Life:

Family :

Father: Unknown

Mother: Harmony Lyric

Melly doesn't get along with her mother. The woman failed in her own dreams, and constantly pushed them on her daughter, forcing her to play constantly, long after Melly lost interest. She tends to be manipulative, and Melly has trouble distinguishing lies from the truth when it comes to Harmony.

Siblings: None

Occupation:

Melly works part time at the public library in town as a page. While it isn't a full time career, and she wishes she made more money, Melly loves working in the library, and feels a satisfaction in putting things back where they belong.

Living Situation:

Melly rents a studio apartment. While it isn't big and the building is run down, she states that it 'has character' and loves the place, especially her small balcony. Despite her OCD, the room is chaos, though she will insist to everyone it is completely organized and that she knows where everything is located.

Melly does not know where everything is and constantly loses items.

Drinks:

Melly doesn't drink. It isn't for a want or a repulsion. She simply keeps to herself and the opportunity doesn't arise much.

Smokes:

Melly occasionally smokes pot with a few other friends from college.

Medication:

Melly takes medication once a day for her anxiety, in order to cope with symptoms of her OCD.
