

Wheelock's C Ch. 28-29 Test Study Guide

Vocabulary

- All ch. 28-29 words
- Bonus section from ch. 26-27

Grammar Charts

- Fill in a subjunctive chart with present and imperfect in the active and passive
- Fill in a chart of the present and imperfect subjunctives of sum and possum

Definitions/Rules

- Identify the difference between jussive, purpose, and result clauses
- What are purpose and result clauses introduced by (and how they are written in the negative)
- Identify the difference between the three different types of moods - indicative, imperative, and subjunctive
- What tenses does the subjunctive mood have
- How do the present and imperfect subjunctive each translate

Translation

- Be able to translate jussive, purpose, and result clauses