Week of November 14, 2025

This week: Report cards are in today's folder; I sent home an email explaining it yesterday. Reach out with any questions. This week we finished being introduced to all of the color words. We started reading nursery rhymes during shared reading time and took a quiz on more than/less than in math. No school- 11/26-11/28	Next Week: Please sign and return the report card envelope on Monday. Also, please send in a complete change of clothes. Most of the children have shorts and warm weather clothes. We will send back the bag that is here already. Fall picture retakes are Wednesday if you are interested. Next week, we will begin preparing for Thanksgiving. Please send in family photos if you haven't already. Monday- F day Tuesday- A day Wednesday- B day Thursday- C day Friday - D day
Reminders The children go out everyday! Please make sure your child is ready for the weather. All children need a coat, hat, and mittens. If a child comes to school with NO coat, the lunch monitors will not let him/her outside. We cannot help with toileting. Please practice having your child wipe himself/herself! Label jackets...! Please make sure your child can put on his/her own coat too!	Together Everyone Achieves More Membership TOOL KIT

As always please email me with any questions or concerns. jsullivan@saugerties.k12.ny.us
