JGS Toronto Speakers Bureau

The Jewish Genealogical Society of Toronto has a diverse membership whose stories cover a wide range of genealogical topics that enlighten, inspire and educate audiences! Topics can be tailored to all age groups.

Among topics featured are:

- Instructional presentations
- Personal stories of the journey of finding family
- Stories of long-lost family reunions
- Step-by-step researching in today's high-tech world
- Experiences researching in ancestral homelands
- Experiences researching Canadian records

Our presentations can be virtual (zoom) or in person during daytime or evening.

Our speakers volunteer their services. In lieu for payment, please consider an honorarium by clicking here to assist us in continuing our mission providing a forum for the exchange or genealogical knowledge and information. (CRA tax receipt will be issued)

For more information, contact jscherer@jgstoronto.ca, Vice-President Communications