You are much better off getting off this thread and talking to Kahuna in a direct message to resolve this in my opinion

it's just a warning

KAHUNA™ — Yesterday at 7:03 PM

Sanji — Yesterday at 7:03 PM

the rules aint specific

dznt — Yesterday at 7:03 PM

If you are disputing a ban or warning, you are supposed to do it in a direct message with the mod giving you the ban/warning

Sanji — Yesterday at 7:03 PM

just says no spam

oh

KAHUNA™ — Yesterday at 7:04 PM

Media #1

dznt — Yesterday at 7:04 PM

If you do it that way, you can even have your ban or warning removed if you come to a understanding with what you were intending versus the way the message is perceived. It is the proper way to handle it and making a public spectacle only makes it worse

oh

KAHUNA™ — Yesterday at 7:06 PM

It's not like the emoji thing is a huge deal however there is a set number that can be added to a post so if someone adds multiple it leaves less room for others to add ones they want

Especially when someone spams 4-5

Or more

Make ur emoji move on once a new emoji is up and u agree with it then hit that one too I could care less then

dznt — Yesterday at 8:02 PM

Then I would wait patiently until he did respond. In one of the other threads, Kahuna mentioned he was going to bed and struggling to stay awake

Just be patient, and receptive to feedback. If you do those, I think Kahuna is very likely to remove your warning since he is pretty understanding

dznt — Yesterday at 8:06 PM

Everyone used to comment on things and bugs and issues, and pretty recently comments were getting out of hand. Only mods, admins and knowledgeable were able to comment on issues people were having to help. That rule seems to have become more relaxed since the thread is still primarily about bugs and issues. But the point is some rules are more enforced and some are randomly enforced. It is for a reason, so just try to be understanding. Kahuna already kind of mentioned his reasoning for it here

KAHUNA™ — Today at 3:24 AM

My ruling will stand

Kader himself has warned about this very thing years back.

I'll explain it one last time for those in the back. If you spam emojis (multiple) more than 1. When there is none posted. In the first hr. Taking up half the emojis available even 1/3 again more than one at one time. That's spamming!

No if you log on and there's 15 emojis up. And u add to that emoji by tapping on it and adding one of your own that doesn't matter.

But in this case the action was literally happening before I had even exited from posting while I was still looking at it.

KAHUNA™ — Today at 3:33 AM

Truthfully I shouldn't even have to take action because people should out of respect for others give everyone a chance and not selfishly cloud up and spam the emojis. 🙄

Lmao that's so sad, do you actually think those emojis are about you and not the extremely cringe situation of the game and the last announcement?

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:19 AM

It has nothing to do with me

Boudin124 — Today at 10:19 AM

Who chose to warn for emojis on announcement?

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:19 AM

It's posuls battle for equality

If you look up further the whole situation boiled out from a warning given to Porsul about spamming the emojis which led to his single handed crusade for all to be punished with him Not my idea of a good time and because I'm not sure I want to take the time to figure out who started it just swung the bat and hit the whole field so its clear now

Oh I almost forgot @GB don't hit the emoji button at all unless you want to. Change your discord name! Your choice.

What shows when you hit the emoji and look at who did is your actually discord name not just your name in this server what you have for this server is fine but when seen from the emojis its not an ok name

Boudin124 — Today at 10:27 AM

Is the warning about hitting 6 emojis buttons or about the fact that it spells "cringe" ?

That makes a huge difference

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:28 AM

Like I cannot even understand how to justify that

Sanji — Today at 10:35 AM

U justify it by knowing that terrible rules are still rules nonetheless, and you should just follow them

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:35 AM

A rule no one knows and makes no sense

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:36 AM

It's what happens when a kid gets up in class pees in the teachers tree in the corner all of a sudden we now have to have a rule that says don't pee on the teachers tree

Sanji — Today at 10:36 AM

But should still be followed once u are made aware of it

Boudin124 — Today at 10:36 AM

Lmao what kind of comparison is that hahahahahaga

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:37 AM

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:37 AM

Pacman — Today at 10:38 AM

Alligators are a myth, as someone who lives in Florida

Boudin124 — Today at 10:38 AM

But as we get a warning for a rule that was not established we should get an explanation

Pacman — Today at 10:38 AM

and the sign is there for humor, no one molested an alligator

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:38 AM

The rules exist let me explain u

Media #7

Boudin124 — Today at 10:42 AM

So yeah your screens prove that's the rule does not exists and you cannot consider this as a "good sense" rule as all discord servers authorize spamming emojis on announcement

Pacman — Today at 10:42 AM

Why don't y'all just turn off the ability to react at all?

