Stage 1: Assessment of Sponsor

- (3) CPC-M process the Sponsorship Application >> CPC-M will send a letter/email address to the sponsor spouse once decision made in the sponsorship application (we call it "Sponsor – DM"); normal processing time is 68 days (usually within 42days based on previous applicant timeline)
 - a. Family Class Processing Time: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/times/perm-fc.asp>
 - b. eCAS: <https://services3.cic.gc.ca/ecas/?app=ecas&lang=en> (use all information of the sponsor spouse – client ID, receipt no., PR card no., and personal information)
- (4) CPC-M transfer the Application for Permanent Residence (with supporting documents) to CEM >> normal timeline is at least 2 weeks after sponsor-DM

Stage 2: Assessment of Person Being Sponsored (applicant)

- (5) CEM process the Application for Permanent Residence >> CEM will send an AOR/PPR letter to the sponsored spouse (normally by Post Office); normal timeline is at least 1 month after sponsor-DM
 - a. Manila Processing Time: <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/times/perm/fc-spouses.asp#asia>
 - i. If your application is still within the processing time (start counting from CEM received date), do not follow-up your status at the CEM. Otherwise, CEM will delay processing your application.
 - ii. If your timeline exceeded the normal 10-month processing time (start counting from CEM received date), you can ask help from your MP. To know the name of your MP:
<http://www.parl.gc.ca/MembersOfParliament/MainMPsCompleteList.aspx?Language=e>
 - b. eCAS: <https://services3.cic.gc.ca/ecas/?app=ecas&lang=en> (can now access using sponsored spouse information – client ID or immigration file no., and personal information)
 - c. Application Status, Explanation, and Sample Details: (click on the link)

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1RT9sUEPibTIwH_4GzIQAYEY9iFaLDC0NH6E7Q8xemw/edit?hl=en_US

- d. eCAS common observations: (it's case to case basis)
 - i. Application Received status >> medical results received, mailing address added/removed occasionally
 - ii. In Process status >> mailing address added/removed occasionally, sometimes does not appear even DM already or VISA has been issued, medical results received sometimes appear at this stage
 - iii. Decision Made status >> usually status will change to DM before the sponsored person receives his/her VISA but there are cases that eCAS not yet updated even VISA has been issued

- iv. 2-4 months waiting time from the date of the pp sent before eCAS changes
- v. eCAS changes to IN PROCESS and then DM after the said waiting time
- vi. Medical result received and DM usually comes few days after IN PROCESS; but some will have IN PROCESS for 2-4 months and gets DM; some gets visa first before getting DM from IN PROCESS status.
- vii. Medical result received status will appear once or twice. If you submitted your medical result prior to your application, it will appear first before application received or during the first month of your application and then in just a few days it will be removed on your ecas. If it again appeared 2-4 months after passport submission then you'll probably get DM within that month or not later than the next month, if everything goes well.
- viii. Mailing address also appears/disappears (pabalik-balik ba) once or more than once for some unknown reasons.

e. Some factors affecting the timeline: (it's case to case basis)

- i. visa officer handling the application,
 - ii. complete application package submitted,
 - ii. compliance on additional document requested,
 - iv. relationship history, background check, criminal/security check
 - v. proofs submitted to show the relationship is genuine
- f. It may require an interview or add'l information and documentation before it can make a decision about your application. If you are asked to provide additional documents, the visa office will send you a written request. It is in your interest to comply as quickly as possible. If the visa office does not receive the add'l information or docs within 3 months of the request date your application may be refused. If you need to be interviewed, the visa office will notify you in writing in advance of the date, time and location of the interview as well as of the documents to bring with you.

>> at the back of it is Appendix B (Appendix A and B is a standard form); if they are not requiring photos then don't send photos...

4. Detailed statement of relationship with the EX (notarized) >> for sponsored person with a child from their ex. Sometimes you are required to submit: Ex's I.D, a notarized letter stating the ex allows the child to be sponsored, or other document asked by the visa officer.
