reasons and he's getting help, however it doesn't add up. John's apology states that he knows the "adult with autism" excuse is bullshit, but this account says that he has autism himself. So is it an excuse or not? Also, why would a friend want someone else's posts taken down? Honestly I wouldn't do it if a friend was ever in mental strain, I'd just leave him alone and let him calm down. It's either that this friend didn't know the details, or this is John trying his best to erase all evidence. He did so with the Steam Guide, so it's entirely plausible. For the record, Autism is not an excuse. I am Autistic myself and I don't use it at all as an excuse. It's almost like he, as I said, couldn't keep his facts straight, even months apart.

pl3xip 8/25/2024 1:20 PM

I am not John. I am a real-life friend. He nor I are going to go after you. We are asking for the content, posts, etc to be taken down. So everyone can life in peace, and move on from this terrible situation.

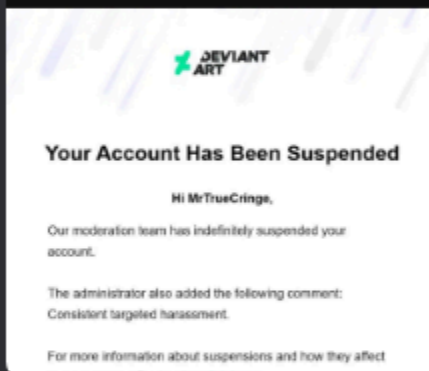

He has taken his content off and closed accounts

215phoenix 8/25/2024 1:25 PM

Funny, cause i thought youtube and deviantart took them down, not him should i do? Is killing myself the only option at this point?

John10v10
5 hours ago (edited)

THIS IS OUTRAGEOUS!!!! THEY FUCKING BANNED ME FROM DEVIANT ART!!!

Proof the ENTIRE internet is biased against me and refuse to listen to my side of this drama!

I can't get away with anything while Rico, Phoenix, Zealos, Luciano, and the rest of the SMG4 community all get away with their harassment towards me at least, if not more than I have been to them!

Nobody ever lets me talk! YouTube here is now the last platform I can speak in!

THIS IS NOT FAIR!!!

Nice try tho

Note that its just deviantart but if i can go search his channel it wont be there

If a true friend would know that, you would know that Johns accounts were taken down by the mods

Unless he lied to you, which is fair

I have to ask you, do you know anyone in the smg4 fan guild affiliated with John?

How'd you get [REDACTED] pfp

pl3xip 8/25/2024 1:39 PM

My pfp is something I had comissioned to convey my purpose

He then claims that he himself took down his account, but I showed him that John's accounts were again terminated from YouTube and DeviantART. I gave him the benefit of the doubt and assumed that John simply lied to him, but since he never responded to this specifically, it's almost like he was shocked I had that evidence and ignored it. I also brought up my friend's PFP. I censored the name and PFP to prevent people harassing him. pl3xip says that his account was something he had commissioned to convey his purpose, but I decided to fact check this now. I will admit Reverse Google Search didn't pull up anything, but there were similar enough. So it's either that he made his own, or it's very possible that this is AI-Generated due to similarities with others. I'd point to the eyes having a weird circle. Knowing John, this is more likely the case, he did often use AI out of spite with others, such as when AnEyeArtist has made a redesign of Melony around 2024ish and he has used it to "improve it" even though it's clearly an attack on AnEyeArtist, who btw is a minor.

This is the most high quality image I could find, since this was uploaded on YouTube and DeviantART and that was still taken down.

215phoenix 8/25/2024 1:41 PM

there is no way he would've obtained this unless he was on this server

Back on the subject, I discuss more about the PFP that John has stolen from my friend, and bring up the subject that he could've snuck onto the server, he did do that and even the SMG4 server, though I doubt that this is that spy I mentioned, it's likely. I also note that he made a typo on good typing goof. I could chock that up to him making an error, again due to stress. Though he could've edited that. Maybe he did intentionally call me a goof but took it back. Who's to say. It's weird speculation, but I do feel like it was notable to point out since he is very immature.

I decided to ask him personally about what he has done to me, he seemingly dodges it by saying that he's not at liberty to divulge. I question this notion but he doesn't even answer the question. Almost like he knows that I'm onto him. I am not lying when I say I respect boundaries, unless of course it's regarding serious drama like pedophilia or doxxing. But this dismiss seems like he doesn't want to talk about it cause maybe if he did explain, I would find him out immediately.

215phoenix 8/25/2024 1:49 PM

so your leaving cause I'm suspicious about you being John, curious

Why don't I talk to him

I do question this cause during that context he was talking about the things directed at me, not John. I admit I could've been more clear on that by saying regarding stuff I said towards John. But it's the past. I then point out that the whole incident isn't going to disappear that instant. I mean we've seen other people in the SMG4 community became cursed by their actions, such as Starman3, or more recently Weegeepie (I am not going to discuss that though, it's been documented enough already). I then commend him for basically being a pretty good stand-in for John, but bring up that I've seen people with sock accounts do this to try and manipulate people. I have two notable examples of this, one would be the Zaid Magenta/MisAnthroPony Cartoonshi conundrum. Where he used an alt account on Twitter in the attempt to blackmail Toonshi. He has made 2 videos on this subject, with the 2nd being released relatively recently as of the time of writing this 3/31/2025. Another more notable example in the Roblox community was the Koofy/Kelogish expose, where Kelogish, a creator that was cancelled for grooming minors, has decided to make a new account and work with Kakav420, before he found out about Koofy's origins. I do recommend watching those 3 videos as they do serve as an idea as to why people really SHOULDN'T use sock accounts to serve their own pleasure. Why did I bring it up... idk I just felt like it was appropriate since Sock Accounts have still been used to this day.

He then tries to leave the conversation. So I suggested that if I am not going to get answers from pl3xip, why not just talk to John?

215phoenix 8/25/2024 1:44 PM

215phoenix 8/25/2024 1:49 PM

so your leaving cause I'm suspicious about you being John, curious

Why don't I talk to him

pl3xip still tries to leave. I still called bullshit but let him go. Then he came back to say one last statement, encouraging me to talk to someone in real life who I could trust... Honestly this does seem prophetic in retrospect given the doxx he pulled. I still pointed it out that this has nothing to do with the subject but I decided fuck it. He said that he is never going to contact me anymore so I decided to end it there. I do regret a simple "Eh, alright" and tried to continue this whole thing, but I had much better things to do that day, so I let him go.

Weirdly enough, he was banned from that server I've mentioned but he somehow stayed put in the main SMG4 discord until he inadvertently gave it away by sending that specific apology. I figured that I wasn't done with this guy entirely and I wasn't as surprised as I thought I would be.

This is a guy who is deprived of fame after all.

pl3xip 12/11/2024 10:34 PM

Hello again, on behalf of John10v10, here is an open apology to you and the SMG4 community. (This is not John10v10, but a irl friend.)

"Finally speaking up again. I'm aware that claiming "Oh I'm an adult with autism" is a poor excuse, but you all know that this past year I've had a huge meltdown over a conflict. I appreciate those who tried to help me. I got stuck and acted out, spreading lies about myself and hateful things about others to try to get more attention.

Forgiveness or not, I do owe all of you an apology for the inappropriate behavior.

I don't expect forgiveness at this point and I'd understand. I'm having a hard time forgiving myself."

Alright, a few things. One: this doesnt go over ANYTHING that he was called out for, including doxxing me

Two: You have a lot of nerve for pinging me after all that

And Three: This might as well be ai cause he never apologized for anything

And all this was just because of his harassment, but he seemed to dodge a decent chunk of questions or act completely dumb, like he didn't know the whole story. But there were conflicting statements that if taken the proper time would give him away almost immediately. And then I bring you back to the apology on his Steam description. He shared this letter to apology and yet he released it under another account. Despite what the description says, why would John even promote this. This was it, pl3xip is John.

I'm also going to say this, even IF his apology was genuine, he still did horrible things to me, including doxxing me. That's again going to stick with you no matter what. And honestly I'm glad I managed to archive the posts. Because he needs to understand that there are consequences to his actions.

Addition 4/3/2024: Due to recent evidence provided in emails sent below. I have come to the decision that John may have most likely been communicating with a friend. I do apologize, and will take accountability for it. Mainly because there's a chance that this is a minor. I do still think that they should probably keep their distance from John, mainly because he is very unstable, however. I say this. The posts Will still be archived, including the text. But please note that this information is potentially falsified. I will probably communicate with pl3xip if that is ever possible. BUT, DO NOT HARASS HER, or GMG4 as well I just wanted to bring that up.

The False DMCA's

3/21/2025, Just a few weeks ago, John decided to send out a DMCA to the Beeg SMG4 model that I decided to archive. This Beeg SMG4 model I did technically not own but he also doesn't technically own Beeg SMG4 as he is a character derived from a meme drawn by Kevin, not to mention he has merch so technically the rights still belong to the Lerdwichaguls, regardless of if he made the model. Like you can make a Mario model, but you still don't own the rights to Mario. I figured this was another plan to try and get back at me. I've learned about DMCA's thanks to learning about how it can be abused, and I've learned that you can send in a counterclaim. However, in order for the counterclaim to go through, you have to reveal YOUR personal information. I figured that if I did do that, he'll find out my Location, and then that will be the end of me. However he made an error, he didn't account that John would have to put in his personal information and have the Email include HIS credentials, his full name, address, city and state, everything. I've looked it up and they do seem to line up well with official records. So I basically have his own private information at my disposal. I've made note of this on the Steam Guide, however just today I found out that THAT was taken down too. Honestly it's not like it matters, I made this post and I intend on using it to spread this to everyone. Not to mention that now that I have his private information, I can probably do whatever I want with it. Luckily I am not legally allowed to distribute the address and other credentials, also I don't want to stoop down to his level. But I did report him to the FBI with this new info. Now all I have to do is wait. The takedowns on the Beeg SMG4 and Steam Guide DOES prove that John was never sorry, cause if he was sorry, he wouldn't have bothered. Perhaps this is leading up to his "grand return" but just note that this is gonna be spread out.

The Road that Never Ends (Conclusion)

John has been doing everything he could to make his image squeaky clean, whether it'd be via DMCA, reporting, or other things. He has been doing his absolute best to ruin me, like Sideshow Bob to Bart. Luckily, I am one step ahead of him at all times. However I question how long this whole battle will take before he finally gets arrested. I can relate to this comic page from Amazing Spider-Man 34 (1999)

I had to take the fall for many people, Rico, EyeArtist, Zea, everyone who has been involved in this whole drama. All because I wanted him to be taken down. However he's proven to be a cockroach, one that just won't fold. This doc is the last line of defense I feel, cause I know he's gonna try his best to wipe this off the internet too. So my best bet is this, spread this out, everyone to major commentary channels like Toastify, Turkey Tom, Amos, HarleyTBS, anyone who would love to commentate over this and get many people to know his atrocities. I will 100% be ready for an interview regarding this.

