Goobleck

Okay, last episode, Chip, Jay, and Goobleck face Dr. Ooze. Dr. Ooze want to help the world by throwing Goobleck in blender. Oh, no. However, Chip, Jay, and Goobleck stand up for Goobleck. Chip missed so hard, he got new backstory. Jay hit him so hard, he went different dimension. Goobleck woke up Celestine, and now, Goobleck think big twist about to happen with bird, but don't know because no one tell him. Just roll with it.

[intro music by Shady Cicada](transcribed by thelittlestjenna)

Grizzly

[Western accent] Well, hello there, everybody. Welcome back to Just Roll With It. My name is Grizzly, and I'm the DM, and this is Riptide.

Bizly

[rope whipping sound] Well, how are you doing there, sweetheart? I'm Bizly, and I play Chip on this here show.

Condi

[rope whipping sound] Well, howdy, feller. [switches to Canadian accent] I'm actually Canadian. Oh, fuck, yeah, bud. Let's go for a rip. I'm Condifiction, eh?

Bizly

[Canadian accent] Oh, fuck yeah, buddy.

Condi

You want to go smoke some darts, break some hearts? I play Jay.

Bizly

Smoking darts, breaking hearts.

Condi

Oh, fuck yeah, bud.

Charlie

[Snapping sound] Owww, fuck, my neck! Oh, Christ.

Bizly

Dude, if he can't do it, I'll do it for him. [pulls out a skeleton] Hi, I'm Gillion Tidestrider. It's me, Gillion, guys. Hi.

[laughter]

Bizly

Audio listeners, there's a skeleton in the room. There's a skeleton. I'm holding a skeleton.

Grizzly

Bro pulled out a fucking skeleton, dude.

Bizly

I spent $60 for this 15-second bit.

Charlie

You bought that skeleton to bring them on screen and just make fun of my fucking dead character? Is there no other reason?

Bizly

Yeah.

Charlie

All right, I'm Charlie Slimecicle, and I'm fed up.

[laughter]

Grizzly

Oh, fuck, dude. Where we last loved off. The three of you, Chip, Jay, and Goobleck, plus Felipe.

Charlie

I can't take it anymore. I just want to hear it again.

Grizzly

Some of you are captains of The Riptide Pirates. Other of you are just experiments known as experiment 808 made by the doctor whom you encountered for the first and not the last time. You learned of Goobleck's true intention, true purpose for being made, to consume all manner of beings with powerful souls to then be used as the secret key ingredient for this ooze that would be injected into all manner of beings to create this new perfect race. Of course, none of you like that.

[laughter]

Grizzly

So you fought with Dr. Ooze, giving him a chance to test out his brand new strength and abilities. Most of the encounter was one-on-one with Jay as Chip was bodied, and Goobleck was playing this 4D chess, 1,000 IQ game.

Condi

He leveled up.

Charlie

He did a level up. Levels up leaves like what?

Condi

Confuses to elaborate.

Grizzly

During the encounter, Jay played into some of the doctor's jests or jabs and said that they were powerful people where she's from, which prompted at the end of the encounter, Dr. Ooze changed forms into this gargantuan godlike ooze being, something you've never seen and never wanted to see before. Opened a rift, unsuccessful taking Goobleck with him and stepped into the world of Mana. And just before that, Goobleck, with your fey-touched abilities, awoken Celestine, who had been broken out of the hourglass that kept her captive. And the last thing that you saw, as you all dust yourselves off and get up, was her looking over the edge of this teetering disk at the very top of her former palace. With Apple landing on her shoulder. She looks back and the tear falls down her face. And so the journey continues. So Celestine is very tall, like 6'4 or so. She has longer legs than the length of her upper torso. She's very dainty facial features, very symmetrical, thin. But she has the exaggerated fey-like features as well. You know, the ears that go, that reach far past her head and these silvery, wispy markings under the eyes and around the hairline. She got silver clouded eyes similar to what you would see blind people having. But she also has this long, silver, white hair with long bangs in front of the face, one of them is just swept behind the ear. She's wearing this two-piece, fitted, thin fabric dress, which is the upper part of it is connected to these arm sleeves by turquoise flowers. The bottom part dress is just this very slightly see-through fabric that is embroidered with different flowers as well, with this hip cape that matches the color, this bluish-black color of the top. As she's looking at you, this is who you see.

Charlie

No, and Grizzly, I'm sure she won't be over 6 feet and attractive. Oh, my god!

Bizly

She got horns.

Grizzly

Yeah, as well as dangling jewelry from the ears and whatnot.

Condi

Damn, she fey as fuck, actually.

Grizzly

Though a lot of her arcane power was used, she still has a grand amount that you can sense before you. She stares at all of you. What do you do before she speaks first?

Bizly

I'm still just silently sitting around.

Condi

Stare back.

Charlie

Yeah, Goobleck is just in neutral. Eyes open, mouth open, unblinking, staring.

Jay

I'm sorry about what happened to your realm. If that's...

Condi

I look around sheepishly.

Jay

What you're crying about?

Grizzly

That twinkling, ring, sound flies past your ear, Jay, as you watch that small little blue sprite of an orb fly past your ear and towards Celestine, and just gently lands on her finger. Celestine speaks,

Celestine

I am saddened by what has become of my domain, but it is a pleasure.

Grizzly

And the blue sprite just [ring], disappears.

Celestine

It is a pleasure to meet you face to face. I greatly appreciate your bravery in aid in releasing me.

Condi

Jay just takes a deep breath in, I guess, like a sigh.

Jay

Yeah, of course. I mean, I'd be lying to say that we came here just to save you. But I'm glad that we were able to.

Grizzly

She turns around and looks at all the darkness that surrounds her domain. She says,

Celestine

An archfey in the feywild who has their own domain. It often reflects their internal emotions and desires. Where you stand, crumbling, was my palace of hopes and dreams. I fear the malice, the vitrail, and that man, that supposed doctor. I fear what he has inside of him to turn this place to complete darkness. I can sense the animals, the different creatures that used to roam. Though they are different now, I'm just saddened.

Condi

I'd like to actually look down at Pretzel at this point. How's Pretzel looking?

Grizzly

Pretzel is fully Pretzel.

Condi

Oh my God, Pretzel's back.

Grizzly

And she's not spinning around anymore. But like, some of her tentacles are just rubbing the eyes. It seems like she's still trying to clear her vision as it might be blurry or foggy. But there is still a lack of character for Pretzel at the moment.

Goobleck

You right.

Jay

No, her soul.

Goobleck

Doctor, do much damage. Control 'z'.

Charlie

I'm going to try and throw up as many people as I can.

[laughter]

Grizzly

Throw as many?

Condi

That is the most insane thing I've ever heard.

Charlie

You said I've absorbed 91 people, right?

Grizzly

Yeah, there are-

Charlie

I want to throw as many up as I can, now.

Grizzly

Okay. So if you want to do this, I think Goobleck will lose a lot of power.

Charlie

A level?

Grizzly

Or ten. I think if you eject all 91 of them, Goobleck will, of course, shrink a bit. I don't think there's anything to roll for this. I think it's just something like you'll lose. Yeah, I'd say you'll probably lose one to two levels because of it.

Charlie

Okay. Goobleck opens his mouth and his eyes start to widen as well. And in thick green membranes, people just start firing out.

[laughter]

Chip

Oh, shit. Hey, woah, woah, woah.

Jay

What the hell?

Chip

Stop throwing up people.

Jay

No, wait, not the puppeteer. Not the puppeteer. Leave him-

Goobleck

It's just like when met you, improv birth.

Charlie

He just fucking throws up all of the people that he's ever victimized because of this mission, or I guess as many as he can, in front of Celestine.

Grizzly

What you would notice is that some of these souls travel inwards, deeper into the palace. Some of them almost seem to disappear within these small blips of red rifts into a different plane, as if some of them have no body to return to, and so they pass on. Celestine watches curiously and tilts her head like a puppy.

Goobleck

See? If I can expel 91 people, you can expel the bad thoughts in you.

Chip

Holy shit, man.

Goobleck

But I only count 90, oh-

Charlie

And he throws up one final guy.

Condi

91 people.

Bizly

No, there's just 91 people up here?

Condi

I think most of them are souls.

Grizzly

Well, it's very fast. It's like a Scooby-Doo scene where they just all [fluttering noise]. They're all gone.

Condi

I meant yeah, like when the souls are flying somewhere else.

Celestine

I believe I witnessed you were under Kas' wing. Goobleck?

Goobleck

Yes. Ooo, he like you.

[laughter]

Grizzly

She gives a soft smile and uses the fingers to wipe away the tears. And she says,

Celestine

I think it is brave of you to return to a place you may have had reason to avoid. Had you not been here, I possibly couldn't have waken up.

Goobleck

Goobleck just want to be free and not put in blender. And sometimes, sometimes to be free is not to run.

Celestine

Very humane and wise words. There is clearly a lot of work to be done. You are free now. I wish to heal, help heal the creatures still here. I'm sure Kasper is so tired. So I wish to help move the carnival along and allow it to leave the feywild once more.

Goobleck

Yes, it's a lot.

Celestine

But for you, all of you, because of your help, whatever it is you wish, if it is within my ability, I promise it is granted.

Condi

I looked down to Chip. He's still sitting on the ground, I assume?

