

Privacy Policy for TallieRecord

Last Updated: April 15, 2025

1. Data Collection

TallieRecord does not collect, store, or transmit:

- Personal data (emails, names, etc.)
- Recorded audio/video content (all processing happens locally)
- Browsing history or website content

The extension only accesses:

- Microphone & camera (only when explicitly enabled by the user for recording).
- Screen content (only during active recording, with user permission via Chrome's prompt).

2. How Data is Used

- Recordings are processed locally and saved to your device.
- No data is uploaded to any server unless you manually export it.
- Permissions (microphone/camera/screen) are used solely for recording functionality.

3. Data Storage

- All recordings are saved only on your computer (default download location).
- Settings (like microphone/camera preferences) are stored locally via Chrome's `storage.local`.

4. Third-Party Sharing

- No data is shared with advertisers, analytics tools, or third parties.
- No tracking cookies or telemetry are used.

5. Compliance

- Follows Chrome Web Store Policies.
- Does not violate GDPR or CCPA (since no personal data is collected).

6. Changes to This Policy

Updates will be posted here with a new "Last Updated" date.