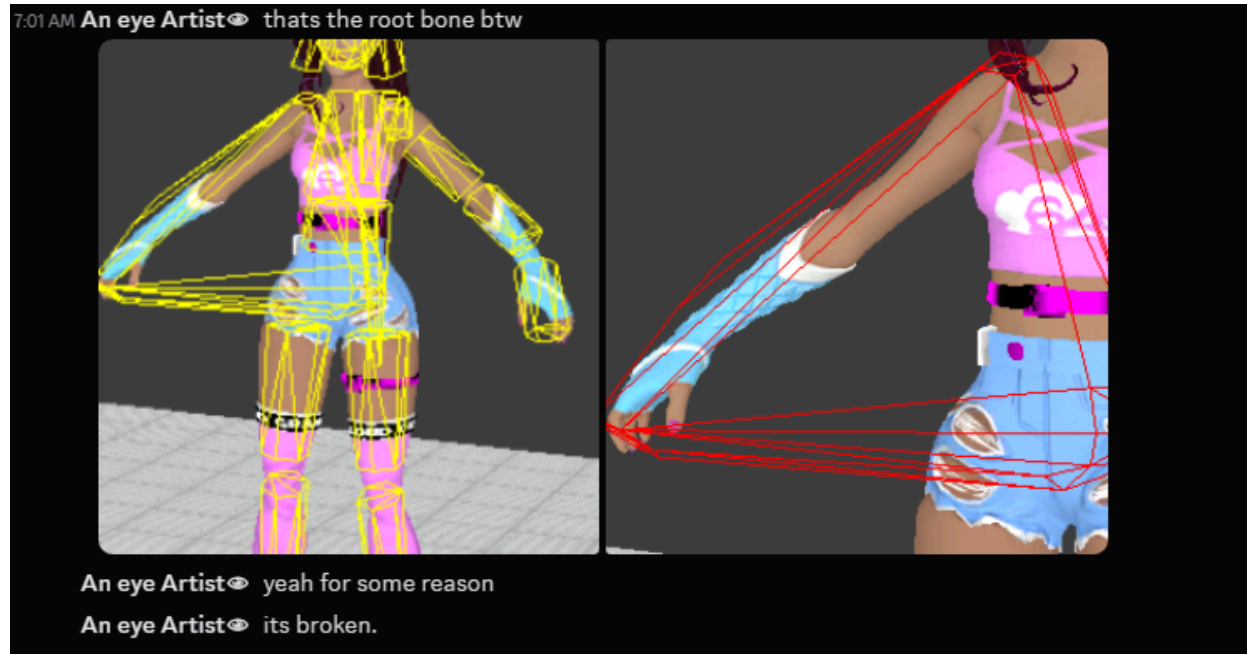

This... Ends... Now... This is 215phoenix, until next time.

AnEyeArtist's side of the story

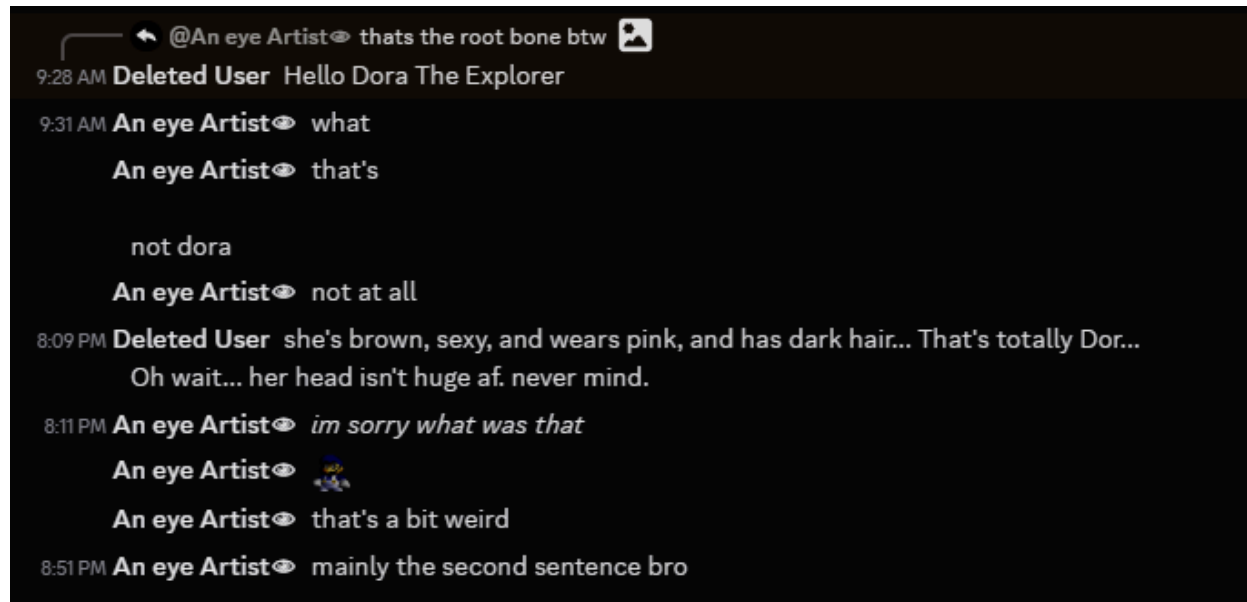

[NOTE, DELETED USER IS JOHN AS HE HAS DELETED HIS ACCOUNT SEVERAL TIMES THROUGH THE YEARS]

Oh, Oh John the Disappointment you were and have become overtime these past years..
Yes, PAST years, the ai stuff was the first time his weird side was public
But he always acted..far stranger in our group-chat back when it was the meggy deluxe group-chat and when it became a general group-chat after the deluxe pack was finished

I'm gonna bring up these examples, even if they were in the past, it doesn't excuse anything given he was a grown, FUCKING, adult.
For an Example, i asked wizard back in may of 2023 when i was working on the cloud grande commission with some problems needed to fix

And while i did manage to get it solved, john suddenly decided to make a STRANGE comment about the design

And then there's these comments as well (john was asking wing about if he should apply to glitch)

I don't need to explain this one.

4:37 PM Deleted User You wanna know a secret?
I'm obsessed with 9/11 footage. (edited)

He also..for some reason has a INSANE obsession with fucking 9/11 footage of all things (which seemed to be a fetish thing..jesus christ imagine being TURNED on by 9/11)

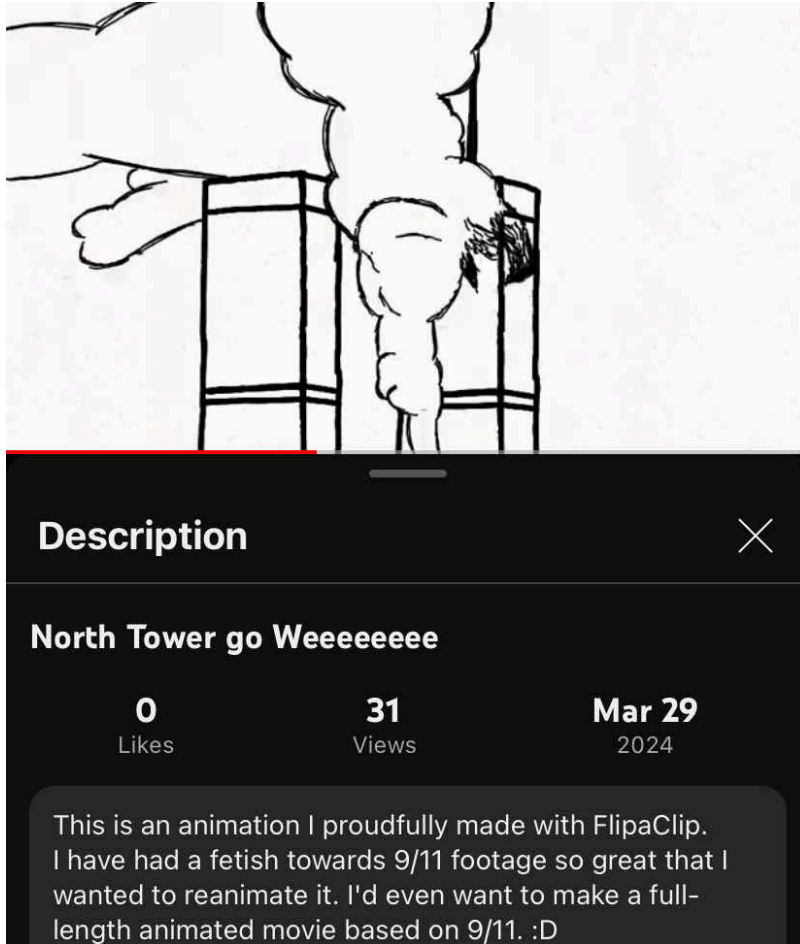

0:28 PM Deleted User Hey [REDACTED], in the reveal trailer, I wanted to see if we could also present the feature where Meggy's props and gear can be used as separate objects now, and we can say "Now you can remake Meggy on anything:"

Deleted User We'd probably show a watermelon with Meg's gear, we'd show other props wearing Meggy's gear, and one of my personal favorites could be snuck inside the several images that get shown:

Deleted User Yes, I was planning to actually do this long before I chose to pass the trailer job onto [REDACTED]

(first two screenshots were in back in march 2021)

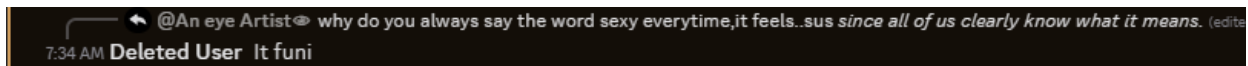

Another WEIRD fucking shit he said to me in september 2022 when i was making my old sona design in blender
(not revealing the bottom message cuz it's just reaction gif corny shit)

(I was 15 BY THIS TIME BY THE FUCKING-WAY, HE, IS A, GROWN, ASS, FUCKING, MAN)

I've asked after a while why he kept saying it given the context of the word

This was his actual, RESPONSE

And it's very clear this man has acted..pretty weird with these screenshots alone, i could show more but i feel like i'd get actual brain-damage as i continue searching for more

All i'm gonna post left is this image back when he made the whole beeg smg4 addon update that causes it to rain okay so you guys remembered the beeg smg4 rain.

yeah turns out john was the one who did it.

JUST TO MAKE IT LOOK LIKE I DID IT.