Bizly

Yeah.

Goobleck

Goobleck got what Goobleck wish. Up to you.

Bizly

I would have just jumped up when Goobleck shot all of the fucking people out of his face.

Grizzly

Do you contemplate this for a moment? You hear it.

Felipe

Uh, Ashley Tisdale.

Jay

Who?

Felipe

Oh, nevermind I shouldn't have said that.

Chip

We want our friend back, or to know where he is.

Celestine

Tell me about this friend.

Chip

Ye tall, fish. Champion of the Undersea, hero of the deep or is it the other way around.

Jay

No, that's right. Eater of grass, beater of ass.

Goobleck

You must be talking about different Ashley Tisdale.

Felipe

No, that sounds all right.

[laughter]

Chip

He's the chosen one, our best friend.

Celestine

And he is lost?

Jay

Yeah.

Chip

We think so.

Jay

He drew a card and disappeared.

Chip

I handed it to him.

Jay

No, he drew it.

Goobleck

No, I saw he drew stupid like an idiot.

Felipe

Yeah, he's a fucking dumbass.

Chip

We just-

Goobleck

Dap me up Felipe.

Chip

Want to know where he is or if he's even out there at all.

Celestine

Do you have an item that belongs to him?

Jay

Oh, god, I have so many.

Celestine

May I see?

Here, his 1,000 ball bearings.

[laughter]

Charlie

They're yours.

Condi

Actually, who took his necklace?

Bizly

I think I did.

Condi

Did you take his necklace?

Bizly

Wait, did I? I might have given it to somebody else.

Condi

Might have been Felipe. Does Felipe have it?

Bizly

I think Felipe has it. I'm going to go over to-

Condi

He does.

Bizly

I'm going to go over to Felipe and just take it from him.

Grizzly

Fuck you. Yeah, sure. He has like a fucking negative two in strength and three exhaustion points, you win, okay.

[laughter]

Grizzly

All right, you hand it to her, and she just waves her hand and apperates this very beautiful mirror.

Celestine

Oh, I suppose it may have been broken.

Condi

Oh, fuck. [laughs]

Chip

Oh, yeah. That's...

Jay

That's like half our fault. It was already broken, but then...

Celestine

Not to worry.

Grizzly

And just within a moment or so, a minute, she mends all the glass that was shattered.

Goobleck

Oh, consequences not real.

[laughter]

Grizzly

That face. [laughs] The consequences. She's very powerful. That face, that mask of a face, like the fucking mirror from Shrek shows up. And he's like,

Mirror

I'm alive.

Jay

I'm sorry about that-

Mirror

I'm alive!

Goobleck

I would like to apologize.

Grizzly

He sees you and hears He goes,

Mirror

[scared noises] Celestine, I'm pleased to see that you are alive. What has happened? What do you need?

Grizzly

She says,

Celestine

Now, now I have a necklace from a lost fish.

Chip

It's a fish man.

Celestine

Could you help me locate him?

Jay

Fish man. Gillion Tidestrider

Charlie

Imagine you guys just scry on a random tuna.

[laughter]

Grizzly

The mirror man goes,

Mirror

Yes, of course.

Grizzly

And after glaring at the necklace for a second, he spins around and the mirror almost like, ripples and transitions into some different scene. But then all you see behind the glass is this darkness. You don't see anything. And then it fades back and the mask reappears and it says,

Mirror

I'm sorry, Celestine. There's a much powerful magic preventing me from scrying. I cannot see him, but he is out there.

Jay

Shit.

Celestine

I apologize for failing.

Jay

Fuck.

Grizzly

She hands the necklace back.

Celestine

All of you, if there's anything else that you wish, I want you to leave with something.

Jay

If-

Celestine

I assume you want to leave, yes?

Jay

Yeah, of course.

Celestine

I know you are visitors not from here.

Goobleck

Oh, yes, fuck this place.

Jay

If there's no way for you to find even the location of our friend, actually, the bird on your shoulder, Apple.

Grizzly

She just gently lets Apple walk onto her finger.

Jay

For quite some time, she's had a magic cast over her. She's not who she's supposed to be. We've been searching for a way to undo that magic.

Celestine

I can certainly sense this. Perhaps that is why she was drawn to me. What do you know already about the magic?

Jay

It was transmutation, I believe.

Grizzly

Celestine kneels down, just onto her knees, and then sets Pretzel on the ground here and then draws a circle, and her finger leaves behind the same flowers that are on her top of this dress. And it just circles, surrounds Apple, who just jumps up and down like a funny bird would in the circle, but doesn't move too much. And there's this slight illuminating glow that surrounds Celestine as she works with Apple and says, once it dissipates.

Celestine

I see.

Charlie

Boys, I want us all to lock in our theories now.

Condi

Oh, God. I don't-

Grizzly

Well, one moment. Allow me to explain.

Celestine

This magic is transmutation. It is also evocation. It is also abjuration and it is also necromancy. This spell on Apple your bird, I sense it was casted over 100 years.

Condi

What?

Charlie

What?

Jay

What does that mean? What kind of-what?

Celestine

This spell is not necessarily ancient nor powerful, but handcrafted, home brewed, if you will.

[laughter]

Grizzly

I knew you were gonna laugh.

Condi

That was good, man.

Celestine

Casted over at least 100 years. Typically, when you are mixing these different webs of the arcane together in one spell, there are sacrifices, backfiring, consequence for the power that you cast. Perhaps that is why the caster has become this blue bird.

Charlie

The fuck the bird, dude.

Condi

The fuck.

Grizzly

She just like, picks up Apple again.

Celestine

You wish the spell to be broken?

Jay

One chirp for yes, two chirps for no, apple, you also got to say.

Grizzly

Apple looks around. Animal handling check, Jay. It's a bird. I mean, it's not like it speaks English.

Condi

I was really hoping that maybe it could understand this this whole time. Animal handling.

Grizzly

Maybe one time it did, but you only thought it did. It was only good timing.

Condi

It was almost a natural 20. 15.

Grizzly

A 15?

Condi

Surely that's enough.

Bizly

I have an animal handling of minus one. I'm just going to poke my finger at her separately. I'm just looking for...that's a six. No, it's a four, actually. Sorry.

Grizzly

Apple hops away from Chip's finger and looks at you Jay. Her head spins around jerkily, but there's no chirping or anything.

Jay

Good enough for me.

Celestine

I tell you what-

Jay

You don't think it's dangerous to remove the spell, right? For Apple or for us or for anybody.

Chip

Or maybe Apple became Apple on purpose?

Celestine

Hmm, perhaps you have much to think about.

Chip

Is there a way to talk with Apple? Ask?

Jay

That's the smartest thing I've ever heard.

Grizzly

So she walks back over to the mirror and says,

Celestine

Mirror, are you able to communicate with this bird?

Grizzly

There's a pause.

Mirror

That isn't a real bird.

[laughter]

Mirror

Speaking with an animal requires the animal to have lower intelligence as normal animals do. And this bird does not.

Condi

I look at the Chip quickly.

Celestine

I have a solution.

Jay

Oh, okay.

Grizzly

She sees that you guys are like, sighing, getting a little sad. She goes,

Celestine

How about?

Grizzly

And she just grasps the air, almost like a magician, and then blows into it. And as she does, she very dexterously, in a flaunt of hand movements, apparates this small tube filled with this clear liquid. And she hands it over to you, and she also puts Apple on your shoulder.

Celestine

I will not say for certain what will happen when said spell is broken. But when I wish to. This liquid, you just poured over the bird, and she should be free. Do not wait too long to make your decisions. The magic won't hold forever.

Jay

Okay.

Celestine

Especially once you leave the feywild. Does this satisfy?

Jay

Yeah, this works.

Goobleck

I would like some of this liquid, too.

Chip

What are you going to do with the liquid, Goobleck?

Goobleck

Eat it.

Chip

We don't need any more liquid, thank you.

[laughter]

Goobleck

You are a coward.

Jay

Besides that, yeah, I guess we'd like to go back home, to Mana.

Celestine

I have never heard of this place.

Jay

You haven't?

Celestine

Not in recent times.

Jay

Full of water, basically, mostly water, a few islands.

Goobleck

Oh, that where Doctor went.

Jay

That's where Doctor went, yeah.

Celestine

I see. And Goobleck, you would like to return with them?

Charlie

He looks at Chip and Jay.

Bizly

I just look at you. Given like a...I obviously look fucked up, but I'm still giving you a half smile.

Charlie

I want to roll insight and see if they want me to come back with them. 16.

Bizly

Yeah.

Charlie

You do?

Condi

Yeah mmh.

Goobleck

Ooo, maybe.

Celestine

Would you like to speak to Kas?

Grizzly

She's kneeling down to Goobleck.

Celestine

You worked with him, didn't you?

Goobleck

I did. I did not even put my two weeks in.

[laughter]

Goobleck

Probably should speak. Okay.

Grizzly

She just leads the group like over to the mirror and the mask, after a little bit of conversation, the mask twirls [whoosh] and then you see Kas' face appear on the mirror. Jay and Chip, do you guys say anything during this?

Bizly

Just kind of like, half wave.

Goobleck

Hello, Kas buddy. It is Celestine, girl, you big, big, big, like. We found her, made her free.

Kas

Goobleck, Celestine.

Goobleck

We are both free, ready to mingle.

