DIRECTIONS:

Please provide specific directions to the site that include the nearest landmark:

- From Penn Hills: Take Beulah Road/Brown Avenue into Turtle Creek. At the Tri-Boro Expressway intersection, stay straight onto Shaw Avenue. At the stop sign, turn left onto Penn Avenue and then immediately turn right into the parking lot at 413 Penn Avenue.
- From Pittsburgh: Take 376 East (Parkway East) to the Churchill exit (79B). Turn left onto Beulah Road/Brown Avenue. Take that road into Turtle Creek. At the Tri-Boro Expressway intersection, stay straight onto Shaw Avenue. At the stop sign, turn left onto Penn Avenue and then immediately turn right into the parking lot at 413 Penn Avenue.
- From Braddock: Take Braddock Avenue out of Braddock. It will turn into the Tri-Boro Expressway. Once in Turtle Creek, by the Keystone Commons, stay straight to stay on Braddock Avenue (instead of staying on the Tri-Boro Expressway). Follow Braddock Avenue until it turns into Penn Avenue by the Human Services Center. Directly after the bend in the road, turn right into the parking lot at 413 Penn Avenue.

Dress code: Appropriately casual; HSCMV volunteer t-shirts will be provided. Any political attire or accessories are prohibited.

Bad weather/emergency plan: In the severest of weather, our site will close. As our site is open late in the evening, every effort will be made to ensure the safety of volunteers and clients. All other details will be reviewed during volunteer orientation.

Important Information about your organization (mission, other work that you do, etc.):

The Human Services Center Mon Valley improves the quality of life for children, adults, and families in the Mon Valley area. All volunteers will receive an orientation to HSCMV, the work we do, and how to make referrals for other resources and programs available at our site.

CORE PROGRAMS

- Emerging Leaders Program (ELP), a workforce and college readiness program for 155 low-income high school seniors (in five school districts: East Allegheny, McKeesport Area, Penn Hills, West Mifflin Area, and Woodland Hills).
- Youth Learning In a Fun Environment After-School Program (Youth LIFE) serves 80 youth in first through fifth grade daily with a comprehensive after-school program.
- Kids Outgoing, Outdoing, and Learning Summer Program (KOOL) serves 80 youth in first through fifth grade, seven hours a day, five days per week for seven weeks.
- Supports for Success provides one-on-one coaching, advocacy, resources and referrals, and ongoing support to help individuals and families achieve self-sufficiency through an employment or training goal.
- The Mon Valley Providers Council serves as a formal network for information and resource exchange among 70+ dues paying human service providers in the Mon Valley.
- Community Outreach Services are the dozens of additional services that come to HSCMV to provide supplemental services in addition to the HSCMV's tenant agencies. This includes the HSCMV's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program, which helps over 700 low-income households annually get their taxes prepared for free, receiving over $1,000,000 in returns last year. Additionally, HSCMV conducts financial literacy seminars assisting over 400 people annually. HSCMV also supports a food pantry for the 150+ lowest income families in the region.