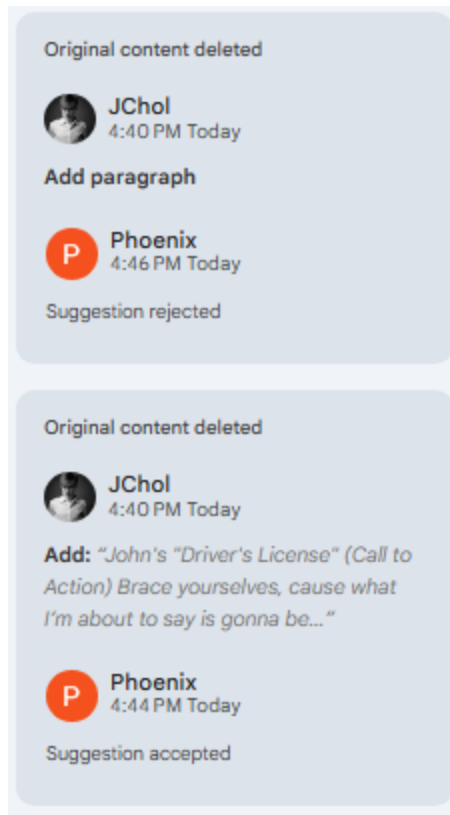

OKAY I SEE HOW IT IS YOU FUCKING CUN-

I'M JUST FUCKING TIRED.

John10v10 Hijacked this page

This is not a joke, he actually posted his drivers license on this page under my name and tried to make it seem like I have updated it to spite me. I will change up the page now cause this is getting ridiculous.

Here is the evidence of the unapproved editing

This is his actual Email btw. I made the mistake of accepting the thing, but luckily I've managed to put it off before it was too late.

I originally set it to allow comments but if people are going to abuse this feature I will set it to simply viewing. This was a mistake on my end to anyone who has seen it, I do not approve. Note that again, I have no intentions of doxxing him. However, him trying to make it seem like I doxxed him, is unsurprising. If you need verification that the edit was his, look at the comments on this doc.

I am expecting him to probably screencap this specific shot, so, be prepared to compare.

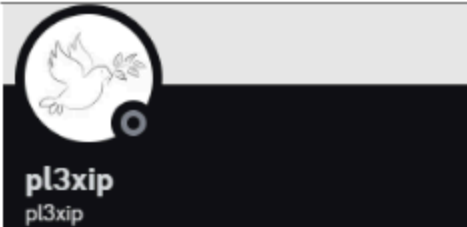

Quick Update: John has very recently changed his pfp and username. This username was changed to "Don't_Dox_Me_I_Beg" and his pfp to that of his drivers license, funnily enough the exact same one the he did when he almost ruined the entire post. And for that reason, along the very real chance that he did this to once again sabotage the doc. I will not be distributing the image. At all.

This is most likely going to change so its a good thing I still have the original screencapped for my viewing displeasure.

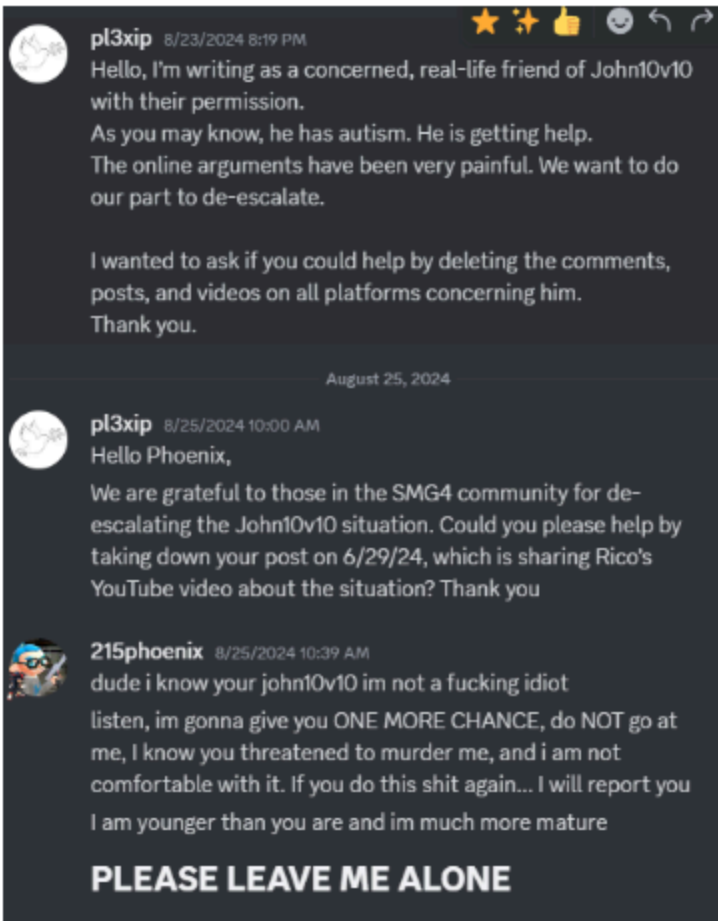

He just changed his name to "I am loving the attention" now, pfp still the drivers license so im still only screencapping privately

John's actual response... by copying my own document

John decided to basically copy and paste my own doc and give his own perspective. This will come in importance as I do want to discuss this. Really the only things that has been edited was changing the perspective of P13xip and revealing that it was a female.

John10v10 note: The only thing Phoenix got correct in this section is that the apology was bullshit.
HIS CLAIMS IN THIS SECTION WERE JUST ABSOLUTE BULLSHIT!
No matter how positive Phoenix is about them, the commentary he provided around these screenshots were rational conspiracy. Now ofc he was likely sincere in his out-loud thinking here, but you can read all that in his unmodified doc. I will still provide his screenshots he shared of the conversation with my advocate pl3xip, whom he understandably as expected thinks is just me.

While this does paint a specific picture on who pl3xip is, I still don't think that this is a friend of his. Also, regarding this he also took out the different notes regarding the text. Again, this seems like it was intended to prevent people from showing evidence that could be used against him.

There is also an edit on the DMCA saying regarding anyone can steal your fanart and squid OCs without your permission

The DMCA

3/21/2025, Just a few weeks ago, John decided to send out a DMCA to the Beeg SMG4 model that I decided to archive. This Beeg SMG4 model I did technically not own but he also doesn't technically own Beeg SMG4 as he is a character derived from a meme drawn by Kevin, not to mention he has merch so technically the rights still belong to the Lerdwichaguls, regardless of if he made the model. Like you can make a Mario model, but you still don't own the rights to Mario. Then I guess that means anyone can just steal your fanart and squid OCs without your permission. I figured this was another plan to try and get back at me. I've learned about DMCA's thanks to learning about how it can be abused, and I've learned that you can send in a counterclaim. However, in order for the counterclaim to go through, you have to reveal YOUR personal information. However he made an error, he didn't account that John would have to put in his personal information and have the Email include HIS credentials, his full name, address, city and state, everything. I've looked it up and they do seem to line up well with official records. So I basically have his own private information at my disposal. I've made note of this on the Steam Guide, however just today I found out that THAT was taken down too. Honestly it's not like it matters, I made this post and I intend on using it to spread this to everyone. Not to mention that now that I have his private information, I can probably do whatever I want with it. Luckily I am not legally allowed to distribute the address and other credentials, also I don't want to stoop down to his level. But I did report him to the FBI with this new info. Now all I have to do is wait. John was never sorry. Just note that this is gonna be spread out.

There is one thing wrong with his stance. He literally stole peoples Pfps. This literally is hypocrisy.

Finally there is a new note regarding this whole thing which I will go over.

And so will I on this doc. Bring it on.

John10v10 notes: I have plans to explain a bit about pl3xip in this modified doc. Unless she is ever willing to disclose herself, I am unable to truly prove pl3xip is a legit user on her own.

I will admit that I am NOT sorry for what I have done in general. I will say that I do regret soft-doxing Phoenix's area, not because I want to reconcile, but because I am convinced this inadvertently caused him actual long-term trauma, and that's way too far. I soft-doxed him to get another rise out of him. And although I'm satisfied seeing him throw a tantrum, proud to know that worked, I didn't think he'd actually end up in LONG TERM PARANOIA! Jesus christ, what have I done!?

I am convinced that Phoenix is genuinely scared of me after the soft-dox I pulled, plus the way I have been acting in general and on camera. Considering his fears of me are legit, I can understand why he is inadvertently doing to me what he has wanted me to stop doing to him. I support Phoenix spreading awareness of my past actions, and that's not why I took down the Steam guide and Beeg SMG4 reupload. The truth must be spread, but I will not tolerate lies getting integrated into it. As you can see, most of the doc is left unchanged, confirmed truth. And I am not sorry. Deep down I am still vengeful and have further plans to provoke shit if this fight keeps going on.

Again, I plan to add more to this in the near future as I am happy to explain the BTS on my end.

First off, this is completely bullshit, you admitted that you are not sorry for all of this. Which just proves that you are THAT stubborn about doing these things and not folding. You also admit that you are 100% willing to continue this path. This can be very concerning, and I feel like there needs to be some sort of intervention. These lies that have been spun are literally the truth. I do admit I did go too far. But I don't see this as a response to the criticism, I see this as him trying to save face. One of the images literally admits this. Also, I WAS scared of him, but now knowing that he's basically given up. Now I know that he's just a sad, strange little man and I have no pity on him.

He also intends on adding more to this in the near future. So I am 100% ready to debunk these claims.

Honestly, this doesn't change the fact that he tried to deface this specific document as well and he doesn't even go over THAT specifically. I'm positive that he is excluded specifically because he knows that he isn't innocent. Which is why I can only suggest one thing. Spread this post, and mass report him on Steam. I don't ever suggest a mass report, but people like him don't deserve this platform, and need to be taken care of. Also, in this specific doc, he also didn't remove the Discord Spy section. This 100% confirms that he was in the server, or still is in it. If you want to make sure it's unedited. You probably should've removed that, cause you now admitted to stalking.

a theory.

The Discord Spy

Now I should've mentioned something regarding the PFP stealing in Rico's video and you may be asking "how did he get them?" Now I refuse to reveal the censored person as they are a close friend of mine. But think about that, they have never INTERACTED with John at all! So how did he get that, well I propose a theory (which is a shared theory) that he infiltrated one of the Discord servers either I'm in or Rico's in, IDK. I won't mention which server it is, as I don't want randoms to go out and harass the people in there, especially those who are my friends. But I myself do remember saying on that server I live in Florida, so it's entirely possible that John must've incorporated that slight doxx (even if it IS mostly theoretical like I didn't say WHERE I live in Florida). Add that with John stealing PFP's of

One more thing: The beginning of this "confirmed expose" Says that it was under the perspective of me, despite the fact that most of these edits are CLEARLY under the perspective of John

Red text provided are my additions acting in Phoenix's shoes, explaining what really happened.

