

St. Thomas More College at the University of Saskatchewan

Les and Irene Dube Service and Justice Scholarship ($2,000)

To apply for this scholarship, a student must be enrolling as a full-time student in an Arts and Science program at the University of Saskatchewan through St. Thomas More College for their first year of study.

The student must also agree to participate fully in the Service and Justice program, administered by the Engaged Learning Coordinator, which requires two hours of community volunteer work per week, excluding holiday and exam periods.

As well, the student must have a minimum 80% average based on the following classes: Christian Ethics 30, ELA A30 or B30, three 30 level electives (but not PAA30 or Phys. Ed. 30), have demonstrated outstanding leadership and Christian service during their high school years, and be recommended by a Christian Ethics teacher.

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY

St. Thomas More College defines entering students as:

- Students proceeding directly from high school to university, or
- Students who have been out of high school for one or more years and have less than 18 credit units transferable to a program of study at the University of Saskatchewan.

To be eligible for St. Thomas More College Entering Student Scholarships a student must:

- Be an entering student,
- Be a self-declared St. Thomas More College student. (See a career counsellor for information on this if you are not.)
- Be registered in at least 18 credit units of coursework as of the application deadline (9 credit units per term: Sept-Apr), and
- Be registered for 6 credit units of coursework through St. Thomas More College as of the application deadline (Step - Apr).

To apply, on or before Wednesday, May 26, 2021, submit the following items to Mrs. Orieux:

- A cover letter outlining your intent to be considered for this scholarship
- A resume outlining a record of school and community service
- A copy of your most recent transcript
- A copy of your letter of acceptance to the U of S through St. Thomas More College