

PNW Sculptors Mission

Our Mission is to connect and inform artists and the context for all art. We aspire to be radically inclusive, with awareness some art and artists have not been represented fairly. A hybrid of “no one left out” along with merit based exposure can be attained. (See more on our Mission at the bottom of this document)

2024 Vancouver Art and Music Festival

Show summary

This will be the second year for this free event and it is expected to exceed the 30'000 attendees from last year. A PNWS volunteer team will be working in our booth doing demonstrations as we have done at the Art in the Pearl event in the past. Additionally, we will have a Raku demonstration in operation adjacent to our demo booth.

The Festival runs August 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

- Friday August 2nd- 12pm-5pm
- Saturday August 3rd- 10am-5pm
- Sunday August 4th-10am-5pm

More on our MISSION:

Pacific Northwest Sculptors encourages Members to create projects (events, shows, collaborative art, etc.) Resources available may include promotion through our website, email lists, social media, calendar listings, and announcements at other PNWS gatherings, etc. Our Mission is to connect and inform artists and the context for all art. We aspire to be radically inclusive, with a heightened awareness that some art and artists have not been represented fairly. Please, bear this in mind when including participants in group shows. A hybrid of “no one left out” along with merit based exposure can be attained.