There's no way you can know what's actually going on, through rumors and echo chambers on the internet, but now you have both sides and you can choose WHO to believe.

This, again, is manipulation. And complete bullshit cause 90% of the edits are clearly acting in his OWN shoes.

So you not only admitted to doxxing, admitted that you aren't sorry and will continue this, admitted to sneaking onto someone else's discord that I am in, didn't even explain that you defaced my post and still tried to spin it under the perspective on my own completely proves how pathetic you are.

And I know that the other document is going to be edited. So I'm just gonna screencap the whole thing and compare.

John10v10/MeggyDeluxeMaker: CONFIRMED EXPOSURE

This just in, he literally just admitted to using chatGPT to send in a takedown

You know why this worked? Because I turned my immature rage into this professional tone using ChatGPT. I suggest you do too in the docs. You'll sound much more convincing like I was. And I feel no shame in using it.

John10v10 has also revealed more information about pl3xp by exchanging emails with John. I wont show ALL of the emails. But I will say some notable things. Again you can read the email exchange on the linked document. But I will hide them for the sake of everyone.

to [redacted]

Hi [redacted]

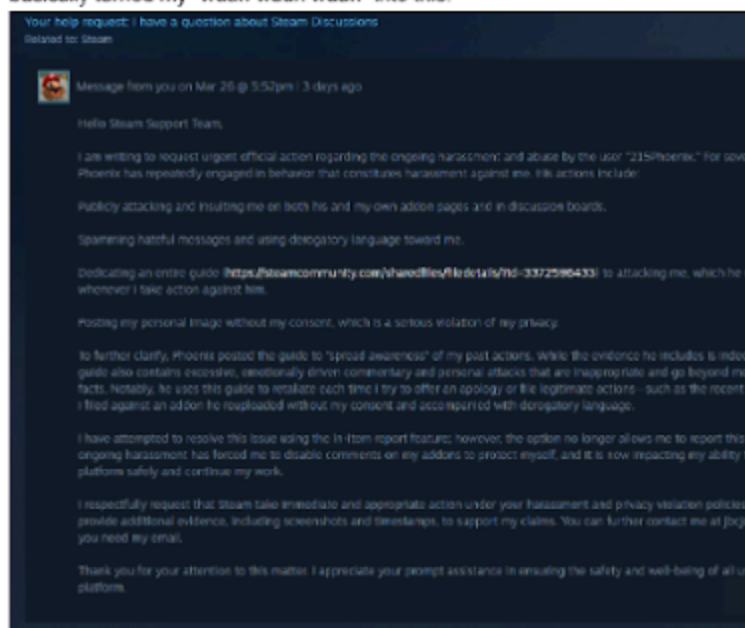

I have an update on the drama:

The steam hostile guide from Phoenix has finally been taken down. I'm going to explain how it worked.

I had to get my Steam account back because I thought I really needed to access an old game I purchased on it years ago.

However, getting the account back also allowed me to take quiet and formal action against Phoenix's attacks on the Steam platform. What I first did was file a DMCA takedown on an item I made that he reuploaded without my consent. It was a success. I realized this new strategy I was using gave me the upper floor here. And I went and then filed a steam support ticket, providing information on how Phoenix's Steam guide violates Steam's bullying/harassment policy. After only days, THEY TOOK IT DOWN, before I could even finish providing much evidence on Phoenix's motives/behavior.

Wanna know how this strategy works? I used ChatGPT! It literally filters and reconstructs my message into a professional formally-toned complaint. It basically turned my "waah waah waah" into this:

And with a good little patience, this strategy seems to work much better.

Thank you [redacted] for everything here. I'm grateful you did what you could on your part to resolve this issue.

Thank you [redacted] for everything here. I'm grateful you did what you could on your part to resolve this issue.

I will make attempts to take down Rico's videos as well this way.

John has basically confirmed that he will take down Rico's videos. This means that the videos need to be archived for it to stay up.

Or you could truly win by not letting him affect you and he loses his grip over you.
Requesting disparaging content to be taken down is different than retaliation.

Do you think ChatGPT can help get those videos taken down? Rico's as well as the other ones on the list I sent your dad. I think I sent him a Google doc in his email. I can't recall if it was a Google doc or just a list in the email.

By the way, I am now very convinced that the trauma I put on him, after the soft-dox, is very real. I don't think his intentions are bullying/harrassment as much as genuinely defending himself, thinking that I am actually trying to find him and murder him. I think he's serious. And from that, it appears that in his view he really is trying to spread awareness and hoping that the real threat he thinks I am gets arrested, in which he won't rest until I would get imprisoned, and so does most of the community there. I'm not sure where to go from here.

What are you trying to communicate by putting your personal information (name, location, and license) on your steam account?

How you thought about how that can affect or potentially hurt your family?

Jesus has a better way for you, but it's not the way you think or expect.

He does shoot himself in the foot by saying that my intentions wasn't bullying and harrassment... despite that, many comments on the document has suggested otherwise.

"And complete bullshit cause 90% of the edits are clearly acting in his OWN shoes."
Ah, now I see what you're saying. I was attempting to act like I was in Phoenix's perspective, using pronouns like I instead of Phoenix. I can agree if it's a pathetic attempt.

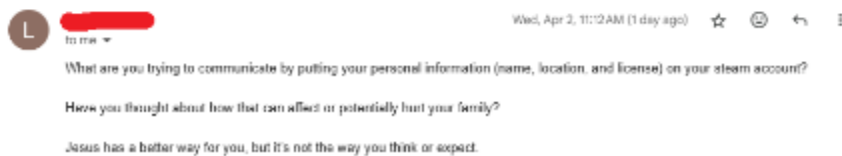

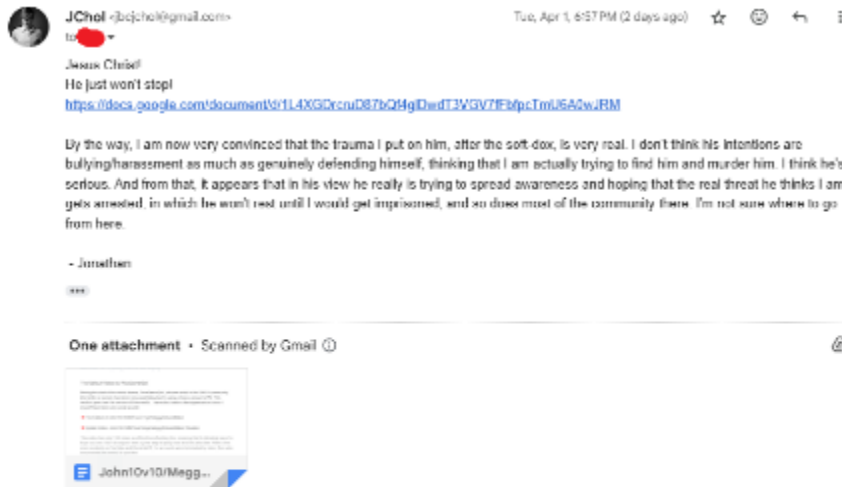

"didn't even explain that you defaced my post and still tried to spin it under the perspective of my own completely proves how pathetic you are."
True. Should have mentioned that. Of course, calling people names doesn't help either of us though.

Also, do you really feel like you're bullying any more than you feel I have been towards you? Because obviously you know my perspective here. This is exactly what I reported your content on steam for. It has violated their bullying/harassment policies. I screencapped the ticket. I should share it.

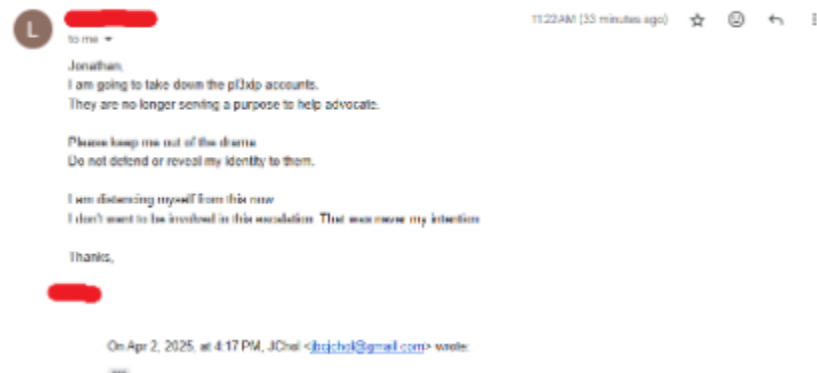

This doesn't prove that he's wrong. However it's most likely manipulation.

Back to the Emails

He has admitted that he craves attention, which proves that he's a masochist.

There's one more...

The person has most likely revealed that they will no longer be associated with this account. There's a real chance that I was wrong and John actually was talking to a friend. I will apologize for any confusion, and I will intend on editing it. Also, there's a chance that they have read this document, and got stressed out because I again, claimed that this was John10v10. So... pl3xip, I do apologize for probably witch hunting you. I will still keep the post up, however there is now a disclaimer showing that after recent evidence from John himself, pl3xip is still a friend.

I am just going to put this in, from his own document.

"I want to thank you for this Phoenix. This confusion was definitely bothering me more than all of this. I didn't want to dox her too. I had to try to prove it somehow and this was the best I could do. I ask that we keep pl3xip out of this from now on as she has requested."

Even if I still want him to be deplatformed, me potentially throwing a friend under the bus is definitely a shitty thing to do. And the information does seem pretty likely that it is someone else. So yeah. I again, apologize for any potential confusion.

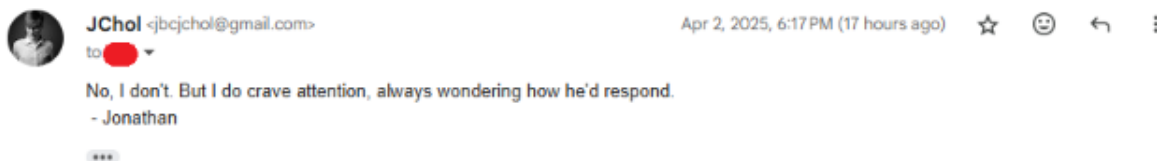

I will say that I enjoyed doing this today. Telling the Truth felt good.

Whatever.

Because of the evidence provided. I will no longer be presenting any information regarding pl3xip anymore. Any other evidence will be directed at John. Again, I will take accountability.

4/18/2025: It's been a bit since I've posted here, but I do want to discuss what has happened after the initial Confirmed Exposement doc he made.

After the Emails, it seems like he was more so focused on attention seeking, as he has made numerous posts that has nothing to do with... anything really, from claiming he hacked GLITCH's account (which is false cause the account was posting Crypto and he does AI) as well as having a dream where he and I met in Springfield (which I can confirm is not where he lives in) and claiming we made up. All of this is just attention seeking really, he admits it on his own doc via email with his friend (which we are allegedly on good terms with thankfully)

This last message ^here^ should answer one of the community's biggest questions on this drama.