Kas

[chuckles] I could sense the atmosphere of the carnival changed, but I had no idea you had freed. And what of this doctor that had such a grasp, I mean, has he dealt with?

Goobleck

Not our problem anymore, Kas.

Jay

We released him to our home world of Mana, and I'm so thrilled about it.

Goobleck

It's stupid and all water, same liquid, boring, bad.

Kas

Oh, dear.

[laughter]

Kas

Well, little goob, the carnival is always open for you should you wish to return. But you don't have to. And Celestine, I assume this means we can travel again.

Grizzly

She nods. He smiles this big, bright smile, and he yells it out behind him. And then you hear this big cheer, this big hooray from multiple people. And you can still notice that a bit of the carnival is in shambles and being rebuilt and more done.

Goobleck

I think Goobleck have much to learn before come back and play carnival games. But thank you.

Kas

Fair enough.

Goobleck

Keep it real.

Kas

Keep it chill like that.

Charlie

Can I reach through the mirror and...[mimics dapping him up]

Condi

Dap him up?

[laughter]

Grizzly

You know what? I'll say you can. It's just like a [whoof]-

Grizzly

I accidently break it again.

Grizzly

It's like you pass through liquid.

Charlie

Take a life, yeah.

Grizzly

No, you do. And then it dissipates.

Celestine

So, where in this Mana would you like to go?

Chip

Just really quickly. Can you bring back your mirror?

Bizly

I just started knocking on the mirror.

Grizzly

The mirror is always there. I mean, he's just floating, chilling. Yeah, he's right there.

Chip

Hey.

Mirror

Hello.

Chip

You said a magic was stopping you from seeing Gillion.

Mirror

Precisely.

Chip

Can you tell what kind?

Mirror

There are magics that are basically like powerful cloaking devices. It prevents certain people, certain things, certain items from being detected or looked upon through magical means. Your friend is either near someone who is protected or he is in something that is protected.

Chip

And how many things out there are protected? Is this common?

Mirror

Hmmm.

Grizzly

The mask's puzzled.

Mirror

Common where you are from? I have no knowledge. But there are enchanters who make items like necklaces and the like. The consumer can wear and become protected. Easy as that.

Condi

That doesn't hurt there.

Celestine

That is child's play for me to make.

[laughter]

Jay

Thanks, Celestine. Good to know.

Celestine

Would you like one of these necklaces?

Grizzly

She looks at you, Chip.

Goobleck

Yes!

Condi

I'll take a magical anti-scrying necklace any day for free. Fuck it.

Charlie

Yeah, dude. Fuck, yeah. Are you kidding me? Is it a necklace to never get fucking spied on? Are you kidding me? That's awesome.

Condi

What if the Navy decides to spy on us? We wouldn't know.

Charlie

No.

Bizly

I've just been holding Gillion's necklace in my hand, rubbing it with my thumb.

Goobleck

Or maybe if either of you have anyone else you want to spy on. See secrets.

Condi

Can we spy on more people?

Bizly

Charlie, it's killing you to be Goobleck right now, isn't it? Because you want to spy on everybody, don't you?

Charlie

I want to spy on everyone, yeah. I mean, I don't know. I only know people through the lens of all of your memories that I've ingested.

Jay

Actually, can you check something for me? Someone?

Celestine

Certainly.

Grizzly

By the way, this magic item that you're requesting is attunement.

Charlie

Fuck!

Grizzly

Which one of you has a slot?

Condi

Good question. I get an additional slot soon.

Charlie

Oh that's poggers.

Condi

Cause I'm doing artifier.

Bizly

Yeah, I have one slot left.

Condi

I have one slot as well.

Grizzly

Then just for the two of you, she pucks two flowers and then once again forms this circle in the air and turns them into these bracelets, and then she just slips them on gently onto your wrists.

These are basically amulet of proof against detection and locations, but they are bracelets instead of amulets. Little flower bracelets and they are yours.

Jay

If you could show me a man named Niklaus Hendrix.

Celestine

Okay. And this Niklaus, is there a reason you want to find him? Is this where you want to return?

Jay

Maybe. Let's just say our paths have crossed a few times.

Grizzly

I'm trying to think of where he would be at the moment. That's why I'm smiling.

Jay

Our fates may be intertwined.

Grizzly

She walks over to the mirror.

Celestine

Do you have anything of his?

Charlie

Yeah, you guys do.

Jay

Yes.

Charlie

It's a very important thing.

Bizly

What do I have? Can you just tell me?

Charlie

You need to know what it is to get it.

Condi

My first thought was the cards. I don't know if you would know.

Charlie

It has been in a briefcase of holding most of this campaign.

Condi

Oh, you're right. The fucking compass.

Bizly

Oh, Jesus.

Grizzly

This is made by Niklaus, but does it belong to him?

Bizly

Well, it has his name on it.

Condi

That's a good question. It does have his name on it, surely.

Bizly

I wouldn't put my name on someone else's underwear. That's all I'm saying.

[laughter]

Bizly

If I write my name on it, that shit's mine.

Charlie

That's fucking awesome.

Grizzly

Basically, if you have a possession of someone, they get a negative to the save, someone's possessions. If you had a body part, a lock of hair or whatever, it'd be a negative ten to their save.

Charlie

You're telling me if he had something of ours, we'd get a negative to a save? If he had an item, like a wood item, like a wooden item, like a stick.

Condi

Like a stick. Like a wooden stick.

[laughter]

Grizzly

That would be a negative four.

Charlie

Dude, Bizly's face right. You just took so many L's in a row. That's brutal.

Grizzly

So you hand Celestine the compass?

Condi

Yeah, we reach into the briefcase of holding and pull out for the first time in 50 episodes, the compass.

Bizly

I'll look at it for a second before I-

Grizzly

Her eyes widen once you pull it out.

Celestine

This belongs to the Niklaus?

Jay

It was made by him, at least.

Celestine

Made by him?

Grizzly

This Niklaus is very powerful.

Chip

That's reassuring.

Grizzly

So do you hand it to her or you just hold it?

Bizly

I'm holding it for a second, not giving it to her.

Charlie

God, this is why we didn't take it out of the fucking briefcase.

[laughter]

Condi

My precious!

Charlie

Time!

Bizly

I'm definitely looking at it for a while.

Charlie

God damn it.

Bizly

I'm thinking about something, about something I want. I'd want to know where Gillion is.

Grizzly

Do you have the compass open?

Bizly

I'd open it, yeah.

Jay

Chip-

Bizly

I don't move as you say that. I'm just fixed on it.

Grizzly

I got to remember what the save is.

Charlie

There was a save? What's the save for? What's about to happen to our boy?

Bizly

I don't remember a save.

Charlie

I don't remember there being a save, but is there a save?

Grizzly

I feel like I was almost positive that when you use the compass, you have to make a saving throw.

Charlie

Or what?

Grizzly

You only used it once, right?

Charlie

We all have just glanced at it, basically.

Bizly

Yeah.

Condi

Yeah.

Grizzly

When you first found it in the tomb, You only used it once and never again?

Charlie

Yeah, we gave it to Ollie, and we saw what happened, and then it went in the briefcase forever.

Grizzly

You gave it to Ollie. Okay, this is why you haven't made the save. So now you have to make a save when you use it.

Charlie

Oh, fuck.

Condi

Oh, golly good. Jolly G. Oh, fuck.

Grizzly

I was remembering rolling for Ollie.

Charlie

Oh, God.

Bizly

Okay. Wisdom save? I have a plus zero.

Grizzly

So make a wisdom save.

Charlie

Oh, Jesus fuck, man. What is...Are you going to get big as hell?

Condi

He's going to get old.

Charlie

I'm so nervous.

Bizly

Natural 20, though. For sure. I'm chilling.

Charlie

Oh my god.

Grizzly

So here's what it feels like. You pass the save. Nothing happens to you, but this compass feels right in your hands. Like it belongs to you, like it was made for you to use, and you don't want to let it go. But you notice that the compass is spinning around as if the magnetic poles that a normal compass uses or whatever, however compasses work, are too erratic. And you get the sense that you're on a different plane than where Gillion might be. There's no way to locate him.

Bizly

All right. Flip it closed quickly and hand it over.

Grizzly

You have a natural 20, so you're fine. But you do feel a little bit of possession ship now, ownership to this compass, and you definitely want it back.

Celestine

She takes it from you.

Grizzly

She holds it up and she says,

Celestine

Mirror, can you find this Niklaus?

Grizzly

He looks like he raises an eyebrow like the no bitches eyebrow.

Charlie

Dude.

Grizzly

He's like,

Mirror

If he'll let me.

Grizzly

Then scrying spell begins to take effect again. It swirls inside the mirror.

Bizly

If you scry on somebody powerful. Do they know you've scried on them?

Charlie

I feel like it's very much scary movie rules where they look, they're going to look at us.

Condi

They're going to look right at the camera.

Charlie

You know what I mean? I feel like It's very much that's what we're looking for.

Grizzly

You're about to find out. You're about to find out.

Bizly

As he rolls a save plus one billion.

Grizzly

All right. Yeah, the save, the save, the save. It's just going to be minus four. Plus one billion, of course. I'm joking. I'm joking.

Charlie

Dude, I wonder what Niklaus does in his downtime. What are we about to see? Can you imagine he's just grinding out the battle pass?

