

ASOC MISSION:

ASOC membership includes all students who pay ASOC student government fees at Occidental College. All areas of ASOC serve to promote, regulate, and maintain the social and educational welfare of our student body through a student government that embodies the mission of Occidental College.

- Promote (P)
- Regulate (R)
- Maintain social welfare (MSW)
- Maintain Educational Welfare (MEW)

ASOC LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Through the learning laboratory for student leadership that ASOC Student Government provides, students will:

- Define ASOC's purpose, role, and functionality on Occidental's campus (P)
- Recognize how to collaboratively work with administrators and staff to participate fully in the college governance process (P, R)
- Understand how to efficiently transition institutional memory to the next group of officers and members (R)
- Analyze situations from different perspectives while advocating for student voices (MEW)
- Translate communication skills learned from participating in student government into their personal and professional development (MSW)
 - Understand how to effectively deal with conflict
 - Identify time management strategies to be more competent and effective as a student leader
 - Communicate effectively in differing contexts utilizing verbal and written formats
 - Differentiate characteristics that contribute to a successful team and organization.
 - Employ interpersonal skills to empower collaborative efforts
 - Identify personal leadership styles