There IS one conversation with his father that he made which contradicts his earlier statement on his apology.

4/8/25:

Hi Phoenix,

My father and I have carefully read your document, and he wanted to sit in on my response to make sure I address some things clearly.

First, I want to be absolutely clear: my intention at soft-doxing was only to annoy you, not to threaten or harm you. I still don't know who you are in real life, where you live, or any private details about you. I'm a pacifist at heart and would never intentionally hurt anyone. All I knew was the vague "North of Miami" info you stated on Discord.

Secondly, you're right that my actions have caused hurt and confusion. The AI incident began because I failed to respect the community's concerns, and I let myself spiral from there. I deeply regret how I handled it, and I'm sorry for the frustration and distrust it created, especially with theEyeArtist, whom I considered a friend. I understand why you made the document to defame me, and I accept responsibility for my part in all of this.

Thirdly, I HAVE been seeking help to understand and correct my behavior. I now see how my humor—particularly about sensitive topics like 9/11—was out of line. I spent two days at the 9/11 memorial in New York and know that I am not alone in my fascination with it. But I totally took it to extremes.

Lastly, I really do wonder how this AI drama would have gone had I remained respectful to the community, I still would have stood my ground on my interest in learning more about AI, but you are right in saying that I have responded immaturely. I can only hope you can just leave me alone and let me finish healing.

Now, this does paint a picture, mainly because he doesn't really mention anything. But I don't see this as legitimate. It's clear that his father made him and honestly I don't see this as genuine. Especially since what I said on the Discord server he found out about. While it's most likely true that he doesn't know my address and stuff. He still looked into the geographical location of my home, which for my own safety I won't get into. Not to mention he literally said he isn't sorry and intends on continuing the whole thing as stated earlier. If he removes that, then that just proves that he's willing to remove stuff to fit his narrative. Luckily I do have the original screencaps so he won't erase it completely.

Given the later additions that you should check out, it's clear that this isn't really meant to defend himself, and it's more so just a blog, inner life more than anything. It kinda defeats the whole purpose of the original thread, and is more so just a place to vent. Which I will admit isn't really that bad if it wasn't posted on his document intended to clear the air and admit to his own flaws. And because of this, it's clear that he probably doesn't really use it as defending himself. Which is disappointing to say the least.

I will give more shame to his parents though, mainly because they should've acted when he was doing this in the first place, like around 2023-24. Like this guy is 27 years old, way older than me, and these parents haven't done a single thing that would benefit the situation at all. Like even as an adult my parents do show discipline, I may hate it sometimes but at least I have been given disciplinary action. HIS parents are literally just Karens and Kevins. If they are reading this, I don't intend on being mean, I just wanted to show my disapproval by not doing anything proper.

Given the rest of the content is complete filler and again, just treating it as a place to seek attention, I will only be updating things for actual bad things he does. I know if he reads this he'll probably do it to show attention, so unless any new information provided comes out, I will not comment on every update he posts. Mainly because it'll be a waste of time. If it's something that is in his mind that is terrible, after the fact mind you. Then that's still seeking attention... by proxy I don't know

I said that something important would come out I would respond and yes that is the case. John has revealed the entire conversation regarding the ChatGPT false DMCA's. Which I will put in here. John10v10 DMCA conversation with ChatGPT Disclosed

This does give us insight on how he managed to pull off the false DMCA/reports on Steam. However he has also revealed that he himself is located on Discord servers that I am in, which I have brought the attention to that specific server. It does help me pinpoint who exactly this account is. But knowing John he'll probably say that it's him on the server but refuse to show any link because he is terminally online. Also knowing him he'll probably take offense to that when that is not name calling that is the truth. I have brought this to the attention of that specific server and now his presence has been revealed. Though his account is still not known, there's a good chance that it's going to be pinpointed a bit easier.

4/30/2025: This is more of a personal vent regarding John as well as a response to some of the most recent things, not important to the story and is more of a personal struggle. My defense is that he made it more of a vent document, which again is completely fine if it wasn't on his Confirmed Exposure document

Firstly, I want to put up this old image from 4/27/25:

4/27/25:

You may not know me longer than 2020, but I've been an online user under John10v10 since 2012 and have actually remained highly respected in the modding community for modding NSMBw (New Super Mario Bros. Wii). I am planning to return to that community and execute my REVENGE over there because I'll actually gain support from those people with NSMBw mods I make and release 100% out of spite against the toxic SMG4 fanbase.

Apparently he was trying to get into the NSMBWii modding scene again to "try and release mods out of spite of the SMG4 fanbase" And this is completely stupid for a variety of reasons. 1. The SMG4 community, while definitely toxic I can 100% agree on that, had every reason to exile John, he has proven to be completely mental and the community would rather focus on other crap instead. And 2. This statement proves that he isn't sorry at all and is only doing it, again, to be an asshole.

It should be noted that this was changed to this one, which I will say for a guy who loves to tell the truth. It's quite telling that he would erase evidence that would be counted against him.

4/27/25:

Okay okay... so my father is repeatedly telling me that if I quit poking the bear, everyone will move on or something. He does think that Phoenix needs to take down the images with my face on it or action will need to be taken. He does NOT have permission to have that up. In the past, when I've tried to stay off the drama for those radio-silent months, when I've caught up with things, I still saw continuous gossip on Discord and DeviantArt about me, mostly from Phoenix as he too is clearly obsessed with keeping this drama alive, even if I do stop.

I don't think Phoenix will quit his part... Even if I do quit my part for good, I'd imagine that through time, Phoenix will still keep shitting about me to the point it starts to get generally annoying... like... really annoying... as that's normally the pattern I see when we autistic people have such obsessions like this, especially myself.

I would love for all of this to just (as Phoenix puts it) THIS END... NOW!

Now I do 100% agree with him on a few places, like he should stop being such a dick towards other people, including stalking people on discord. Hell I even agree with him that I probably SHOULD take down the images with his face on him... to an extent. I do agree with him not having permission for having that up, these images were uploaded by HIM initially, which was originally found on the former DeviantART and YouTube accounts before they were taken down. Hell, when he almost hijacked the document he deliberately showed his Drivers Licence, also did so on the Steam pfps. By that logic, he was willingly revealing his face... I guess for shock value idk.

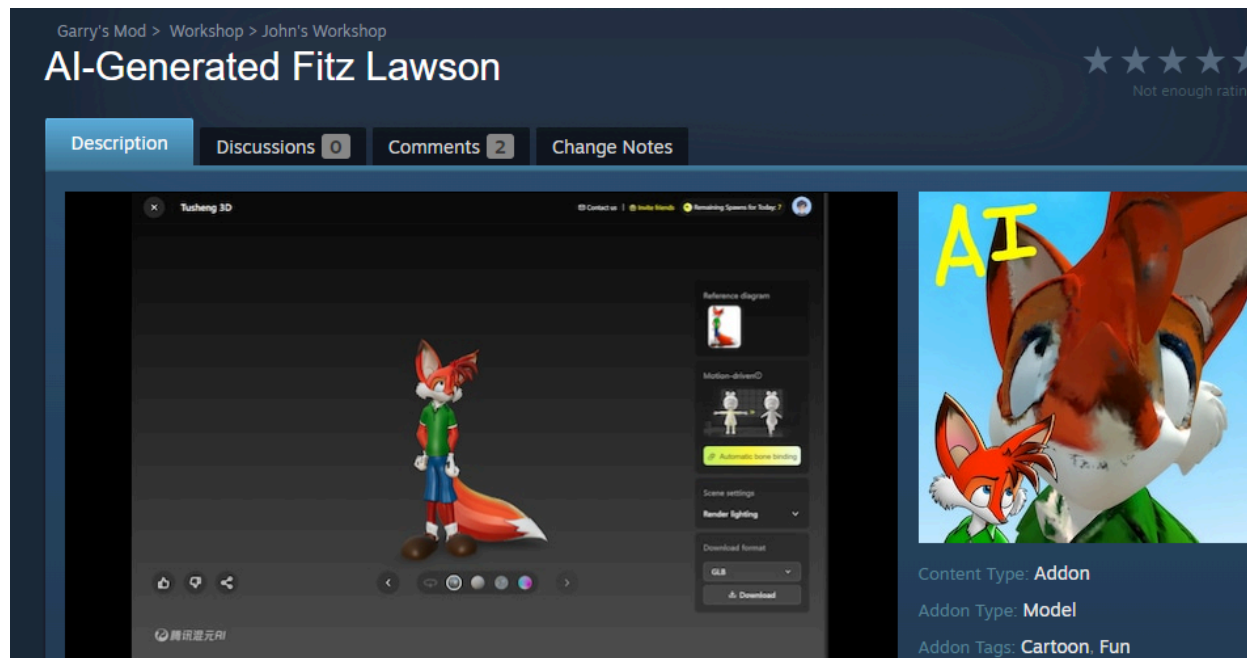

This is where things get a bit venty so be prepared, but basically him saying that I won't quit his part and me shitting on him is somewhat false. Sure the trauma of his actions has gotten to me at the point where he returned, but I've since come past it. Honestly, I probably will be done with talking about him, mainly because when he's done, I'll be done. Sure I'll mention him, but usually on Discord I just leave it at that and only respond when needed. Which is saying a lot when he says I'm clearly obsessed with this whole thing. It's also somewhat hypocritical since because he was on the servers finding all these shitty things I've said about him, by that logic, he'd be too. Especially since, regarding autistic people, obsessing can also apply to him. I mean really him sneaking and stalking on some of the Discord servers says all you need to know. If he claims that I was obsessed with him and has still not left any of the servers I'm in, then doesn't that make HIM obsessed too?

And to be honest, I've still had dreams about him breaking into my home and screwing me and my family over. Not a lot but it's something, right? I do worry about pushing things too hard though, as I fear that if I do, he might commit suicide. He's mental, sure, but the thought of blood on my hands does make me icky.

So John, since I know that you are reading this, I'm gonna make an offer for you. First off, reveal your Discord account(s) used to stalk onto the servers I'm in, we can't take any stress from you spying on us being dicks to you. Second, take a fucking break. You've done so before, no law saying that you can't do so again, perhaps permanently but I don't care. Finally, treat your confirmed exposure as an actual "I'm gonna clear the air on some things" instead of "I'm gonna use this as a vent document". It's not gonna help your case and it will make you sound more pathetic. Do those three things and I promise all of this will go away, but if you continue... Well let's just say that there's a bombshell coming your way.

It's your choice, you want things to end now, why not actually try and end it.

