

Questions to Ask a College or University:

- How many students are enrolled in school? The program?
- Can I defer my admission?
- What are the entrance requirements for the program(s) that interests you?
- What is the cost?
- What makes them different from other college/universities? What are they known for?
- Is there flexibility in scheduling classes?
- Does the program you're interested in offer on-line courses?
- Does my program offer night classes? If so, how long are they generally?
- What future job options will this degree lead to?
- What courses (if any) are all students required to take regardless of their major/program?
- Is there a special orientation for new students?
- Are there tutors to assist with ongoing classwork?
- What size is the campus/community - small, mid-size or large?

- What is the average class size?

- How many students live on campus?

- In thinking about your career path, is further education required? Does the school you're interested in offer a major or a certification In your career choice area?

- How is the school year divided up? When are the breaks? When does school end for the year?

- Is attendance taken?

- What scholarships are available?