What is Greatness?

Choose a person that you consider is great. Concisely in 30 sec - 90 seconds discuss why you believe this person is great.

What to include:	Paul george
An introduction of the person you will talk about. Use a 'hook' to get people interested.	Paul george is a great nba player who averages about 28 points a game which is pretty good if you ask me. He is also just a great all round person.
How was/is this person great and what they have contributed to society i.e. service, leadership, accomplishments, talents.	He supported the american stroke association
What qualities did this person display that has lead to them being great? i.e. empathetic, humble etc.	He is a very humble person
How has this person shown greatness in ways others haven't? What has lead to them standing out?	Paul has shown greatness in the nba which stands for national basketball association
Why do you personally think this person has displayed greatness?	He said a dream and went after it
Strong close/tag line - leave us with something memorable to think about i.t. quote, question.... - Want to convince us to why this person is great.	His number one goal is to be the best in the nba
Ensure: - You are clear and convincing. - Concise - don't ramble, get your main points across. - You are engaging.	Ok