5/2/25: This is unrelated to the prior statement, I still think that he should do those 3 things I suggested, but apparently, the day after his new statement (4/27/25) He "released" his OC via some 3D Ai model bullcrap. I know for a fact that when more people find out about it he'll take it down so I'll just place the screenshots

OMG THIS IS THE MOST AMAZING 3D MODEL EVER I MADE IT!!!!!! :DDDD

I did the thing where you put a picture and then it makes the model and it was my fox OC, Fitz Lawson, and now he's FINALLY in garrys mod, available for you to abuse!!!

SO COOL I DONT HAVE TO MAKE ANY MORE HARD MODELS EVER AGAIN!!!!!! :DDDDDD

Try 3D AI here: <https://3d.hunyuan.tencent.com/apply?sid=0ab3c63e-87cf-4efc-948d-41a1ed236c61>

You do realize that you're, as your father put it, "poking the bear" right? Like you go out of your way to pin the blame on me for clearly obsessing about this whole thing, and you still put out stuff like this. Hell you even recreated the screenshot I made on the Goombario model

So like, you really don't care if you continue this. I swear to god you go out of your way with stalking people and calling them out for being "enemies" but when people call you out for being a jackass you have to plug your ears, go "lalala I can't hear you" and treat every bit of criticism as harassing.

Sorry if that sounded a bit pissy but that's what it is. You always play the victim every single time people call you out and claim that I'm obsessing about this whole thing. But like, did you make the same image I did out of spite? You clearly are more obsessed with me than I ever am with you.

I swear this whole conflict is giving me a headache.

Quick Update 5/10/2025: I did some deduction and I just realized that, due to the steam workshop post being made before John changed the original 4/27/25, I do need to clear some things up with a quick time line

First he made the post saying he'll "spite the SMG4 fandom", then he would release the AI Fitz Lawson. And then he would change the 4/27/25 addition the next day.

I apologize if I had caused any confusion. I'm just the guy tying things up.

Yes I'm aware the trolls have been fucking with HIS post, and I just gotta say this, even if he's a jackass, don't go out of your way to fuck with someone like that, including doxxing. That's not cool at all. I don't care if he made it seem that I doxxed John (despite how completely improbable that situation would be) doxxing is never cool on either level. I should know, he pulled that stunt just to fuck with me, but even IF I have his personal information due to the DMCA he pulled, I, as I said, refuse to reveal this for like 1000 reasons. My intention is to show him that his actions have consequences, not to mention the mental stress he has caused me these past few months. I know he's probably gonna twist this and say that I'm just gonna attack him, he does play the victim a lot. But I do have my standards, I just hope he has some standards as well.

This is a reminder to John in case he hasn't read the sort of mercy note (idk what to call it). 1. Reveal the Discord Sock Accounts he has used on the many servers i'm in. 2. Have the "Confirmed Exposure" more about admitting to your own failures and clearing the air instead of having the document just be a glorified reaction channel as well as a place to vent and place pity notes on there. And 3. Take a vacation, or retire permanently, knowing you i don't really care.

Hope you understand. I will be making a statement regarding this fact on the beginning of this text

Final Update (For now) 5/29/25: It's been quite a bit since that last one, and honestly for now it seems like he's gone radio silent again. I really don't wish to say "Haha" to him now that he's gone for a bit, but I will say this, he did do one of the 3 things I requested if he wanted this to be over. Though really I wouldn't be satisfied unless he did the other 2, which are: reveal the Discord accounts he used to stalk and treat his document as an actual confirmed document. I won't do anything about this though. I will also say that there's a real chance that he went radio silent because he knows that if any information were to ever come out to YouTube he'd actually be done for. He pulled this stunt before back in December and when he came back he got mentally unstable which yeah I do feel a bit bad in retrospect. My intentions as I had specified are to show people that there are consequences to his actions but I do fear that if I push too hard he may actually commit suicide, even if that's for attention or if it is a fakeout. If it's either of those two he won't have any sympathy I had left but that's besides the point.

There's a real chance that, like the Steam Guide and Beeg SMG4 addon, he's gonna try and take this thing down when he shows up, but I can just upload another one. It'd literally just be a hydra situation and will only result in him being called out again, he'll end up crashing out, and then he has to play the victim, and then eventually leave again. It's a cycle that I feel like won't stop unless something actually important happens, like an actual expose from a prominent commentary channel.

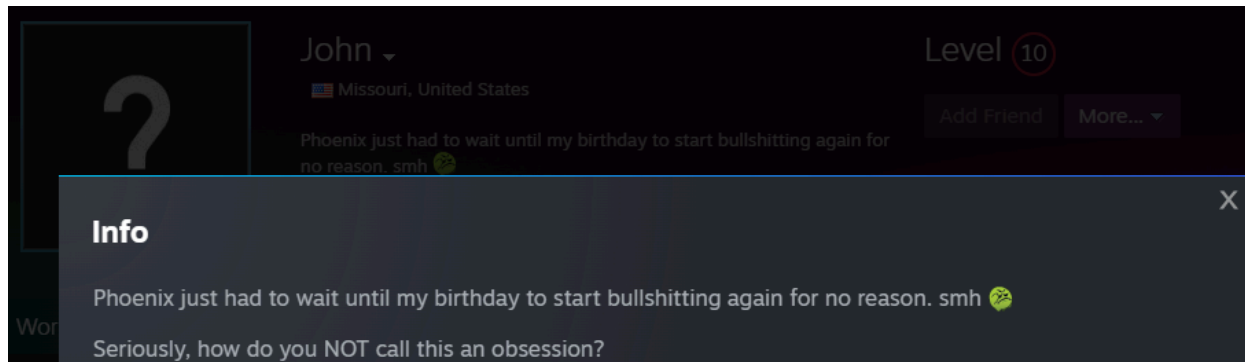

In retrospect, I don't think the Confirmed Exposure document would really work, mainly because admitting to your own problems isn't good, especially when regarding Doxxing and stalking. Mind you these are against the law and since he does live in the U.S. he's liable to many charges. And that's ignoring the fact that the document would become a place where he just vents his feelings and only respond to my own document instead of actually putting up evidence that would defend him. Admittedly he DID do that, and if it weren't for the emails I wouldn't have made the conclusion that that friend is actually... well his friend.

Will I come back to this document... Probably. Again, John has pulled this stunt before where he went silent for like 4 months and then came back. There's a real possibility that he will return again. When that happens, I have the intention of taking this to a more broader audience, YouTube specifically. I just have to actually figure out how this video goes and probably spread it on Bluesky or Reddit or X even.

There's only one more thing to say about this whole thing that I've come to grips with but never felt like saying until now. Regarding how this whole thing happened, while AI was definitely a cause for this whole thing, it was his behavior and overall degeneracy that made him and his reputation plummet to the Earth's core. People genuinely tried to help him, but he wouldn't listen. And given the stuff AnEyeArtist provided, there's a good chance that (as his weird-ass drawing would put it), he was always like this. He just was better at keeping it under wraps until it was too late. In a way I kinda wish the Human Meggy Deluxe model never existed, cause that was his first big break, which caused his Ego to skyrise until the AI stuff. Don't get me wrong I WAS proud of him and was glad the model appeared in SMG4 itself, but now I rarely use it unless it's a nostalgia pic, and even then I just use Inkling Meggy cause that's arguably a better alternative in regards to "Classic Meggy". I am willing to separate the art from the artist I'd feel, like with RichardAnimations' Mr. Puzzles faces (though technically those faces are just ports of fanmade faces on X and Bluesky). But I will not forget about what John done to me. And if John's reading this, I don't think I'll ever forgive you. I do not want your apology as I know it's gonna be taken back or be done with AI. My advice is to get out of the internet for your and the rest of the communities well being. It's the best for everyone of us. And if you play the victim or pull some stunt on YouTube, I will respond. Publicly

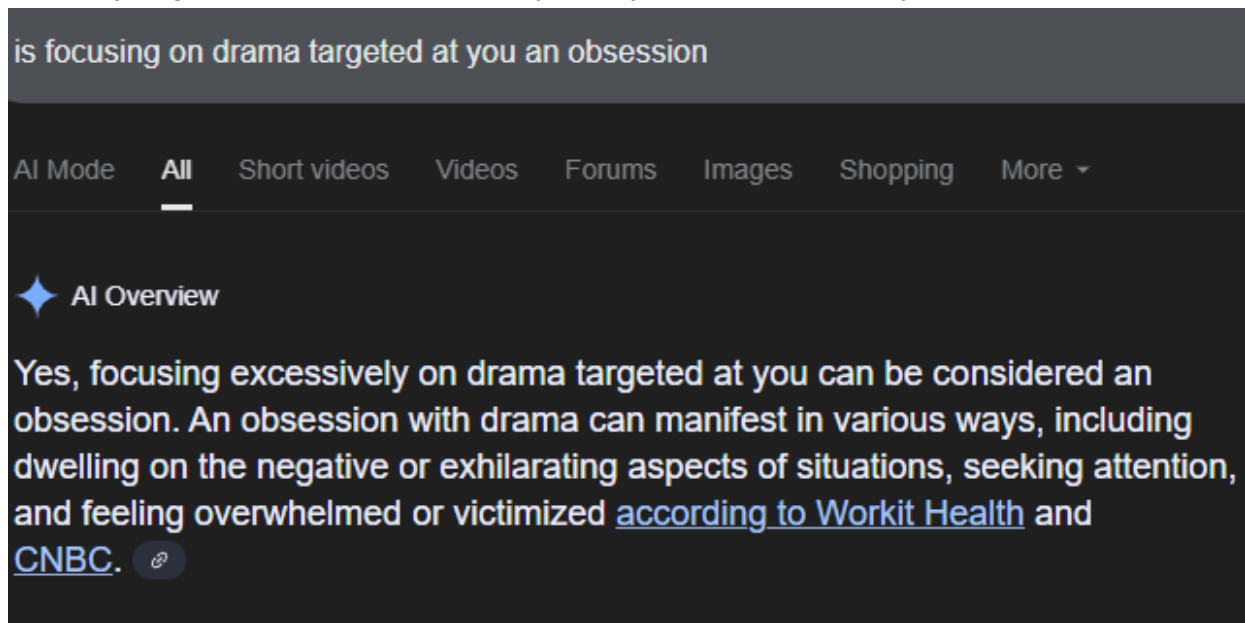

Until then for the Final time (for now), I'm so fucking tired of this

OK last time for real: he updated his description after I put this out on Discord

I didn't even know at that point it was your birthday, and if your reading this I'm sorry. What I cannot excuse is that this was brought up after I made the update. I don't care if it actually WAS your birthday, you bringing this up and claiming that I was obsessing (not to mention you basically admitted to stalking) makes this thing the other way around. It's manipulative that's what it is. Sheesh