Boudin124 — Today at 10:42 AM

I'm done trying to get to the point

Not gonna bother you more

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:42 AM

I get the point

That ur making

However how many people spam the server emojis the moment it's posted

I've seen it days later then it's trivial

But post in updates like everywhere else have a set number of emojis that can be added

Boudin124 — Today at 10:44 AM

To my mind rule has been set today by your announcement and you absolutely shouldn't have warned anyone for the post above, that seems logic to me

But yeah let's stop wasting both of our time

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:45 AM

20

Is the max I would venture to say if u post 5 in the beginning that's to much

That specifically would be spam

I'm not mad wasn't then

The argument wouldn't be speed

Who knows how many you would have stopped at had I not saved the day

Because I was erasing them while u we're going 🍌

Had I left u alone you would have done all 20

Can I go now we good here

Don't do it no more

More then 1

Is now the rule

Because u just made it

How relevant is this

KAHUNA™ — Today at 10:54 AM

Your the one that wants everyone warned

Past present future

It's not about fairness

It's about you spamming emojis

Like instantly

I would highly encourage you to stop instigating things. Mods are members of the community just like you and I, and they do not get a check from IO. Treat them the way you would want to be treated. You might not agree with what they tell you to do, but at the end of the day they are a moderator and you are not. Please just respect whatever they say, ask or tell you to do.
dznt — Today at 11:50 AM
The tone of your message comes off as trying to pick a fight. You straight up called him a "Emoji hater" to finish your message. If you would not have included the last part, your message would have been fine.

One of the more important parts of communicating with others is how they will perceive your message. You might not intend for your message to come across in a negative way, but if someone perceives it in a negative way then they will react accordingly. That is why you are supposed to take disputes with moderators offline so you can resolve it civilly between just the two of you.

Mr. Hat — Today at 11:50 AM

[Cute Floss GIF]

dznt — Today at 11:54 AM

I have no hurt feelings. I am merely trying to help you not get banned as you can probably tell the horse was beat for a long time on that entire discussion. It finally died, and you started it back up again.

Yes other people were warned as well. If they want to be exonerated for it then they can talk to Kahuna offline about it. Stop making a public spectacle like you are doing.

Mr. Hat — Today at 12:10 PM

Why are we fighting over emojis.

I think a better/more friendly approach would likely be to just kindly ask a person to refrain from doing something. If you hop on a minor infraction as if someone is committing a crime they ARE going to get defensive. Understanding general rules and morals is one thing. Memorizing every discord servers specific rules to a tee is a huge ask, and an unnecessary one unless we now live in a world of more photographic memories than I remember.

We are all people with opinions, as a mod expect disagreement. Giving warnings because of simple disagreement or misinterpretation needs to go as you will never get a good response, or will the person you are trying to enforce a rule on respect your decision or want to cooperate.

Inappropriate material or sensitive information is a reason for a warning.

You guys want pleasant discussions in this discord then you need to instigate them that way as leaders and content moderators

Let the convo die and move on

Much bigger worries in the CTA world than this absolutely silly issue

KAHUNA™ — Today at 12:13 PM

Im not here for discussion anymore

Im here to enforce rules

Mr. Hat — Today at 12:15 PM

That's fine but at what cost if it creates a clout atmosphere. I get it's your personal time and I highly appreciate everything you do for others but also I'm just stating that if he had been asked in a more understanding/kind fashion, he probably wouldn't have pushed back much, if at all

Kyllian — Today at 12:15 PM

KAHUNA™ — Today at 12:15 PM

I have no reason to be friendly when I'm trying to inform players. out right abuse will be handled even more sternly from now on

Mr. Hat — Today at 12:17 PM

Not every person is going to have the same rule understanding or do people retain information at the same level.

I'm simply saying more fairness from an outside view would be healthy in response to some of the issues

KAHUNA™ — Today at 12:17 PM

Don't care anymore people don't respect us being nice and or being stern

Fairness was established

Because the rules apply

Caring about others feelings have nothing to do with following rules

Rules are there if you want to be a clown u will get treated as such

Kyllian — Today at 12:19 PM

Yeah which is why you're being treated like a clown

KAHUNA™ — Today at 12:20 PM

And two timeouts in one swing

Read the rules understand them lets go

When you sign on to discord you agree to the rules

1a spam

First rule

Next

I can do this all day

I can also remove all emojis through the whole server this is the way it was before all emojis in every channel were resisted because people abused the system

I repeat Kaden created that rule years ago

We don't have to enforce rules unless someone is being disrespectful

Alright time to let it go

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1UpayuK0PH6BYxzormUdIkWpaxUpFCbGAhd6WaUJsFF4/edit>

This is the full rules

Mr. Hat — Today at 12:24 PM

Yeah I'm out. Can remove my role or I'll simply leave server, up to you

KAHUNA™ — Today at 12:24 PM

Read them

GloomDragoon — Today at 12:41 PM

Same. I've never received a notification for emojis before. Is this a new discord feature?

KAHUNA™ — Today at 12:42 PM

Again its not a normal issue to have to warn about but after someone does it gets in trouble for it they want everyone else to suffer for it

GloomDragoon — Today at 12:43 PM

Fair. I was more worried about getting notifs for emojis, which would be super annoying.