[laughter]

Grizzly

So you see Niklaus and behind him, this house that says Kame house on it.

[laughter]

Condi

That could have been two things. It could have been a one of two things.

Bizly

Kame house?

Condi

It sounds like Commie House. Like commie, like communism.

Grizzly

Niklaus is making a deal with Goku.

Bizly

With the Russians!

[laughter]

Bizly

With Russian Goku.

Goobleck

Oh, no. They're going to add Niklaus Hendrix to Fortnite, quick!

Jay

We had to stop him.

Grizzly

Funnily enough, an image begins to come through, and we watch as this camera is coming down from the sky like a bird flying in.

Jay

You have really amazing cinematography, Mirror.

Mirror

Thank you.

Grizzly

At first, you see the city, ran by water, very familiar. You see Liquidis in the background.

Condi

That's where we just were, what??

Grizzly

And then you come right on the top of this crow's nest of the this ship, and you see this figure in this long black overcoat sitting in the crow's nest, feet propped up in the top, just sitting there, fiddling with something. As the camera wraps around to finally see the face, you see right behind him your Jolly Roger flag of your ship.

Condi

Yeah, I fucking knew it. I fucking, this piece of shit.

Charlie

Yeah.

Grizzly

And then you see him look up as if he's looking directly at the bird.

Charlie

There it is!

Grizzly

And he smirks and then does a little wave with the fingers and then snaps and everything, the scrying stops.

Chip

Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait. No-

Jay

He's on our ship. God, do you think everybody's okay? We got to...

Chip

Jay, everybody's on that ship.

Jay

They're in town. They're in the city.

Grizzly

You could tell the ship was still docked. Yeah, somewhere.

Condi

Is it fixed? Did we get it fixed? Is it fixed now?

Grizzly

You only saw the top of it. But just because I'm pretty sure the mast got destroyed or whatever, it does look repaired.

Condi

Thank god.

Chip

Well, everybody is near the ship.

Goobleck

Celestine, they need to go. Is it okay if we go?

Celestine

I understand. It is fine if you wish to leave now.

Jay

Yeah.

Chip

Yeah, we have to go right now.

Celestine

Is there anything else that I can-

Chip

If you'll just hand that back, we'll…

Grizzly

She just hands it to you.

Celestine

Sure.

Jay

It's okay. They're okay. Can't have made deals with all of them.

Goobleck

Chip, you want to protect your friends?

Chip

Yeah.

Goobleck

Get in me.

[laughter]

Chip

What?

Goobleck

Get in me, quickly.

Bizly

I'm just staring at you blankly like, what the fuck?

Goobleck

Okay, here. Here, we show. We show. Felipe, get in me.

Felipe

I never got my wish.

Goobleck

Oh shit.

[laughter]

Goobleck

Okay, bro, what is your wish?

Grizzly

He walks over and then hops up and he starts to whisper. He has to keep hopping up because she's too tall. He's hopping up, up and down, and he's continuously whispering something in Celestine's ear. And she just smiles.

Bizly

You're going to give him Ashley Tisdale.

Grizzly

She nods. And then he's like,

Felipe

All right, babies, let's get the fuck out of here! All right.

Charlie

Oh, fuck off, dude. Okay. All right. Since they won't know, can I just roll to hear if I hear what he's whispering his wish as? I won't tell them.

Grizzly

You can roll perception.

Charlie

I'm just curious if he just killed my character.

Grizzly

If he just what?

Charlie

If he just killed Gillion.

[laughter]

Grizzly

Yeah, sure.

Charlie

Okay, I got an 18.

Grizzly

An 18, so Felipe definitely rolled higher than you, unfortunately.

Charlie

Okay, cool, cool, cool. It's all good.

Grizzly

All right, so are you guys getting inside of Goobleck, and for what? What's the goal here?

Charlie

Is Felipe getting in me? I'll show them what I'm doing.

Grizzly

Oh, Felipe walks in. He gets in.

Charlie

Okay.

Felipe

Hey, what's up?

Charlie

I'd like to warp Felipe to a different dimension.

Grizzly

What??

Charlie

Listen, every ability I ever did, the doctor did, right? I saw him do all of those those things.

Grizzly

Yeah, he opened up a rift.

Charlie

I also just saw the doctor open up a rift and go to Mana. So as soon as Felipe gets inside me, I want to basically close my mouth and open it, and he's gone.

Grizzly

Okay. So where did you send him?

Charlie

I sent him back to the ship where we just saw.

Grizzly

What you just saw. Okay. [zapping noise] He's gone.

Goobleck

Ooo!

Condi

You can just do that?

Grizzly

It's a temporary character. I'll let anything happen.

Goobleck

We canonize everything. I canonize stuff. The doctor does it. Doctor to canonize his stuff. I do it, crazy. Okay, get in.

Chip

Fuck it.

Bizly

And I go for a running dive.

Grizzly

Oh, my fucking god. Okay, so you guys are going to watch Jay you watch Chip fucking dive into Goobleck. And Felipe disappearing as well. And Goobleck is not holding his stomach open like it's a doorway, I imagine.

Charlie

Yeah. And before Jay leaves, Goobleck looks at Jay.

Goobleck

I have tasted your blood. Remember what I say, you cannot just be free by running. Now get in my tummy.

[laughter]

Jay

I'll take this words to heart.

Condi

And I timidly, I look a little grossed out, step inside of Goobleck, like one foot at a time.

Charlie

Okay. Yeah, you feel something wet grab onto you. It just like, pull you in.

Grizzly

All four of you disappear within Goobleck. Goobleck you're now-

Charlie

It's like the Jimmy Neutron brain blast tunnel. They're all just flying through it. It's this purplish green, like torpedo of goo.

Grizzly

It's so fucking crazy. It's basically like plane walking, essentially. You all just disappear. But Goobleck, what are you doing now? It's just you and Celestine in the mirror here on this teetering disk at the top of the palace of hopes and dreams.

Goobleck

Oh, shit Celestine. I probably should have said that I wasn't coming with them.

Condi

Son of a bitch. I wanted to say words.

Celestine

I see. Where will you be going?

Goobleck

Well, Goobleck realize want to experience more. Want to experience everything. Everywhere.

Charlie

And Goobleck reaches out and like that dragon bit at space-time, like Goobleck stretches his own body. He stretches the fabric of space as it opens into a tunnel. [tunnels opening, almost electric buzzing noise] You see, reflected in it, various refractions of this this oceanic world. There's one of fire. There's one that looks like a city with flying cars overhead.

Bizly

Yes!

Goobleck

There are so many liquids out there. I want to be them all. Goo-bye. Hee-Hoo!

Charlie

And Goobleck just steps back into this tunnel, and you see as his body starts splitting and refracting, and all of them in unison are going [hooo] as they fly off into each of these different dimensions.

Grizzly

Yes, dude!

Charlie

Oh my god, just leaving these trails of ooze behind them.

Grizzly

This insane-

Condi

That's terrifying. That's terrifying.

Grizzly

Scene plays through. As Goobleck is scattered across the multiverse.

Bizly

Goobleck will return on Prime Defenders.

Grizzly

And we just see Celestine standing there alone now. And she smiles as you leave as her hair is blown back by this teleportation rift.

Goobleck

Be free! Determinism for Bitches!

Charlie

The portal just [glomping sound] closes.

Grizzly

And unbeknownst to you guys now, but we watch Celestine looks back at the mirror and brings back Kas, and she says,

Celestine

Maybe you could visit in case they need to make their way back here again. I was quite fond of them. I wish to know what happens with their friend and that Niklaus. And I wish to be there if the one who destroyed my domain begins to destroy theirs.

Grizzly

He gives her a wink.

Kas

As you wish.

Grizzly

And then we just cut over to you guys, [whoosh] falling through these riffs onto your ship. [Kedung, kedung, kedung]

Charlie

Before they fall out on the deck, DM, is it okay if they're going through a Goobleck tunnel, if they have anything they want to say to Goobleck?

Grizzly

Sure, sure, sure.

Charlie

Okay. You just hear in the back of your mind and everywhere in your body,

Goobleck

Hoooo!

Chip

Oh, this feels wrong.

Jay

Holy shit.

Chip

This is a violation.

Condi

Are we separate from one another? Or are we right next to each other?

Charlie

You're right next to each other.

Grizzly

You're right next to each other. I mean, Felipe is actually already out. Felipe, you know within your heart, as soon as he steps inside you, that he loves you, man, to death.

Charlie

I love him, too.

Grizzly

He'll always be your best friend.

Condi

Oh, man.

Charlie

Anyway, I want to be the DM while they're in me.

[laughter]

Jay

Goobleck, you're not coming with us are you?

Goobleck

How did you know, Jay?

Charlie

Eyes form in the walls of the tunnel.

Jay

I don't think you can eat yourself, maybe for one. I also just got that vibe.

Chip

Logistically, it seems hard.

Goobleck

You got me.

Jay

Hey, I'm sorry. We should have treated you a little bit better while you were with us.

Goobleck

Did you not?

Jay

I mean, it's not that we didn't. It's just we were so preoccupied with ourselves that maybe we weren't as considerate about you as we should have been. It was a very tumultuous time for us. But hey, no matter where you go, Goobleck, you're one of us.

Goobleck

And you are one of Goobleck.

Jay

That's terrifying.

