Abstract. #An abstract should be a brief summary of significant items of the main paper. An abstract should give concise information about the content of the core idea of the paper and clearly describe methods and the major findings reported in the manuscript. The volume of an abstract should not exceed 300 words. Font Times New Roman 9 pt should be used for formatting an abstract. The customised styles or the key combinations of the template can be used for quick formatting of the whole manuscript (the full list is provided at the end of the template). Also, the appropriate style of each item is indicated at the end of its description, e.g. use style Abstract, or Alt + Ctrl + S. #Delete words before submission

The abstract should be briefly divided under the following headings:

Purpose:

Methodology/Design:

Findings:

Practical and Social Implications:

Originality:

Keywords: some general terms, some subject-specific terms. There should be no less than 6 and no more than 10 keywords. Keywords should be formatted in Times New Roman 9 pt (use style Keywords, or Alt + Ctrl + K).

Acknowledgements (for chapter titles use style Heading 1, or Alt + Ctrl + 1)