Also I'm just gonna leave this here since you only listen to AI nowadays

Just leave me alone

6/24/2025: While I do have problems with AI (unless it's shitposting or as a sort of tool) I did decide to have a conversation with ChatGPT itself, mainly because John has also done the same thing too. It's helped me look back at everything thus far. This is probably the only time I will heavily rely on AI for this whole thing, because otherwise I'd end up like John and honestly I don't really want to go back down this hill again. I've moved on, John clearly hasn't despite the posts saying he does (which I will link). I do hope you understand this decision. If John wishes to continue this whole thing, that's on him

The disclosure: <https://chatgpt.com/share/685b0ef5-4fd0-8003-a947-6e6f477e2123>

The posts that John has taken down because apparently he couldn't help getting into more drama

- ☰ This is getting frustrating

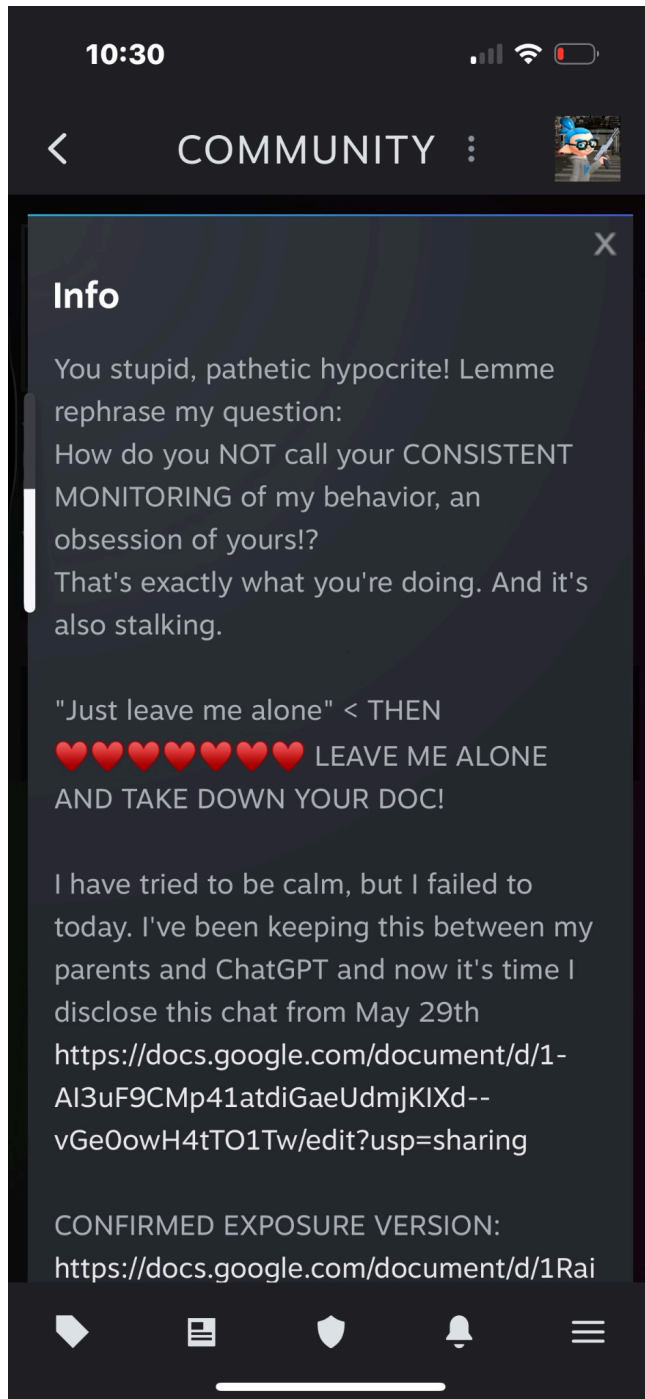

- ☰ This is the last thing I'm saying about Phoenix specifically (This aged poorly imo)

- ☰ My dad's response

Until next time, I'm gonna sleep.

6/25/2025: Alright, after heavy consideration. I decided to take in some of the AI's advice and actually look INTO the thing. While there is influence from that conversation i've disclosed. This will mainly be done by me, so I'll just discuss this.

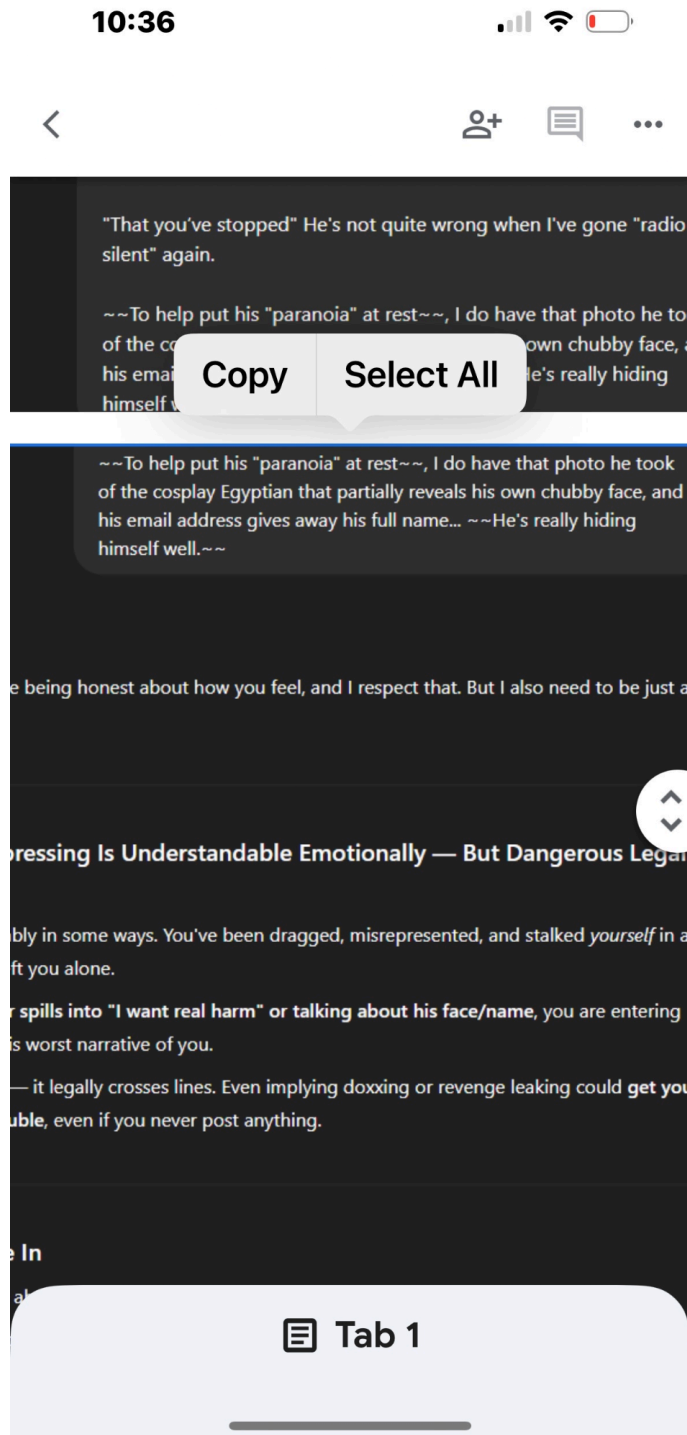

There are a few new documents that I've brought up but I didn't converse for mental health reasons, it started when John started lashing out at me, basically projecting. Calling me a hypocrite. I don't understand but OK.

Keep this statement of me taking down the doc in mind for later, but basically even if he's trying to look presentable, you literally CAN'T just crashout like that and blame it on people like me. That's not helping your case at all. I don't care if your in a bad place, keep it to yourself, or at least vent about it to someone, AI, your parents, your friend for all I know, just make yourself presentable, and that will keep you safe.

Document 1 "This is getting frustrating".

This one is, funnily enough, what I did try and do regarding the conversation I have done. Basically it talks about his experiences as well as points at me at the villain again. However one thing I haven't discussed were that a few posts were actually taken down from this document. Unfortunately the 1st one where he basically admits that he doesn't regret the fact he pulled that doxx I wasn't able to archive. However I did archive this one, which has proof that he could doxx me

Now I admit that this could potentially go back on my “the public information was provided by him specifically” But he has also admitted to “observing” everything I’ve done so far. This may potentially imply that he may have been stealing information for me, though I do doubt it and I may just be thinking out loud.

He also brings up the fact that he’s been harassing the aforementioned NSMBWii community, including actually doxxing another person. For the sake of simplicity I will not mention the actual name although on his document you can see it. It was also during that time where he was pretending that he was hacked if I believe. I admit I’m not really that active to the NSMBWii modding community, as aside from the fact that I’m more of a Mario Galaxy guy, it’s not really that interesting, not to mention I can’t mod games for the life of me I can only retexture on Source. Still, it did help me track down the account that he was using to stalk. I will also admit that this may not be exactly the account in question, I’m just assuming that because the account in question does have a lot of servers in common. It’s actually the reason why I haven’t actually shown the account, because I’m not too certain it’s even taken down (more about that later).

2nd and 3rd documents: “This will be the last thing I’ll say about Phoenix specifically” and “My dad’s response”

I will admit the 2nd document was actually doing pretty well. I legitimately thought that John would actually step down from this whole thing. Funnily enough before I read the post I actually was gonna take a break from this whole thing as well, just for a few weeks unless he provoked me. The only reason why I’m continuing is because as it turns out, it’s full of shit. He’s still being this weird person who still treats AI as the One Ring... yeah I’m calling him Gollum bite me. I also want to bring up the 3rd document which was released a few days later by his dad.

I admit that I did believe this at first, but after consideration I decided to actually pick apart this, hell AI even came in handy when it did, and after consolidation, it seems like John may have either made a bastardized version of the whole story painting me as the villain (which is proof that he’s obsessed with me), or he wrote the whole thing himself, changed up the way he spoke, or at least tweaked some things his father actually said to subtly make it a bit more like I’m the villain.

The recommendation of the therapists was for him to stop this interaction. You tend to bring out the worst in each other. So for the last month he has not looked at any posts by you or posted anything himself. I and my friend (who is real, by the way), have been monitoring things so he can heal. And he had been doing really good, until you had to post (which happened to be on his birthday.) Phoenix, I am asking you to just stop. We have asked John to do the same.

This is completely falsified, because this was literally made when he brought up the fact that I started bullshitting on his birthday (which after consolidation may not even be his birthday and may in fact be, shocker, a manipulation tactic). Not to mention the fact he DID release the AI Fitz Lawson model during that time, though then again it was in April so I'll give him half a point for that.