Goobleck

Thank you, Jay. You are still the best friends I ever had, even if you weren't actually that good. Thank you for everything. You made me free.

Jay

I shouldn't have said anything.

Goobleck

But I'm so glad you did. Now I can really look back at this experience and understand. Do you have anything you would like to say, Chip?

Chip

Keep on, man. No, I'll miss you, Goobleck. You scared the shit out of me the moment I saw you and never stopped being strange after that. But after a while, it was strange in a cool way. You know what I mean? Does that make sense to you?

Goobleck

No.

Chip

Okay, so it's like, you're cool, I'm cool, we're cool.

Goobleck

Fuck it we're here.

Charlie

The portal opens up and-

Condi

One last word.

Goobleck

Okay, won't let go.

Condi

One last little phrase.

Jay

Goobleck, make me promise.

Goobleck

Make you promise?

Jay

Wait, were you going to say something, Chip? I'm sorry.

Chip

Keep on rocking. You deserve the best, dude.

Jay

Yeah, so Goobleck-

Charlie

All right, all right, fuck it. Chip gets just batted out of the jet stream.

Condi

He did get in before me.

Charlie

You see as Chip just goes spiraling through space-time.

Felipe

I love you, Goobleck.

Goobleck

I love you, too, Felipe.

Jay

Goobleck, make me a promise, hey.

Goobleck

Okay.

Jay

No matter where you go, you fuck shit up. You be the goddamn best, whatever the fuck you are. Because you're a Riptide pirate, okay?

Goobleck

Okay.

Chip

Best wishes.

Goobleck

Hee-hoo!

Jay

You can pop me out now. Launch me out into a ship.

Goobleck

I don't know. I was trying to think if I had anything else dramatic to say. We could just...

Grizzly

Ahhhhh, boosh!

Goobleck

We could just fall forever. Okay.

[laughter]

Grizzly

All right. All of you hit the deck. Literally, you get fucking ejected out of the air right onto the deck of your ship as it sways and rocks here at the docks right back in the city of Liquidis, the Hydropolis. Welcome home.

Bizly

I crash into the fucking deck. I'm like, laying on the ground.

Grizzly

You see that bright blue sky.

Chip

Oh, the sky.

Grizzly

That you haven't seen in what feels like forever. And then it hits you. How long has it been?

Condi

Oh, god. Here we go.

Charlie

Oh, boy.

Bizly

I just keep laying on the ground.

Condi

Is there anybody around on the ship?

Grizzly

Nope, not that you can tell. As soon as you land, nobody comes to greet you.

Charlie

Oh, boy.

Condi

Shit. I stand up.

Jay

Niklaus!

Chip

Hey!

Grizzly

You just yell it out?

Chip

He's at the crow's nest.

Bizly

I run straight up. Can I do the Assassin's Creed thing where you walk up to the little rope and cut it and I go…[sound of a rope being pulled upwards]

Grizzly

Yeah, you just messed up one of the ship ropes, it's fine.

Bizly

Yeah, whatever. I'll repair it later.

Grizzly

Yeah, you do that. You do that, okay.

Bizly

I get up there.

Grizzly

You got sliding up.

Bizly

I'm looking around.

Grizzly

You land right on the crow's nest. You expect to see him there, but he's not.

Chip

He's not up here, Jay.

Jay

Fuck.

Chip

God damn it. Do you see Ollie anywhere? Alphonze?

Jay

No, I didn't see anybody.

Grizzly

Make a perception check Chip with advantage from the crow's nest. That's how it works. That's how the crow's nest works.

Bizly

With advantage.

Grizzly

It's like a little spy glass up there.

Bizly

I got an 18.

Grizzly

With an 18, you're looking around and you're spying around the city. You're in the port side of the city where repairs and other things happen. There's multiple ships. It's like a shipyard, but not quite...not broken ships. It's more just like, this ship is done. It's like you just walked into the auto zone part of the city and you're in the parking lot where your ship is done. You look around and you don't see anyone you recognize. You don't see Niklaus, but you do see an overwhelming amount of people holding the same glass filled with the same liquid, this bright green liquid.

Bizly

Where?

Grizzly

All around the city.

Bizly

Are they-

Grizzly

Everywhere you look.

Bizly

Are they in a crowd, or like, specifically?

Grizzly

No, just people walking around enjoying this nice refreshing drink that everybody seems to have right now.

Grizzly

[excitedly] I know what it is!

Bizly

The limonade!

Charlie

Yes! Yes!

Chip

Oh, my god. They fucking did it.

Jay

What is it?

Bizly

I poke my head over and I look-

Jay

Oh, my god. It's our fucking lime empire.

Bizly

I look over and I go,

Chip

Limonade.

Jay

No, you're kidding.

Chip

I'm so fucking serious right now. It is not even funny. Everybody has it. Like, literally everyone.

Condi

I forgot about this completely.

[laughter]

Bizly

I want to grab onto another rope and just...I'm fucking up the ship at this point, flip over and just come down and land on the deck.

Chip

But no sign of the crew.

Jay

Well, all we had to do is follow the little limonade.

Chip

Fuck, fuck. What if he's got him, Jay?

Jay

No, there's no way. I think he's just toying with us, as he always does. Chip, are you okay, man?

Chip

Yeah, I'm fine.

Condi

I'm going to take that face value for now.

Jay

Okay, then let's go find our crew.

Bizly

I'd like to-

Grizzly

All right, so-

Charlie

This is the greatest plot twist of all time.

Grizzly

You'd like to what? Go ahead.

Bizly

I'd like to first assess how long it's been. If I can find a newspaper as I'm walking by, maybe just grab it out of somebody's hand.

Charlie

The paper boy. The paper boy we saw when we first got here.

Grizzly

There wasn't a paper boy here. That's Edison Kingdom.

Charlie

Fuck.

Bizly

As I'm walking by, I want to walk by a person, tap them on the shoulder, and as he turns around, grab the newspaper out of his hand from the other side. Just sneakily.

Random man NPC

What was that?

Grizzly

Starts walking. [laughs] Yeah, you look at a newspaper. I mean, it's not like you've ever known what day it is, period, since we've never asked.

[laughter]

Bizly

But I probably have an idea of how long it would have been.

Charlie

That's the biggest fuck you ever. Oh, my god, I love it.

Grizzly

Just from reading through this newspaper, it's actually pretty difficult to discern how long it's been cause you don't know what day you left.

Condi

DM, can I roll a history check to see what day it was when we left? Surely, they said something about the day when the eclipse was happening. What day it was.

Felipe

Oh yeah, that was a Friday.

Jay

What day? What day? What was the date?

Felipe

Fuck. The DM hasn't decided what the months are called yet. So let's just say it's Augoost right now. Augoost the third. That Friday. Wait, no. The fifth. Augoost the fifth. That Friday.

Condi

Okay, what day does it say on the paper?

Grizzly

You're looking through the paper?

Condi

Yes.

Grizzly

It is-

Charlie

So nervous, guys. So nervous. We are really good at disappearing for weeks at a time anyway, though, so I feel like there's a little bit of a grace period.

Condi

That's true.

Grizzly

You're frantically looking through the newspaper. It is now Augoost the 12th. It's been a week.

Bizly

Oh.

Condi

Oh, okay.

Bizly

I thought it was like six months.

Charlie

Oh my god, I thought it was going to be a year.

Condi

Or so we think, maybe it's been exactly a year in one week.

Bizly

Or maybe this guy was holding an old newspaper.

Grizzly

Old newspaper. Yeah, exactly. That's what I just rolled for on whether or not his newspaper paper was current or not.

Jay

Hey, excuse me. Where did you get that limonade from?

Random man NPC

Yes, dearie. Of course. This limonade right here?

Jay

Yeah.

Random man NPC

You want to go to the central part of the city in town square?

Jay

Central part of the city. Town square.

Random man NPC

Yeah, go to the city square.

Jay

Okay, thank you.

Random man NPC

They got this big fucking stand. They're heading them out left and right. It's the best goddamn thing I've ever tasted. This crazy automaton man and this little kid and this very scary bear man. They're just handing this shit out been doing it for the last two weeks.

Jay

Wait, they're charging for it, right?

Chip

Two weeks?

Jay

Wait, they've been charging for it, right?

Random man NPC

Damn right. This was one gold piece.

Chip

Two weeks?

Random man NPC

It's been marked up from last week. It was only a silver, but the demand is high. I get it. I'm a businessman myself. Would you like to buy some of my shoes?

Jay

No.

Chip

No, man.

Grizzly

Yeah, they're gone awful. They're hung around his neck. Old beard, man.

Chip

Can I just...

Bizly

And I take the limonade out of his hand and I go to take a sip?

Random man NPC

Hey, my limonade! That was one gold. You fucking asshole. You better pay for that. Give me my gold back.

Condi

Surely it's good if it's selling in droves.

Grizzly

Like a bee drinking sweet nectar.

Charlie

[gasps] Oh, my god.

Grizzly

This is the tastiest thing you've ever had.

[Bizly finds a cup and starts drinking fervently from it]

Random man NPC

Hey, god these fucking kids these days. You're a pirate, ain't you?

Chip

[panting] Oh my God, that's so fucking good.

Random man NPC

You're a pirate. You steal for me. The government was right. You're a bunch of hooligans. Give me my goddamn limonade. Ow my back! Ow my hip.

