

[footsteps walking up] Well hello there! Aren't you just the cutest? Sitting so well in your cage. Let's see, what does your tag say you are. Hmm it says here that you're one of those hybrids. Half human, half puppy. Can tell that from your floppy ears and wagging tail, huh? [chuckle] You seem awfully friendly. You've been here a while, haven't you?...Ah, ah, ah. No talking. Puppies don't talk, do they? They only bark. Let me hear that bark of yours, cutie....Aww, how adorable! You're obedient too. What a good sign. [chuckle] I was just supposed to be looking around. I promised my husband I wouldn't bring home another pet. He says that we have too many but just look at you! You look so cute in your adorable little collar, wagging happily at me as I talk to you. And you look like you would be a wonderful addition to our little ranch. You would fit right in with all of our other pets. [shuffle] I'm going to text him about you. Here, can you do a cute pose for the camera, puppy?

[camera sfx // typing sfx] Oh you're such a good pup, aren't you? Doing exactly what you're told, look at you. I feel like if I were to leave here without you, I might regret it. Let's hope he says yes to you, darling. I think you're just too sweet to pass up. Floppy ears moving around as your tail continues to wag, never stopping. [chuckle] Barking in excitement. You want to get out of here, don't you? You've been in this cage for too long without an owner. [phone ding] Oh! Hold on, that must be him. Let's see what he says. [chuckle] It seems like he really likes you too. Said you would make the perfect addition to our ranch and our program. We've been looking to add a new puppy into the mix and you have the exact features we've been searching for and such a lovely disposition to go with it. There's just a few things I need to check before I say yes, pup. Bark if you understand.

...Good pet. I'm really happy that you're able to understand me so well. Not every puppy is able to do that. It shows me that you're not just cute, you're also intelligent. You might be a diamond in the rough, pup. The rest of the pets here seemed to be lacking but you immediately caught my attention. [chuckle] Now, I'm going to unlock the cage and let you out. I expect you to be on your best behavior, okay? No biting, no growling, none of that. Do you understand that, darling?...Oh that's a good puppy. [shuffle] It's so nice that they give us the key to the cages so we don't have to ask for help. It makes the whole process of buying a pet so much easier. [unlocking door and it opening] You're going to be good for me and do what you're told, aren't you? You're not going to act out, you're going to let me inspect you to see if you are up to the standards as the rest of our pets. I want you to step out and stand in front of me, your arms behind your back with your neck up. Now come on out, puppy.

[shuffle] Good job, pet! Now let's see. Look at me. Good, good. Very pretty eyes, darling. Good nose, very nice lips. Your face is stunning, puppy. Your cheekbones really suit the structure, and your floppy puppy ears really pull everything together. You've got to be one of the cutest pups I've ever seen, darling. Genuinely. Now looking down, taking in your form. Standing fairly straight, arms behind your back like I asked. Good, good. Keep looking forward for me. You've got a really nice shape to you. We don't have many like this back at the ranch, you would fit in perfectly. Even if my husband had said no to you, I think I would've brought you home. It's easier to ask for forgiveness than permission. [chuckle // petting] No reason to be nervous, I'm just petting you, pup. Reaching between your ears and seeing how you react. That's it, puppy. You're doing good. Nice and easy for me. That's it, pup. Let my hand continue to pet you. I bet it feels nice to be petted, doesn't it, darling?

...That's good. And what if I start petting a bit lower. Continuing to stroke you, my hand caressing your sensitive skin. It feels good to be touched, doesn't it?...Have you ever had someone touch you like this before?...Ah, ah, ah. Remember to bark, darling. Puppies aren't supposed to talk. So let's try that again and you're going to be a good doggy and bark for me. Have you ever had someone touch you like this before?...Good pup. That's the answer I was looking for. [petting stops] And has anyone ever touched you here before?...Do you like how it feels, darling?...I thought you might. Starting to rock yourself against my touch. I didn't give you permission, did I? [chuckle] Needy little thing. That's not even what I want from you. Turn around and bend over. I assume whoever runs this place made sure you were ready to take things inside you, yes?

...Well if it isn't my lucky day then. Already open and wet for me. What a pretty hole you have. Just waiting for something or someone to fill it. And such perky cheeks too. [spank] God, I do love that noise. Palming at the globes of each of your cheeks, you feel really good, puppy. Such a wonderful ass on display. So perfectly grabable. So wonderfully fuckable. [chuckle] All I have to do is take out my strap and see how well you can take it. That shouldn't be hard. I know you'll be able to take it. The strap I'm wearing is about 7 inches, something a pet should be able to handle easily. From how excited you seem to be acting, I think you're going to do wonderfully for me, puppy. Will I be the first one inside you or have you gotten a little rowdy with the other pups, darling? Be honest, I won't mind...[chuckle] That doesn't surprise me. But it makes me happy hearing the truth. That's a good way to build trust with your owner, darling. Now show me you deserve to come home with me, pup.

