Subject: I didn't think I could do it anymore..

I had always hoped for this, but I almost gave up on my dream.

After many years of struggle I pulled myself through, I had finally landed multiple clients.

I made a name for myself, and was actually earning good money.

Living a happy life.

Providing for my wife, my kids and my mother.

But then all of a sudden, 6 of my clients all came up with huge problems at the same time.

They ALL demanded of me that I help solve their problems.

Realization hit...

I didn't think I would ever be able to solve this, and that my clients would leave me.

The point of giving up was so close, but my perseverance had already gotten me this far.

Why would it not get me through this.

I did after all just learn a method that helped me boost my productivity and effectiveness massively.

With this method, I managed to blast my way through every problem in no time and all 6 clients were happy.

And I have my mentor Jason to thank for that.

Tell the readers that you got the job done and all your 6 clients was happy with you. This will build some more credibility in your email. Other than you have a good HSO email.