Chip

Here, I'm so sorry.

Bizly

I chug the whole thing in front of him.

Random man NPC

You'll rue this day!

Chip

Hey, look, I'm so sorry about that. It's just so good. Here, here's a gold piece.

Bizly

And I want to hand him a gold piece, and I want to steal his coin purse while I hand it to him.

Grizzly

Sleight of hand, Chip.

Condi

You're awful.

Charlie

You suck, dude.

Bizly

I'm distracting him as well. Do I get an advantage? I don't need advantage, honestly. I'm fucking chill.

Grizzly

No advantage.

Condi

[laughs] Natural one.

Bizly

Nah, that's okay because I have a plus 11. That's 25.

Grizzly

He rolled a six. You had him the gold coin, you snatched that purse really easily, and he says,

Random man NPC

Well, thank you kindly. The generation of these days-

Bizly

I walk away.

Random man NPC

-has really started to shape up to be good people. All right. Have a good day.

Jay

Have a good day.

Grizzly

You start walking away. You get about 60 feet.

Random man NPC

God damn it!

[laughter]

Grizzly

All right. You guys start heading to... Felipe knows the way because Felipe, obviously, is a tour guide.

Condi

He's a tour guide. We're like in his town.

Bizly

We're probably running through the city at this point.

Condi

Yeah.

Grizzly

Yeah, you are. [whoosing]

Condi

We knock over a lot of people's limonades.

Grizzly

Passing tons and tons and tons of faces here. You get into the city square and you see that where it would be different variety of market stalls, there is this huge, almost building-size market stall set up right in the center of this almost pentagon square at the very back wall. And there's two smaller carts that are attached to it. And they both have this stitched up cloth symbol of a flag, almost. It's a lime mixed with a lemon, and it's got a smiley face on it. It looks a little haphazardly done, but you can tell it was put together with love. And you see there is this crowd of people just all lined up at this one stand, driving other places nearby out of fucking business as these people are all here to get this refreshing summer drink in Liquidis. It's a crowd roaring as they're just talking and waiting, and you hear,

Ollie

All right, next.

Grizzly

As someone gets tossed. You can't see who tosses it because they're too short, but someone from the crowd gets tossed up, and then as it gets tossed up, this little fucking almost like a swing. It's also pulling this swing and swings them up out of the crowd so they can get out of the line. Does that make sense?

Condi

I'm going to push through the crowd.

Bizly

I'm going to push up off of Jay and start stepping on heads and shoulders.

Limoade Customer

Oh, dear. They're cutting the line.

Chip

Ollie!

Limoade Customer

Somebody call security. They're cutting.

Condi

And then you hear,

Gryffon

Who's cutting?

[laughter]

Charlie

He finally found his calling. Oh, my god!

Condi

He's security.

Grizzly

You don't have to roll for it. You basically hop heads and push through the crowd as fast as you can. These are all just normal people. It's easy enough. And once you get to the front, you see almost in a summer tank in shorts at the moment with this big fucking metal gun arm. As soon as you get to the front, you hear,

Gryffon

There was cutting.

Grizzly

And right in front of you, standing towering above you, you see Gryffon right in front of the stand. What do you say?

Chip

Gryffon, hey, man.

Grizzly

Points his gun at your face. [gun cocking sound]

Bizly

I just freeze.

Jay

Oh, Gryffon. Oh, my god it's been...where's Ollie? Where's Alphonze?

Bizly

I point at the gun at my head.

[laughter]

Jay

Put that down, Gryffon you...

Grizzly

As soon as you say 'Where's Ollie', you look to the left and there's just this small kid at the front throwing drinks behind his back at people, and then people are throwing their gold into this big, giant pot. And behind the counter, you see Alphonze moving his robotic arms at this extreme speed, crushing lemons and limes into a barrel and filling it with glass, filling it with water from Liquidis that is specially made and processed through the fucking city. And then he's putting it on the table, handing it to Ollie. They have this fucking line, this line of limonade.

Charlie

There's so much better without us.

[laughter]

Grizzly

They're just shooting it behind them and people are grabbing it.

Condi

A tear fills Jay's eye.

Jay

I'm so proud.

Grizzly

And after that, Gryffon puts his gun down, raises an eyebrow, takes the drag from the cigar, pulls it out and says,

Gryffon

I almost don't even recognize you.

Jay

[tearfully] You guys did so good.

Grizzly

Jay's crying.

Bizly

I want to push past him if I can and get to Ollie.

Grizzly

Yeah, you run up to Ollie who is still like, not only is he giving drinks to people, he's hoisting people up onto the swing that they've built that helps people get out of the crowd. They're insane.

Bizly

Because he's strong as fuck.

Condi

Oh, he's got the fucking belt.

Grizzly

Because he has the belt of Mountain Giant Strength, yeah.

Charlie

That's awesome.

Bizly

I run up just next to him and I stand there for a second.

Chip

Ollie?

Ollie

No, wait your turn. No cutting the-

Chip

Ollie.

Ollie

Chip?

Grizzly

He stops for a second. He looks at you, up at you. His face begins to scrunch up.

Ollie

Where did you gooooo?

Bizly

I run up and I just squeeze him so fucking tight.

Grizzly

Yeah, he jumps up, of course. And when he squeezing you, your rib cage almost snaps because he's so strong. And you guys hug for a second. You hear from behind the counter.

Alphonze

Nice to see you again, captains.

Jay

How's the business?

Grizzly

Still making his glass. They're starting to pile up. He lets go of you.

Ollie

Oh, one sec. I got to keep going.

Grizzly

And he starts doing the drinks again, passing them.

Chip

So you've been pretty busy without us.

Gryffon

You're lucky we took an oath or I would have left.

Chip

It seemed to work out for you.

Gryffon

We've made about 50,000 gold.

Condi

Jesus!

[laughter]

Condi

Did you roll for this? Did you roll for this behind the scenes?

Grizzly

Yeah.

Condi

What did you roll? Can I know?

Grizzly

You don't need to know.

Condi

Oh, man.

Chip

You what?

Gryffon

It was enough to cover the ship. Which should be done now.

Chip

[gobsmacked] You...how...what?

Ollie

Yeah, once we figured out to combine the water from the city, we put it with the lime and the lemos, I was the one spearheading the ingredients here. I'm the master chef. Don't tell anybody. Earl would be so fucking proud of me.

Grizzly

And he's tossing them behind him still.

Chip

Yeah, he would.

Ollie

It was smooth sailing once people started trying it. Word of mouth is a crazy thing. We've made more money than you're wanted for.

Jay

Word of mouth is a crazy thing.

Condi

[he looks directly at his webcam] I look directly in the camera.

[laughter]

Grizzly

And that's why you should tell all your friends about the podcast, Just Roll With It.

Bizly

Tell your friends, tell your friends, tell your friends, tell your friends, tell your friends.

Gryffon

Fortunately, it hasn't been boring. A lot of people want to steal from us. It doesn't really work out, but at least it's fun.

Jay

Yeah, I feel like security is the best position you could have gotten in our limonade empire.

Gryffon

We should get out of this soon, though, because I hear we're going to get approached by political figures.

Jay

Oh, yeah. I don't want to do nothing to do with politics. Fuck that.

Gryffon

This limonade stand isn't really good for city business. We might get arrested.

Jay

Or what if we started lobbying?

Grizzly

Ollie is still spraying off a bunch of different ideas and ingredients for the business. Lobbying, what the fuck is that?

Charlie

It means he's going to take so much power. He's going to bring it to the government and basically copyright limeade or lemonade or some fucking bullshit.

Condi

I'm basically going to pay the government to make laws that are in favor of this.

Charlie

This is the first step of monopolizing drinks.

Gryffon

You can do whatever you want, but I still recommend we leave.

Jay

No, I don't want to actually...this was just something for you guys to do while we were gone.

Alphonze

Good captains, I am running out of the energy.

Ollie

Yeah, Alphonze has been making drinks for two weeks straight.

Jay

What?

Chip

Let's get back to the ship then, I think.

Jay

Yeah, let's shut her down.

Ollie

But we have so many customers still.

Chip

Maybe you guys can finish up and...come catch up.

Felipe

Wait, I think I know a guy.

Grizzly

He walks off into the crowd and then comes back.

Felipe

All right, got it covered. Basically, what we're going to do is we're going to set up, we're going to have somebody run the shop here, and then they're going to have to deal with the politics and see what goes on. And then they'll just forward us the money, every month, because we get a cut.

Jay

I was just going to sell the business to somebody else and then...

Felipe

Oh, yeah, sure. How much you want to sell it for?

Jay

I don't know. They made 50,000 in two weeks?

Chip

50,000 in two weeks, yeah, that's like-

Jay

100,000, maybe.

Felipe

100,000?

Charlie

That is a steal, bro. [crosstalk 00:59:19] That's a steal.

Condi

[crosstalk 00:59:21] That's a steal.

Jay

We're offloading this so...

Felipe

Guys, I'll tell you right now, I'm pretty sure nobody in this city has that much money.

Jay

Okay, then maybe somebody else will run up. Yeah, okay. Your idea then Felipe.

Felipe

All right, so someone's going to run it for us. Okay, bet. All right, he's my guy. Don't worry about it. We call him Donkey, but he's not an ass. You know what I mean?

Jay

Okay, so our business is dead.

