

Partial Delivery of Course by Industry Expert

Expert professionals from the industry/corporate sector will handle part of the course contents in conjunction with regular in campus faculty. Through this, students will understand the industry standards, requirements/demands. This will help the students to fine-tune their skill sets before appearing for the placement interviews or attempting for internships.

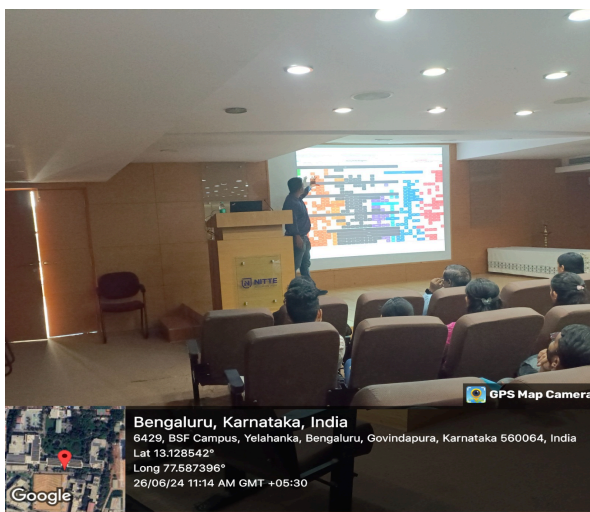

Fig: Partial Delivery Session for the course Cryptography and Network Security