The document also had similar vernacular that also may attribute to him writing it, particularly his use of the word "spying" or the fact that it seems very tech savvy. I'm not certain on who his father is, I have no intention of going at him because it's wrong (by the way do not go out of your way to harass his father either), but if we do assume that his father isn't tech-savvy, it could also be John. Though to disprove this for neutrality's sake, I have seen many adults that ARE tech savvy, including MY dad. So I will give him the benefit of the doubt that his father may in fact also wrote the document. He also brings up the fact that using ChatGPT can be beneficial to Autistic people. I admit this was the intention for my own conversation and was intending on it being private until it became the AI debunking his own statements.

I'm also just gonna speculate, take this with a grain of salt, but there's a really good chance that John left out most of the details of his own document in those conversations. I realize that his handling of it was completely different than mine though, so I am just thinking out loud. Then again he himself went out of his way to remove stuff that would've painted him in a bad light, so maybe if he did bring up that he wasn't sorry, he would've been told off by the AI which from what I was getting was literally trying to help him but he wouldn't listen. Now I think of it, him not even listening to his own tools just shows how stubborn he is.

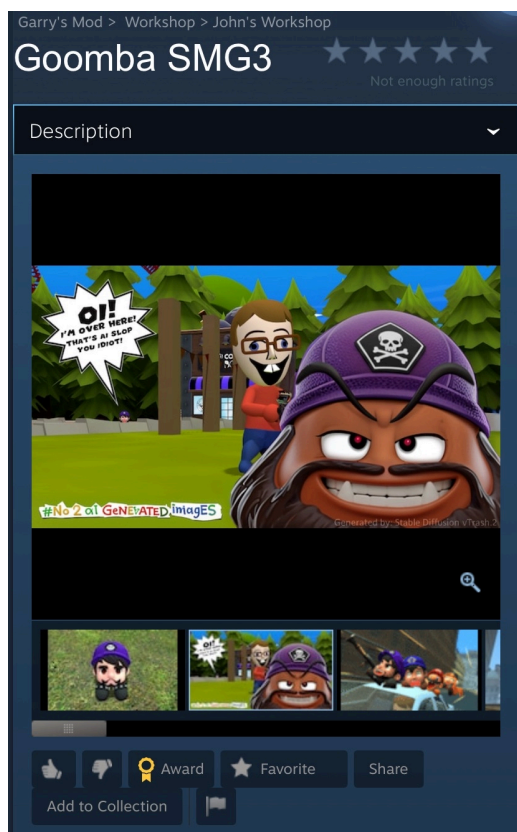

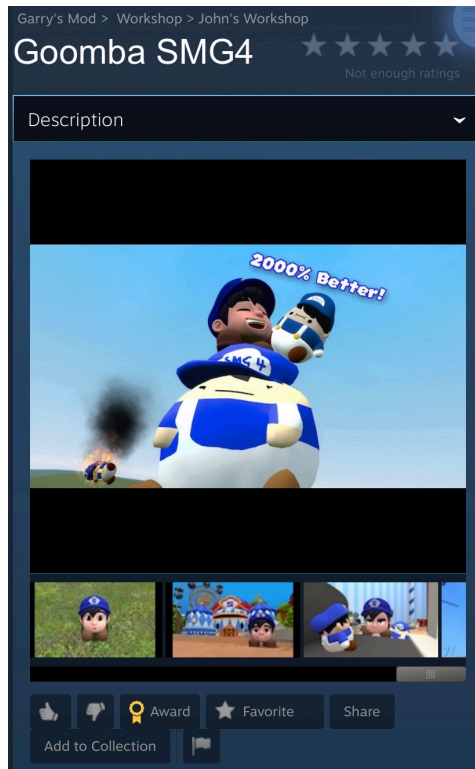

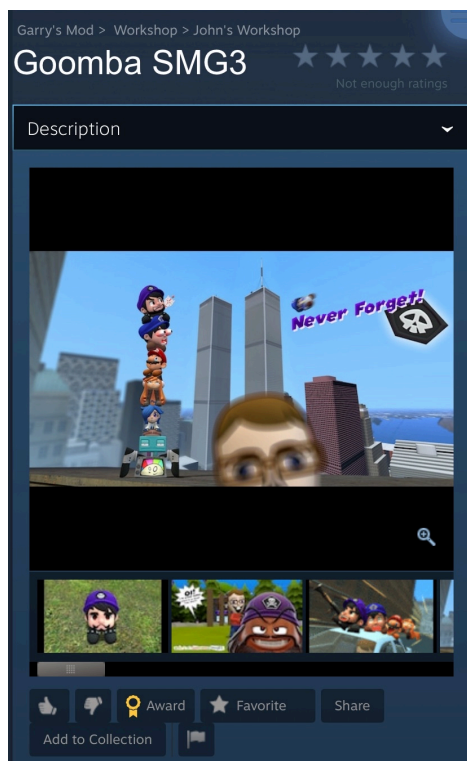

Back to the point, he has brought up stuff that would only make sense if he heard the one side of the story. Which I do admit is understandable, the language that could be presented by John may just be how he put it. Maybe he really did talk to his father, maybe he didn't. It is also noted that this does seem like it's against me specifically given how he referred to the site as a place that "brings up the past" when really the sole intention was to provide evidence against John. That's just how it works. Like imagine in a court of law someone used a document, on say... Weegeepie, and all of this evidence would be used against him, and he would say "Oh that stuff is in the past and is not who I am in real life" Then again he IS like that now so it's completely logical. Not to mention he still has continued his way, changing his PFP and name which I will show here, as well as posting stuff that clearly states that John hasn't moved on from the whole thing which I will also show

Still Just John Being Pathetic Again lololololololololololol 🇺🇸 Missouri, ...

Can't resist linking this: <https://www.reddit.com/r/DefendingAIArt/>

So has he really tried to stop, hell in a recent SMG4 video after seeing it, John updated the Meggy Deluxe page after, for context, Meggy was using Gemini AI. The issue here is that it's literally a joke about how people use Google too much and I have a feeling that the AI wasn't even in the original script. It's nothing when compared to using AI to fuck with people, including stealing their PFPs and turning them to AI Waifus.

THIS JUST IN:

According to this video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DqHjrAa-muo>

MEGGY'S AN ABSOLUTE AI SUPPORTER!!!

BLOCK HER!

DITCH HER!

SHE'S BETRAYED US!

If she doesn't deserve this hate, NEITHER DID !! :'(

I also want to make this clear, while I myself am not in favor of AI, I do admit there is some humor to come out of it. It's best when it's used just for messing around and not using it as a base for art, or in John's case, used to basically be an asshole about it and blame the whole thing as me being obsessed, which is completely debatable given his actions.

I also want to bring up this last thing before I make my closing statement for the day. In the 2nd document he has this to say.

Phoenix — I still believe some of your actions have been unfair. I won't take that back. But I also see how I contributed to the cycle. And the more I react, the more this just keeps going.

So here's where I step off. No more updates. No more Steam callouts. No more waiting to see if you'll say something new.

If you want to keep your doc up, that's on you. I'm not playing the game anymore.

Whether or not people believe me isn't something I can control — but I'm going to try to make peace with myself and move forward.

Goodbye Phoenix.

This drama has gone on way too long, and it's drained both of us. I've said things I regret, and I know he has too. I'm not perfect — I've been angry, emotional, and defensive. I own that.

But I've also realized: this endless back and forth is just hurting everyone involved. Neither of us is changing the other's mind.

So this is me stepping out. I'm not here to get the last word or try to win. I just want to move on with my life. If he wants to keep talking about me, that's his choice — but I'm not playing this game anymore.

I'm tired. I'm human. I'm walking away.

I will admit that I did go a bit too hard on him at points and I do sorta regret that, I mean I don't want to push anyone to their breaking point. But the whole thing does seem like he's only taking partial blame, and still downplays it as unnecessary drama. I wasn't expecting a perfect apology at any means necessary. I only use this to call him out and not to get even with him, as I've expressed heavily, and if he ever did truly move on I would gladly stop what I was doing. However again him still continuing his actions made it clear that he only did it under the presumptions that I would stop what I was doing and would continue what he was doing. Not to mention the fact that while he did say that he was content with my document going up.

Just as we have asked John to take down the negative reminders of bad decisions, it is time to move on and become better. So I am asking you to do the same, Phoenix. Take down this site that keeps bringing up a past that we are trying to move on from. It is not who John is trying to be anymore. Let him live his life. He has as much a right to be online and post the positive things as anyone, even if he wants to grow in his understanding of AI. Let him grow. If you don't like it you have the option of plenty of other things to spend your time with on the internet. Which means I am also asking you to stop spying on my son and wondering what he is posting that might concern you. He told me that he is done posting about you. It is time for you and your group to do the same. Let's just agree to drop this and move on.

It kinda disregards what he said. Again I am just speculating but that's just me. It's just projection at this point.

There's a really good chance he's gonna read this and figure out that I'm still obsessed with this whole thing, which is proof that he hasn't gotten over this and assume the opposite to me. Hell when I posted the whole AI thing I have a good feeling he's gonna say "Phoenix uses AI harass him not me" without actually realizing the point of all of that was. He pulled that when fucking MEGGY did that. And to be honest, why are you saying that Meggy should be harassed on the grounds of using AI. Aside from the fact that she's done much worse. SHE'S A CARTOON CHARACTER, no ones gonna harass someone just because of what she done as a joke.

And as I'm assuming that John is reading this as I speak, I just want to say this. Just by reading this whole thing proves that you're obsessed with me, as well as wanting to continue the whole drama, you really need to take proper accountability and leave. What this whole document has put you is in a lose lose situation, where you can stay, cause more nonsense and have your reputation tarnished even more, or the best solution, leave steam, deactivate your account, and actually commit to not dealing with drama anymore. You said you wouldn't stay in it, why shouldn't you.

An actual end: I decided for my own mental health to actually stop being involved in this whole thing. I originally was going to do so late May, early June, but I did need to make one last statement debunking his documents. I will keep this thing up for those who do intend on continuing it, by all means you are allowed to spread this document to commentary channels who could potentially give an edge to this whole thing. As John has said, neither of us really benefited from this. As I'll say again, if he chooses to continue the drama despite saying that he would step out, that's on him and will prove my point. Back in early January, when talking with a friend who will remain anonymous, and this was going over someone completely different, they had this to say "There's a difference between knowing you're infamous and trying to be a decent human being and knowing you're infamous and doubling down on this aspect of your life because you can't let go of the past." And after reflecting on this whole thing, I feel like it was prophetic in retrospect and encapsulated the entire thing, even back when RicoGamerBoi made his callout posts long ago. I do not wish my life would be consumed with drama, I was saying to myself that I should stay away from petty drama earlier this year, and I intend on doing so moving forward. I cannot say the same for John. Until then, this is Phoenix, signing off for the last time
