

NAME: _____ PERIOD: _____ COMPUTER NUMBER: _____

DRAFTING I

Making Space: Five Women Changing the Face of Architecture

While watching the documentary “Making Space: Five Women Changing the Face of Architecture,” reflect on what you’ve seen and answer the questions below. Please use full sentences and write legibly. Be thoughtful and careful with your answers. Too-brief or insincere answers will not be graded.

1. Architect Odile Decq, suggest that to be an architect you have to be curious about the world, curious about art, and feel that you are “free and glad about the world.” Why did she suggest this? Do you agree?
2. Over 50% of Architecture students in school are women but the majority of those practicing architecture are men. According to the video, why do they think this is the case?

3. It is stated, in the video, that some of the most unique and “individual” architects are women and immigrants. According to the video, why is this the case?
4. According to the video “the 20th century is about building buildings and the 21st century is about the spaces between them.” Why is this important? What did they mean by this?
5. Research (online) and define the following terms as they relate to design and architecture::

FACADE:

CONTEMPORARY ARCHITECTURE:

TECTONIC ARCHITECTURE:

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE:

ECLECTIC ARCHITECTURE: