

Rebel Studios is a luxury virtual photography studio owned and operated by Faith Rebel. We specialize in editorial-quality photography, branding, and artistic portraits for Second Life residents.

Whether you're a model, content creator, entertainer, business owner, escort, or simply looking for stunning new photos, every session is customized around your vision. From elegant portraits to dramatic editorial shoots, Rebel Studios offers a professional photography experience designed to help you stand out.

Using advanced photography tools, creative lighting, immersive environments, and professional editing, we create images that capture confidence, personality, and style.

Your image isn't just a picture ... It's your brand.
