

NomuraLok's Terms of Service and general contract

Intro

Hello and welcome to my full Terms of Service. Please note that this will be treated as a contract between you, the Commissioner, and myself, the Artist. The purpose of this document is to have a single place of reference for terms, prices, and clear expectations between your party and myself.

On that note. If you have any questions about this document or my terms please feel free to ask so that future confusion can be cleared up and updated.

For transparency, this document will never be changed or updated after payment has been accepted. Any future updates to my Terms and this contract will result in a new file that will then be used when accepting future payments. Worry not, this document will stay put so you can reference the one that is assigned to your art order with me.

A general, non specific overview. more details are below per order type.

1. Orders must be placed by people or persons of 18+ years of age
 - 1.1 I will do nsfw pieces for 18+ only
 - 1.2 If there is doubt about your age I will ask for your state or government photo ID, refusing to do so will decline your nsfw commission
2. I own the right to use the commissioed piece for self advertisement, portfolio, etc.
3. You are allowed to post my content on your social media only with my watermark and credit to myself.

This can be my name and a link to my Furafinity. I would be grateful if more were to be linked. All links are written below.

Delivery

~Due to my main job (between 24-40 hours per week with dynamic hours) my delivery time may vary:

-Ych: delivery time estimated is 2 to 4 weeks. Depending on complexity of character(s).
 If the ych is for a special event then i will respect the delivery day of said event, example: halloween, christmas etc.

-Stickers: delivery time estimated to be 1-3 weeks depending on number of sticker ordered.

-Normal commission: delivery time is estimated to be in between 2weeks to 2/ 3 months, may be much faster.

-Day sketch: delivery time to be done same day or in 2 days.
 If taking more slots i will complete one per day until all slots are complete

-Reference: delivery time may vary, 1 month minimum wait time.
 Depending on the work between me and the commissioner the delivery time might be faster or slower.
 The more i have infos about your character the more your ref will be in your hands faster!

ATTENTION!

my working hours can prevent me to work on my art entirely for short periods of time, please be patient!

Refunds

~Full Refunds will NOT be provided if work has already started.

~Refunds will be provided based on amount of work that had already been done.

~A full refund will be available only if I cannot work on or complete your commission for any reason regarding personal life issues.

~ Threats of harm, death, or injuring my person, family, or pets will result with no refund and no further communication. A block and blacklist will be swift.

I get you have an idea of when and how things should be done, But lets stay civil and be reasonable. This is a Zero Tolerance policy!

I am a person too, just like you! my life and the things going on around me are important too. Art is considered a luxury item, So let us keep things professional.

Workflow and edits.

-I like to keep in close contact with my commissioner, so please be ready to receive lots of wips and updates once i start your commission!

-Sketches are to be modified, re-done entirely only on their early forms. Please be clear and more precise when you are writing about what you want. Taking a screenshot and showing me exactly what you want and where can help cut down edits. The limit of reasonable free changes will be about 3. Using any photo editor or art program to draw on WIPs is allowed if you want to show me exactly what you want.

A rough sketch example, Just enough detail to show whats going on and the character/ characters actions	More refined lines. At this point.A general sense of pose and look should be locked in and no longer changed.
This is where change is easy, Big changes can not be made past this point, so now is the time to make larger changes if desired.	Changes to refine and correct features such as anatomy, face gestures, finger/paw/claw poses are fine.

-Once I do the Lineart only small details can be changed, a complete re-do is 100% the cost of the sketch. The limit of reasonable free changes will be about 3.

Changes to shading/lighting will be done only on the very early phase of the shading progress, markings and other small details can also be adjusted.
The limit of reasonable free changes will be about 2-3

NOTE: No artwork will be modified after delivery.