[laughter]

Chip

I'm sure he's got it handled.

Grizzly

Okay, so what are you guys doing?

Bizly

I'll walk out and head back to the ship.

Grizzly

So you're going to try to gather this crew and head back to your ship now?

Condi

He'll choose to stay for the day.

Bizly

I'm not necessarily rallying the troops or anything. I'm just walking back. They look like a well-oiled machine right now, yeah?

Grizzly

Mmmh.

Condi

I'll follow Chip. I'll notice he's leaving.

Jay

Hey, meet us back at the ship later, okay?

Ollie

Okay, see you tonight.

Jay

See you tonight.

Condi

And I pushed my way out of the crowd again.

Gryffon

Hey, you better not be leaving for two weeks again.

Jay

No, we're going to be on the ship. We're going to go pirate again, which is what you signed up for, I think.

Gryffon

I will kill you. I swear. This is a one-time deal.

Condi

I give Gryffon a smile.

Gryffon

Next time this happens, I'm leaving, and I'm turning you in.

Jay

Next time, it's going to be cookies!

Grizzly

He's threatening to go back to being a bounty hunter, if you guys do this to him again. So you guys head back to the ship by yourselves, I assume. For the rest of the day, they're going to finish up running their business until people stop coming, and then they'll meet you back at the ship at night.

Bizly

Okay.

Grizzly

What's your goal?

Bizly

I'm just walking off back to the ship, but I'll take the long way, just looking around at Liquidis.

Condi

I'd probably just fall silently behind Chip.

Grizzly

Beautiful city. I mean, as you walk, you reflect on this city, your time with Ichabod, and then the Sun City, and the Sun temple, and the murals with Gillion, and Felipe bursting the flames, and jumping into a rift into the Feywild and all the shenanigans that happened in the carnival, the deck, Bellstrom, the chaos, the displacer beast, maybe the things you didn't find or forgot about, the things that you did, and Pretzel at your hip, Jay. And eventually, you guys make it back to the ship. That's just on the docks there.

Bizly

I'll go into the ship. I want to go down to the living quarters and just look at my bed, I guess. Just see if everything is where it was, as it was. Maybe start repairing some of the ship.

Grizzly

The ship's been fully repaired. Nothing about your bedroom has been changed. I mean, there's a little bit of condensation on the walls where Gillion's barrel has evaporated over time slightly due to the heat.

Bizly

There was an engraving I made on the side of the ship that said Millennium Chipper.

Grizzly

Yeah, it'll still be there.

Bizly

I'd like to go and try and buff that out.

Condi

Oh.

Charlie

What?

Grizzly

I'd say you could, yeah.

Bizly

I'll just be down there with some sandpaper.

Grizzly

You're chipping away at it.

Condi

Damn, he's chipping away at it. Oh, man.

Jay

Hey, Chip, what are you doing?

Chip

Nothing, just getting some scratches out of the ship.

Jay

[confused] That's the Millennium chipper that you carved.

Chip

Yeah, well.

Jay

[hesitantly] Are you sure?

Chip

This isn't really the Millennium Chipper, is it, Jay?

Jay

Chip, are you sure everything's all right? I've been thinking...

Chip

Jay, you saw them. You saw them in there.

Jay

Uh huh.

Chip

They were thriving. They were so much better off. We leave for two weeks and...

Jay

Well, our crew is very capable. We only choose the best. And they wouldn't have done this if not for us giving the directive. You got the first limes.

Chip

I don't know. I just...

Jay

Do you really blame yourself everything that happened?

Chip

[upset] Of course I do! Jay, how couldn't I?

Jay

I mean, You didn't know, Chip.

Chip

Yeah, I didn't know. I never fucking know.

Jay

I've been thinking about what to say to you since we sat down in that laboratory, Chip and you said that you felt like it was your fault. My first instinct was to tell you to suck it up. It's not always about you, but that's selfish of me. Just because I'm hurting, too, doesn't mean that you can't be. So if you're going to take fault for this, then maybe you should take fault for other things, too. It's your fault that I'm not stuck in a life that I didn't want for myself, that I didn't have the courage to break out of. It's your fault that I can see the world the way I do, just meet different people, have this lovely crew, and the best friends I could ever ask for. It's your fault you still trust me, even though I betrayed you back in the prison. It's your fault that I can call myself a Riptide pirate, proudly.

Chip

[angirly] Just stop. Okay? Stop.

Jay

No. Gillion feels the way. I'm sure Gillion feels the same way.

Chip

Well, Gillion's not here.

Jay

Yeah? And you know what? Gillion might not be here, but I'm sure he's out there still fucking shit up. Because that's what Gillion would be doing right now. Okay? And we might not have found him back in the Feywild, sure. But we will find him, okay? Because that's what Riptide pirates would do.

Chip

[dejected] Maybe I'm not a Riptide pirate.

Jay

What do you mean?

Chip

Do you remember what you said to me? How you were using me from the beginning? Well, maybe I was using you too. Since day one, I've just been using all of you to try and recreate something that's gone, pretending I could I could still have that.

Jay

Chip, I-

Chip

But I can't! [getting chocked up] Look, I'm not the pirate that Arlin wanted me to be. I'm not the hero that Gillion wants me to be. And I'm not the friend you want me to be. I never even asked you about your sister. I never even asked you about your dad after I just...I'm just another bastard who never should have existed.

Condi

Can I hug Chip?

Bizly

I back away.

Jay

No, come on, man.

Chip

Look, we're going to find Gillion. We're going to take Ollie home, and then I'm done. I'm not this. I'm not strong enough for this. I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

Bizly

They walk away.

Condi

Jay just stands there and looks shell-shocked for a couple of minutes. And after a couple of minutes, she'd like, sigh a little bit, and she would look down to where he was standing the wood and pull out a little knife and retrace in Millennium Chipper.

Jay

I know you don't mean it.

Condi

That's all.

Bizly

I am not walking in any direction in particular. I'm just walking.

Grizzly

Did you leave the ship?

Chip

Yes.

Grizzly

So Jay, you take some time to recarve in Millennium from Shipper. And then from above you, you would hear

Niklaus

Quite the fine handiwork.

Condi

I'd recognize this as Niklaus, right? The king character.

Grizzly

You haven't met him.

Condi

Oh, right. I wouldn't.

Grizzly

But when you look up, head over the railing, you see that obsidian skinned teethling that you've never seen before, but heard so much about.

Charlie

Right next to where he is, too, there's a big poster that says, Do not trust this man. It's like a big red 'X' in front of it.

[laughter]

Grizzly

Yeah. Right above his head, you see one of the 'Say No to Niklaus' posters that Gillion made.

Charlie

That's awesome.

Grizzly

It's attached to the mast. But as soon as you hear his voice, not only do you hear it, but you also hear the sounds of the ocean fade away and the rockiness of the boat stop, and you just finish carving out the 'R' in Chipper.

Condi

I give a sly grand as I look back to him.

Jay

I knew you'd show up.

Niklaus

I always come when I'm needed. Care to join me on the deck?

Grizzly

He reaches out of hand.

Condi

She doesn't take it. She breathes in deeply, and breathes out, and walks ahead of him to the deck.

Grizzly

Yeah, I mean, you guys would have to be... You'd have to be almost hanging over the deck here to get this.

Condi

Oh, yeah.

Grizzly

And as you get onto the deck, he's standing there and he's wearing more of a pirate-esque outfit over the usual garde that I describe. Still purple, but the The coat is black and gold, very ornate, very fancy, very well tailored. It's the same coat that you saw he was wearing in the scrying in the mirror. And you can now tell as soon as you get onto the ship that within where the two of you are standing, time is not moving. You look off into the distance and you see no sign of Chip, no sign of anybody. This entire space is quiet and unmoving to the point where you think you could step off the ship and walk on the water. And he's got a quizzical, charming smirk on his face.

Niklaus

A pleasure to finally meet you.

Jay

I assure you the pleasure is all mine.

Niklaus

I heard the whole thing, not meaning to ease drop. Quite sad, truly. Feel for you and Chip. My sympathies.

Jay

Well, then you already know what I want.

Niklaus

So quick. Yes, I have an inkling to what you and your friends will desire. But I assume you've heard how this works. You want something. There's a trade, a deal.

Condi

Jake is a little smirk.

Niklaus

And you want to make that so quickly without hesitation.

Jay

No, actually, I don't want to make it so quickly. I actually think it's about time after everything that you gave us answers. If you're going to have all three of us marionetted around your fingers, then we deserve answers.

Niklaus

I am so fond of you. I knew you were intelligent and that speaking to you wouldn't be easy. You look right past the people you meet through all of their façade. I'm game. Ask away. I love talking about myself.

Jay

Of course you do. What is it that you're going to have Gillion do?

Niklaus

A favor, as agreed upon.

Jay

Of what nature?

Niklaus

Just-

Jay

Because I'll be frank with you, Chip made a deal with you that he wouldn't interfere with this favor. But if this favor is something If I were to go against Gillion's beliefs or who he is, then I will not be making this deal today. I'll find him myself.

Niklaus

No, you won't, Jay. You won't find him. I promise you that. Not without my help, of course, you see, because, well, I've already found him. And so I believe a deal is all you have to gain what you desire.

Jay

But what about what you desire? You need him back, too. I mean, to do the favor.

