6.04 Journey's End Assessment

★ The use of Artificial Intelligence is considered an Academic Integrity offense. Make sure you are creating your own story!

Step 1: Type the final draft of your hero's journey narrative in the space provided. Remember, your narrative should include:

- at least 500 words - Split into smaller paragraphs since dialogue should be added.
- an epic hero protagonist that embodies at least three traits of an epic hero
- an epic hero's journey plot that contains at least four phases of the hero's journey
- an established point of view that is consistent throughout
- the use of narrative techniques to enhance the characters, conflict, and setting
- a universal theme that is developed throughout the narrative and revealed in the resolution
- proper grammar, spelling, and punctuation

REMINDER:

- Your narrative must be entirely your own creation. Do not use pre-existing stories or rely on outside sources.
- Be creative in developing your hero, their journey, and the challenges they face. Originality and imaginative storytelling are key.
- Ensure that all content in your narrative is written in your own words.

Final Draft

Type your 500+ word final draft here:

(TIPS:

*This should not be one long paragraph.
*Add lots of dialogue and plenty of vivid descriptions.
*Each new speaker's dialogue should start a new paragraph.
*Consider 1st person point of view for a closer look into the hero's thoughts and motivations.