[wet noises start] Easy to slide into, pet. That's good. That's going to make you quite popular back at the ranch. I'm sure once I bring you home, everyone is going to want a turn with you. I hope you're ready to feel open and sloppy because I'm not sure who would be able to resist this. Gripping the strap so tightly, that's it. That's a good puppy. You can't help but moan at the feeling of being filled, huh?...What a good pup, remembering to bark. You can whine, you can whimper, and you can even cry. But I don't want a single human word coming out of that mouth of yours. Not right now. You're a puppy. Puppies don't need to speak. Puppies get to be taken care of and get to be fucked. It feels good to be a pup, doesn't it?...I bet it does. Don't hold back now. Let everyone know how good it feels to finally be filled. This is what you've been waiting for while sitting in the cage all by yourself, isn't it?

...Finally getting some attention. My hand wrapping around your fluffy tail, pulling you further onto my strap, fucking you even deeper. Your hole opens right up for me, darling. Stretching so easily around the strap, taking it so well. It feels so good, doesn't it?...Continuing to make such sweet noises for me. You look so good like this, pet. Somehow you're even cuter when you're stuffed full of strap. I didn't think it was possible but here we are. [chuckle] Why don't you start touching yourself for me, puppy? I bet it would feel amazing if you were to start touching yourself while I continue to thrust inside you. Go on, puppy. You have my permission. I want to see just how stunning you are when you cum. Going to make sure that you cum around my strap like a proper puppy. Puppies aren't supposed to have orgasms with empty holes, right?

...That means that every orgasm from now on is going to be with you filled. I'm going to make sure you don't remember what it was like to ever cum empty again. A hole as wonderful as this deserves to be constantly filled, constantly fucked. Just look at how well you take it. Moaning as you take it so well. So good for me, darling. You're feeling so wonderful, aren't you?...The throbbing is getting harder to ignore. Can feel your pleasure growing with every thrust inside you. My strap continues to fuck into your hole, dragging against that sweet spot, making you let out another loud moan. But you don't stop working yourself. You haven't been told to stop so you don't. You continue to work yourself as I fuck into you, watching you swallow the strap over and over again. You're fucking amazing, puppy. Don't stop, I want to keep watching you like this. Seeing how quickly you crumble under the pleasure, it's so cute. You're adorable when you get like this. I think when I take you home, I'm going to make sure you're always wet and open for me too. It's nice not having to waste any time with foreplay or prep, I can just slide my strap in and play with the puppy. And you're happy you're getting fucked, aren't you?

...You don't really care how it happens, as long as you're filled. It's okay, puppy. I would expect much else from you. There's a reason why you're the one in a collar and cage, darling. [chuckle] Pulling on your tail, listening to your whines of pleasure as you get closer, its music to my ears. I just adore how you sound. You might be my new favorite pet, pup. Haven't even gotten you yet and I'm falling in love. That's how good you are, darling. [chuckle] Keep it up. You want to make me happy, don't you?...That's how you get to come home with me. You make me proud. You behave yourself. And you do what you're told. I only want an obedient puppy, one that I can train. You're eager to please, pup. You're everything I look for when adopting a pet. Oh, yes. That's it. It feels so good to be filled, doesn't it?...Can't get enough. Now that you know what this strap feels like you want more. You want to spend all day impaled on it, don't you? Fucking yourself, making me proud of you. That's all any puppy wants, right?

...What a polite little bark. It sounds so pitiful when you're out of breath like this. Trying so hard to be good for me, trying so hard to be obedient. I can see it in the way your muscles are straining. I'm very proud of you, pet. You're doing a good job, making a great first impression on me. Your hand continues to work you closer to your orgasm as my hips never stop, continuing to thrust inside you. Come on puppy, you can take it, can't you? Don't you want cum on my strap?...Then you have to keep it up. Keep making me proud. You're such a good puppy and have gotten so close. You don't want to disappoint me now, do you?...I didn't think so, darling. You're too sweet for that. Just look at you. So close to your orgasm but waiting for permission. You know better than to cum on your own, don't you?

...Seems I won't have to teach you that lesson then, how lucky for me. [chuckle] Aw, look at you. Just a little bit more. I know, you're so close. You're right on the edge. Can feel yourself almost tipping over and needing just a bit more. You can do it, puppy. Make me proud. You want to show your new owner that you deserve to be taken home, don't you?...Aww, that's it. Such a good puppy for me, so eager to please. Such an obedient little thing. Keep it up. Keep making me so proud as you get closer to cumming. Trying to hold back, trying not to cum, doing your best to follow instructions. This is what I expect from all of my pets, darling. Is that something you can manage?...I expect only the best. I don't take anything less than that. If you can't give me that, tell me that right now. Can you handle being an obedient puppy with an open hole all day long?...Then prove it to me. Cum for me, darling. Show me what a good puppy you are. I want to see it. Let go and cum for me, pet. Just like that. Good job. Let it all out. You've made me so happy puppy, did such a good job. It felt good, didn't it?

...Such a sweet pup, so good for your new owner. [shuffling / click] Just need to attach my leash to your collar so that you can follow me around. I'm not risking leaving you in the cage where just anyone could see you and take you for a spin. You're mine, puppy. I'm bringing you home and introducing you to your new pack. Don't worry, you'll love it. I'm sure after a few days of constantly being fucked, it'll feel just like home, darling. Now come along, I have to go fill out your paperwork. I just know my husband can't wait to meet you. [footsteps]