Niklaus

Do you want me to answer that question first or the one that you asked beforehand? I feel like you're getting a little ahead of yourself.

Jay

Probably just take him in order.

Niklaus

Gillion's favor. Well, honestly, I haven't decided. I think it'll just come to me in the moment.

Jay

That's funny.

Niklaus

I feel like he's destined for something, but he'll just need that little push when he has to make the choice. And Chip not interfering, I mean, I love a mind game. Who knows what it could be. But you've judged me so presumptuously, and you've only heard so little.

Jay

Well, from my perspective, Niklaus, everywhere you go, bad things happen. Every time you are somehow just linked to everything that goes wrong. These people with their inky eyes.

Niklaus

And Jay, are you certain that's my fault? Are you certain the bad things weren't already there before I arrived? Are you absolutely certain?

Jay

And would you defend yourself from that accusation?

Niklaus

The outcome of the discussions I have with people who crossed my path are truthfully none of my concern. People want help. I give. And in return, I get what I'm owed. I'm sure Gillion told you. I mean, the greedier the deal.

Jay

What was the deal that you made with the king of Loffinlot? Mayor?

Jay

Mayor, mayor.

Grizzly

Didn't he tell Gillion?

Condi

Did he? I don't remember what-

Charlie

He told Gillion, yeah.

Condi

Not me. All I know is that he basically died choking on goop.

Grizzly

The mayor isn't dead.

Condi

Oh, yeah. He got fucked up either way.

Grizzly

But he almost dead. Gillion saved his life and everyone else's life. Quite, the ask.

Niklaus

You're still curious about the mayor of Loffinlot?

Niklaus

That small old town and that small-

Jay

Or Malice.

Niklaus

Forgotten Island?

Jay

The Isle of Desire. That place was basically built by you. From what I understand. Why do they end up the way they do with this [chuckles] to put it not lightly, goop filling every orifice on their face?

Niklaus

You visited Desire Island?

Jay

I'm surprised he didn't know.

Niklaus

How was it? Did you enjoy your time?

Jay

Well, after we finished up there, it was definitely a lot better than how it started. I wrote a single there with Gillion and Chip. Actually, it was really awesome.

Niklaus

I'd have to hear it sometime.

Jay

Yeah, it's on Shipify.

Grizzly

Shipify?

[laughter]

Niklaus

So with the mayor. If I remember correctly, his town was dying, and people were unhappy. His daughter was rebellious, and with someone un-renowned, if you will, according to the mayor's perspective, a nobody. And so he wanted the tides to turn in his favor. He was desperate.

Jay

And what did you get out of it?

Niklaus

Well, I got to meet you three. Right time, right place. And I told him, if he wanted all this, the cost was the one thing he valued the most. And now you would think, this is the interesting part of the story, Jay, you would think that would be his own daughter. But you know what the mayor valued the most? Over all things, he valued himself, his own survival, his own life, his own pride, his own, just him. And so that's why the mayor, when the curse was to be broken, he was not overwhelmed by his own greed. Having Abigail was just a red herring to make him think that that's what he lost. It's very interesting.

Jay

What's your angle? Are you supposed to be some great, evil, magical person? Do you genuinely want to help people. What are you? I don't get it.

Niklaus

At the moment, I'm whichever one you want me to be. And the outcome of this conversation, whether or not you're willing to come to a compromise, will determine, and I mean quite literally, if you get your friend back. Do I need him and his favor? No, not really. But if I did-

Condi

Can I insight check?

Grizzly

Sure.

Condi

Natural 20.

Grizzly

Natural 20?

Charlie

Holy shit.

Grizzly

Which part are you insight checking?

Condi

That he doesn't need him.

Grizzly

You can tell that when he says he doesn't need him, what he means is he doesn't need him to be with you three, like you two.

Condi

Jay turns around, puts her hand on her head, and she's like [chuckles] and slams both her hands down on the railing of the deck, and looks out towards whatever the fuck is in the direction, probably towards the waterfall.

Grizzly

Nothing moves. It's just this frozen water, and even the waterfalls, the perimeter of the city. All still. Everything's still.

Condi

I'd be looking towards the waterfall, just like it's motionless.

Jay

Okay. Then what is it you want in return from me? For Gillion. Because you know what? You're right. Maybe E\even though you don't need him, we do. And things are falling apart around here without him, and I would like to have him back.

Condi

I'm not making eye contact with him at all right now. I'm just talking out.

Grizzly

No, I mean, he walks and meets your position on the railing, just side to side, not looking at you either, but looking out. And he says,

Niklaus

A friendship like that is this world's greatest treasure. I know why you would want it back so badly. I've done great things for my friends as well. Long time ago, sacrifices. What I want from you, Jay, is this deal. One day in the future, I don't know when. Neither will you. But you're going to hear a name, and that name will be followed by a command. When you hear these two things, the nature of our deal will begin. And unfortunately, whatever it is, you won't be able to say no. That feels about equal to having such an important person back to you. After all, it was quite the task to locate and retrieve him. So such vagueness, I feel, is fair.

Condi

Jay closes her eyes. You can just hear her breath still steady as she's thinking about it.

Niklaus

And I know you're smart, smart girl, smart woman, and you're strong. And with time, you may heal without Gillion. But with this deal, you get with your desire, and you won't have to.

Jay

Is it possible to make a small amendment to the deal.

Niklaus

I'm willing to lend an ear.

Jay

Whatever this name or command may be, as long as it doesn't harm Chip or Gillion.

Niklaus

I promise. You have my word.

Condi

Jay turns around at this point, both hands back on it. And slowly, she's going to reach her hand out to shake. And she's going to stare Niklaus in his eyes and say,

Jay

You're a real bitch. You know that?

Grizzly

Rather than shaking your hand, he reaches inside his coat and pulls out the Luxbris Pearl.

Condi

Of course.

Charlie

What?

Condi

Of course. That's the dungeon.

Charlie

[pushing away from his desk and yelling] Where's Dugon?? No!

[laughter]

Grizzly

He puts it in your hands.

Charlie

No!

Grizzly

And when by the Pearl touching his hand in your hand, you feel [zipping sound] the seal of your deal with Niklaus. And on the back left of your shoulder or right of your shoulder, sorry, like the back, you can feel...it doesn't hurt. It's just that [ssssss] searing of a crescent moon. And he says,

Niklaus

Getting this from a sea serpent, and quite the hungry and intelligent one as Dugon, was not easy. And to be honest, Jay, without me, I don't think he would have ever found him or been able to get this back. So you're welcome.

Condi

Jay just looks at him with this viciousness and hatred behind her eyes. Her last words to him, absolutely intended to be her last.

Niklaus

There's something you should know.

Grizzly

As he begins to walk, he hops the railing and then he does step on the waters as if he's walking on it, the still waters. As he's walking away, he says,

Niklaus

Tonight, very close by, you won't be able to miss it. You want to open the Pearl. It needs to be struck by the sky's natural lightning. All you have to do is sail within the storm. This storm follows another Leviathan, known as Pelagus. It swims closer to the surface about once a year, so you don't want to miss it. This is your chance. And once the Pearl, which attracts the lightning, none to fear, as it is from another Leviathan, once it is struck, it shall be cracked open, and Gillion will be released. That's tonight, by the way.

Condi

What time is it right now? Like, looking in the sky.

Grizzly

Now, like midday, you have time to sail out. For sure before nightfall?

Condi

There's no change in her demeanor at this point.

Grizzly

And with that, he seems to almost like walking down the steps, walks into the ocean, and [whoosh] then everything begins to move again. And when you look behind you, you see more people and you see Chip still walking away, but now you're holding the Luxbris Pearl.

Condi

Jay looks towards Chips quickly, but she just falls over herself. She collapses onto the deck back against the rails and puts the Luxbris Pearl to her head, both hands. And you can see she started crying, and she just says under her breath.

Jay

You're coming back, Gill.

Charlie

I don't suppose I'm literally a tiny guy in this thinking here. Am I?

Grizzly

Jay, when you put your forehead to the Pearl, do you remember when you did the thing back with La Alma?

Condi

Yeah, I do.

Grizzly

Okay, go ahead and make an arcana check.

Condi

Why do I always roll bad with the Pearl?

Charlie

Ugh, damn.

Condi

Eight.

Grizzly

So unfortunately, nothing happens for you or you, Gillion. Gillion, you're still in the Pearl, yelling obscenities at the sky.

[laughter]

Grizzly

It's all darkness for you.

Charlie

Oh my god, that's awesome.

Grizzly

And one more thing, as you're crying into the Pearl, you hear [falling sound] as something smashes into the deck right next to you, and you just look to your left, and you see Destiny's Blade.

Bizly

That motherfucker.

Charlie

He could have just stayed, man. What the hell?

Grizzly

And that's where we're going to end the session.

Condi

Oh boy!

Bizly

Whooo!

Charlie

You did it, guys. All you got to do is sail into the Storm of god and achieve this incredible thing. Wow.

Bizly

We'll talk about this.

Charlie

Holy shit.

Bizly

On...

Grizzly

Just Rolled With it.

Condi

Just Rolled With It.

Goobleck

Can we one word story on?

Condi

Just

Grizzly

Rolled

Charlie

With

Goobleck

Pants. Fuck. Shit.

Grizzly

I'm stopping.

Charlie

God damn it, man.
