

Click on the icon below to access Facts on File - Varying Levels

Username: jfkmhs

Password: mandarin

Our district subscription includes:

*Writer's Reference Center (middle & high school level) provides users with a convenient one-stop location for all of the tools necessary to write and research effectively. From the mechanics of writing and grammar to style and research, this indispensable online resource thoroughly covers the fundamentals of quality writing, provides a wealth of vocabulary building dictionaries, and presents a step-by-step guide to writing a good essay.

MORE Facts on File databases available through the Woodbridge Public Library (WPL) Library card login required. When prompted for an ID number, type 29330003125786 or the entire bar code number located on the back of your library card.

Bloom's Literature (middle & high school level) offers a comprehensive resource for the study of literature. Edited and curated by Yale University professor, Harols Bloom, this database includes thousands of critical essays and discussion questions, plus author biographies and character analyses, full-length poems, the full text of hundreds of reference books, full-length videos of classic plays and films, and more.

Ferguson's Career Guidance Center (middle & high school level) is a comprehensive resource for career exploration and planning that allows users to quickly find the valuable career information they need, whether it's industry and professional articles, school planning resources, or skills and career advice. The material draws from a range of authoritative sources, including Encyclopedia of Careers and Vocational Guidance.

The World Almanac® for Kids (elementary & middle school level) is the ideal one-stop reference resource for intermediate-level students. Erasing the line between homework support and fun exploration, it contains excellent resources for reports and research, including extensive, up-to-date articles; videos; interactive games; science projects; and Homework Help; plus Teacher resources with lesson plans. Kids can explore age-appropriate subjects while developing online research skills with a trusted source.

Science Online (all levels) offers expansive reference coverage of the full range of scientific disciplines through extensive essays, videos, diagrams, definitions, interactives, and experiments. Comprehensive Topic Centers help students find a starting point for their research, and the science eLearning modules cover core topics with Teacher Support.

Health Reference Center (all levels) includes comprehensive, in-depth coverage of body systems, current health issues, major diseases and conditions, treatments, and procedures, as well as health and nutrition information specific to men, women, children, teens, and seniors. The up-to-date information comes from hundreds of authoritative sources, plus users can find thousands of videos, illustrations, journal articles from PubMed Central, and reference articles from MedlinePlus.

World Geography and Culture Online (all levels) is the definitive resource for the study of countries, cultures, and geography concepts and skills. Every country of the world is profiled in depth, covering all aspects of its geography, history, society, and culture. At-a-glance information, maps and flags, videos, images, gazetteer entries, biographies of famous people, a timeline, and current news supplement each country's profile. Comprehensive entries about the U.S. states are also available.

African-American History (middle & high school level) offers a fresh way to explore the full spectrum of African-American history and culture, with tablet/mobile-friendly videos and slideshows, images, biographies of key people, event and topic entries, primary sources, maps and graphs, and timelines.

American History (middle & high school level) is an indispensable resource for student research. Spanning our nation's history - from prehistory to the present day - American History was developed and curated by leading editors and scholars in the study of American History. It is composed of a variety of learning assets, including articles, images, primary source documents, timelines, videos, and slideshows.

American Indian History (middle & high school level) offers fast access to more than 15,000 years of culture and history, covering more than 600 Native American groups, through tablet/mobile-friendly videos and slideshows, images, biographies of key people, event and topic entries, primary sources, maps and graphs, and timelines. This comprehensive database allows for an interactive, multi-faceted look at the indigenous people of the Americas.

Ancient and Medieval History (middle & high school level) provides thorough coverage of world history from prehistory through the mid-1500s, with special Topic Centers on key civilizations and regions, including the ancient Near East, ancient Egypt, ancient Greece, ancient Rome, ancient and medieval Africa, ancient and medieval Asia, the Americas, medieval Europe, and the Islamic World. Each civilization's history is brought to life through articles, videos and slideshows, primary sources, and more.

Modern World History (middle & high school level) offers a comprehensive look at world history from the mid-15th century to the present. Thousands of subject entries, biographies, images, videos and slideshows, maps and graphs, primary sources, and timelines combine to provide a detailed and comparative view of the people, places, events, and ideas that have defined modern world history.

Curriculum Resources Center (educators all levels) gives teachers instant access to thousands of easily reproduced handouts to supplement text and lesson plans used in middle school, high school, and junior college classrooms. This expansive collection contains thousands of fact sheets, timelines, an image gallery, printable maps, full-color science diagrams and experiments, and math activities.