KAHUNA™ — Today at 12:43 PM

I've explained it multiple times if u log on within the first few days and use 1/4 the emojis to write a message or add multiple emojis that's spam

What happens a few days later becomes trivial

No'

No notifications about emojis

Just a maturity issue happening that people are struggling to understand

xiomitime — Today at 12:58 PM

Hi

WiseWitch — Today at 1:09 PM

Very unprofessional way to handle an issue that clearly could have been handled in the Dms.

vejiita — Today at 1:10 PM

If it was a spam of messages or emoji under each single message, then sure, but just reactions? Need to take that on shoulders and ignore, we are mature, right?

KAHUNA™ — Today at 1:13 PM

Normally its fine but when you erase them set it right and the person does it again that's abuse
Nothing I can do there

vejiita — Today at 1:16 PM

Why to erease? Reminds a try to censor opinions like tyrans start doing, whatever they are [opinions] One can just ignore and move on.

KAHUNA™ — Today at 1:16 PM

Again as I said before

20 emojis total are allowed for a post

If someone uses 4-5 of them that's 1/4 of the emojis used instantly

And we're not talking about using 4 - 5 in a few days that's .2 seconds after posted

Or liking someone's emoji by adding to someone else's

It's you choosing them an locking them in

Now the community has 15 left to choose from

vejiita — Today at 1:20 PM

I get your point but... I never heard people complaining about it. That's may be too trivial to fight for without any value added - even worse, antagonising the community .

KAHUNA™ — Today at 1:20 PM

Seems trivial but that's what spamming the emojis are literally people have been warned for adding an emoji the same emoji to all the post in a day

Same as Kaden has warned people for spamming the announcement emoji before and done it himself the following week

Kader*

Normally a non issue

Because it's rarely caught and most people don't go over board

KAHUNA™ — Today at 1:22 PM

However the matter is resolved further now no emojis can be used

Now all I need to do is enforce announcement emojis and I can possibly have those disabled also

vejiita — Today at 1:23 PM

Gotcha. Dm them and revoke reactions or ban if abusing. I just felt like it was emotion driven.
Especially the announcement,,from my pov was like "we are now banning people rights to speak".

KAHUNA™ — Today at 1:24 PM

The funny part is any emoji can be used in 10mil and people have been respectful of that and we haven't had to warn anyone there

KAHUNA™ — Today at 1:24 PM

Ok go read the rules

What does it say

WiseWitch — Today at 1:59 PM

What???

I don't see a rule that would get MrHat/Goose kicked 🙄

No reason to be sarcastic now. Let's don't escalate , thanks for understanding.

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:01 PM

Were done PORSUL

WiseWitch — Today at 2:02 PM

This has to be said... You are not acting as a 'moderator'. You are acting as though you were put on a pedestal and should be feared. That we should do what you say, because you said so.

Is there an Hr in this establishment? I feel you are lacking one.

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:02 PM

Ur next

Im not here to argue with people

WiseWitch — Today at 2:03 PM

Now that's a threat

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:03 PM

Goose can come and go however he feels

vejiita — Today at 2:03 PM

Hey @KAHUNA™ please answer if Goose was kicked.

WiseWitch — Today at 2:04 PM

So you threaten me?

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:04 PM

I kicked goose when I was unrolling him unintentionally he can come back he can do as he pleases

WiseWitch — Today at 2:04 PM

You did kick him.

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:05 PM

Just as I can ban u now

Ur choice

U can be combative all u want

Im not here to play games

With rulings and people being rude

WiseWitch — Today at 2:06 PM

I have not been rude once

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:06 PM

That's why ur still her

However as I said goose can come and go as he pleases noting going on with goose if he was kicked it was unintentional

I have no beef with goose'

vejiita — Today at 2:07 PM

And saying that would avoid 30 minutes dispute and negative emotions. No matter he left or was kicked.

Please don't get driven by emotions of people asking.

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:07 PM

Im not driven by emotions

WiseWitch — Today at 2:08 PM

There has to be a way to report this.

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:08 PM

This has nothing to do with feelings

You can @MightyModMaverick

He will come on tomorrow morning

And you can take it up with him as he's an admin and has power to remove me and ban me

His call till his arrival I'm the person your talking to unfortunately

But I won't be doing this whole ethics madness

Politics etc

People want to cry wolf that's fine but also need to own their own actions

As for goose I could have warned him etc for getting involved with moderator actions so

Disciplinary action could have happens

It's just not that deep with goose

He wanted his roles gone that's what he got

He can also come back one and have all his roles back his choice

Huepy — Today at 2:13 PM

KAHUNA™ — Today at 2:13 PM

But in reality Goose wasn't the issue and the issue that's started this was resolved. By disciplinary action that effected everyone no more emojis in Updates

But being combative and calling names just wont be tolerated
